

The image shows a detailed, ornate architectural facade, likely from a classical or neoclassical building. The facade is composed of various stone or metal panels with intricate carvings and patterns. A large, semi-circular arch is visible on the left side, and a rectangular window is on the right. The text "LOUIS SULLIVAN" is prominently displayed in large, capital letters across the upper part of the facade. Below the arch and window, the text "THE FUNCTION OF ORNAMENT" is visible. The overall style is highly decorative and detailed.

Twombly Wim de Wit,Chicago Historical Society,1986 The Function of Ornament Farshid Moussavi,2022-02-04 Architecture needs mechanisms that allow it to become connected to culture It achieves this by continually capturing the forces that shape society as material to work with Architecture's materiality is therefore a composite one made up of visible forces structural functional physical as well as invisible forces cultural political temporal Architecture progresses through new concepts that connect with these forces manifesting itself in new aesthetic compositions and affects Ornament is the by product of this process through which architectural material is organized to transmit unique affects This book is a graphic guide to ornaments in the twentieth century It unveils the function of ornament as the agent for specific affects dismantling the idea that ornament is applied to buildings as a discrete or non essential entity Each case operates through greater or lesser depth to exploit specific synergies between the exterior and the interior constructing an internal order between ornament and material These internal orders produce expressions that are contemporary yet whose affects are resilient in time Nature Of Ornament Kent Bloomer,2000-10-31 Yet during the twentieth century ornament was scorned Adolf Loos famously called it crime and its study all but eliminated from art and architecture curricula What happened and must we live with the result Is ornament dead The Orchestration of the Arts — A Creative Symbiosis of Existential Powers M. Kronegger,2013-03-09 Regardless of the subject matter our studies are always searching for a sense of the universal in the specific Drawing etchings and paintings are a way of communicating ideas and emotions The key word here is to communicate Whether the audience sees the work as laborious or poetic depends on the creative genius of the artist Some painters use the play of light passing through a landscape or washing over a figure to create an evocative moment that will be both timeless and transitory The essential role of art remains what it has always been a way of human expression This is the role that our participants concentrate on as they discuss art as the expression of the spirit a creative act through which the artist makes manifest what is within him Spirit suggests the unity of feeling and thought Avoiding broad generalities our participants address specific areas in orchestration with music architecture literature and phenomenology Profs Souiller Scholz Etlin Sweetser Josephs show us at what point art is an intimate profound expression and the magic of a civilization as a whole springing from its evolving thoughts and embodying ideals such as the Renaissance the Baroque Modernism and at what point it reflects the transformation of a particular society and its mode of life
