Sharing With Renoir:

Sharing with Renoir Julie Merberg, Suzanne Bober, 2005-04-28 Two new board books in this very successful series feature beautiful paintings by Renoir and Seurat The rhyming text links the paintings together in two imaginative stories Sharing with Renoir celebrates the special times between parents and children siblings and friends Sunday with Seurat leads children through a wonderful day that begins at the park moves to the beach and ends at the circus Mists of Regret Dudley Andrew, 2021-11-09 Just before World War II French cinema reached a high point that has been dubbed the style of poetic realism Working with unforgettable actors like Jean Gabin and Arletty directors such as Renoir Carn Gremillon Duvivier and Chenal routinely captured the prizes for best film at every festival and in every country and their accomplishments led to general agreement that the French were the first to give maturity to the sound cinema Here the distinguished film scholar Dudley Andrew examines the motivations and consequences of these remarkable films by looking at the cultural web in which they were made Beyond giving a rich view of the life and worth of cinema in France Andrew contributes substantially to our knowledge of how films are dealt with in history Where earlier studies have treated the masterpieces of this era either in themselves or as part of the vision of their creators and where certain recent scholars have reacted to this by dissolving the masterpieces back into the system of entertainment that made them possible Andrew stresses the dialogue of culture and cinema In his view the films open questions that take us into the culture while our understanding of the culture gives energy direction and consequence to our reading of the films The book demonstrates the value of this hermeneutic approach for one set of texts and one period but it should very much interest film theorists and film historians of all sorts Representations of Art and Art Museums in Children's Picture Books Perry Nodelman, 2024-10-17 What happens when the assumptions and practices of museum curators and art educators intersect with the assumptions and practices of publishing for children This study explores how over three hundred children's picture books most of them published in the last three decades in English introduce children to art and art museums It considers how the books emerge from and relate to a range of theories and assumptions about childhood and childhood development children's literature and culture illustration visual art museology and art education As well as examining how these theories and assumptions influence what picture books teach young readers about visiting museums and about how to look at and think about art it examines which artists and artworks appear most often in picture books and offers a survey of different kinds of art related picture books ones that claim to be purely informational ones that make looking at art a game or a puzzle ones in which children visit art museums and many more Since the books all include reproductions of or allusions to museum artworks the study also considers the problems illustrators face in depicting museum artworks in illustrations in a different style Renoir's Dancer Catherine Hewitt, 2018-02-27 Originally published United Kingdom Icon Books 2017 Scenescapes Daniel Aaron Silver, Terry Nichols Clark, 2016-09-05 Let's set the scene there's a regular on his barstool beer in hand He's watching a young couple execute a complicated series of moves on the dance floor while at the table in the corner the DJ adjusts his headphones and slips a new beat into the mix These are all experiences created by a given scene one where we feel connected to other people in places like a bar or a community center a neighborhood parish or even a train station Scenes enable experiences but they also cultivate skills create ambiances and nourish communities In Scenescapes Daniel Aaron Silver and Terry Nichols Clark examine the patterns and consequences of the amenities that define our streets and strips They articulate the core dimensions of the theatricality authenticity and legitimacy of local scenes cafes churches restaurants parks galleries bowling alleys and more Scenescapes not only reimagines cities in cultural terms it details how scenes shape economic development residential patterns and political attitudes and actions In vivid detail and with wide angle analyses encompassing an analysis of 40 000 ZIP codes Silver and Clark give readers tools for thinking about place tools that can teach us where to live work or relax and how to organize our communities

Impressionist Cats & Dogs James Henry Rubin, 2003-01-01 Many Impressionist paintings of modern life and leisure include images of household pets Their appealing presence lends charm to such works while alluding to middle class prosperity and the growing importance of animals as family members In many cases such domestic denizens significantly complement representations of their owners In certain others the devotion of individual artists to their pets symbolically enhances their expressions of artistic identity This enjoyable and informative book focuses on the role of pets in Impressionist pictures and what this reveals about art artists and society of that era James H Rubin discusses works in which artists paint themselves or their friends in the company of their pets including several paintings by Courbet who was fond of dogs and

Manet a notorious lover of cats He points out that in some works by Degas dogs contribute to the artist s commentary on psychological and social relationships and that in paintings by Renoir dogs and cats have playful and erotic overtones He also offers a theory to explain why Monet almost never painted pets Drawing on early pet handbooks and treatises on animal intelligence Rubin explores nineteenth century opinions on cats and dogs and compares handbook illustrations to the animals shown in Impressionist works He also provides fascinating information on pet ownership and on the place of Impressionism in the long history of animal painting

Peter S. Donaldson,2013-07-18 Originally published in 1990 this book brought a new rigor and subtlety to the interpretation of film adaptations of Shakespeare Drawing on traditional literary analysis psychoanalysis and current film theory about gender and subjectivity the author combines close readings of seven films with historical and biographical studies of the directors who made them Offering substantial readings of Jean Luc Godard s controversial deconstructed King Lear and of Liz White s independent African American Othello Donaldson also applies his provocative and contemporary point of view to more familiar films He reads Olivier s Henry V in relation to its treatment of sexual difference Olivier s Hamlet in part as an expression of the director s childhood sexual trauma Kurosawa s Throne of Blood as an allegory of the relationship between Western and Japanese cinema and Zeffirelli s immensely popular Romeo and Juliet in the light of its powerful homoerotic subtext With striking perspectives on Shakespeare on the movies as an expressive medium and on the complex processes of cultural change this is timeless useful reading for teachers and students of film and literature Music and Modern Art

James Leggio,2014-07-16 Music and Modern Art adopts an interdisciplinary approach to the relationship between these two fields of creative endeavor Bazille: Purity, Pose, and Painting in the 1860s ,1998 In Search of La Grande Illusion
Nicholas Macdonald,2013-11-08 This is an extended analysis of the film from different perspectives The first half is largely a discussion of the cinematic technique with key sequences analyzed shot by shot The second half approaches the film from many other angles including its history the critical reception Renoir s life and career and film theory e g film in relation to music A case is made that Renoir s career was inconsistent especially after La Regle du jeu but also during the 1930s And rather than emphasizing the humanist anti war thrust of La Grande Illusion the film is approached as a work of art that is deeply expressive cinematically
