Paxton, 2016-12-27 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world The Statesman's Year-Book 1997-8 B. Hunter, 2016-12-28 Widely respected as an authoritative and accessible reference work The Statesman's Year Book provides up to date world facts about every country in the world constitution and government international relations industry agriculture trade and social issues Known as a people events and statistics work this year's edition includes accounts of the latest development in trouble spots such as Israel and Northern Ireland and records all recent election results Designing the Bayous Martin Reuss, 2004 This history of the Atchafalaya Basin is an account of the transformation of an area that has endured perhaps more human manipulation than any other natural environment in the nation The Statesman's Year-Book 1981-82 J. Paxton, 2016-12-21 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world The Sugar Masters Richard Follett,2007-02-01 Focusing on the master slave relationship in Louisiana s antebellum sugarcane country The Sugar Masters explores how a modern capitalist mind set among planters meshed with old style paternalistic attitudes to create one of the South s most insidiously oppressive labor systems As author Richard Follett vividly demonstrates the agricultural paradise of Louisiana s thriving sugarcane fields came at an unconscionable cost to slaves Thanks to technological and business innovations sugar planters stood as models of capitalist entrepreneurship by midcentury But above all labor management was the secret to their impressive success Follett explains how in exchange for increased productivity and efficiency they offered their slaves a range of incentives such as greater autonomy improved accommodations and even financial remuneration These material gains however were only short term According to Follett many of Louisiana s sugar elite presented their incentives with a facade of paternal reciprocity that seemingly bound the slaves interests to the apparent goodwill of the masters but in fact the owners sought to control every aspect of the slaves s lives from reproduction to discretionary income Slaves responded to this display of paternalism by trying to enhance their rights under bondage but the constant bargaining process invariably led to compromises on their part and the grueling production pace never relented The only respite from their masters demands lay in fashioning their own society including outlets for religion leisure and trade Until recently scholars have viewed planters as either paternalistic lords who eschewed marketplace values or as entrepreneurs driven to business success Follett offers a new view of the sugar masters as embracing both the capitalist market and a social ideology based on hierarchy honor and paternalism His stunning synthesis of empirical research demographics study and social and cultural history sets a new standard for this subject The Statesman's Year-Book 1983-84 J. Paxton,2016-12-28 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world Calcasieu LNG Project ,1976

Edge of the Sword Ted Tunnell,2004-10-01 Ted Tunnell s superbly researched biography of Marshall H Twitchell is a major addition to Reconstruction literature New England native Union soldier Freedmen s Bureau agent and Louisiana planter Twitchell became the radical political boss of Red River Parish in the 1870s He forged an economic alliance with entrepreneurial Jewish merchants and rose to power during the first upswing of the southern economy after the war The Panic of 1873 however undermined his regime and virtually overnight the New Englander quickly went from financial benefactor to scapegoat for northwest Louisiana s failed dreams of prosperity His life and death struggle with the notorious White League has more gut wrenching suspense than most novels The first full length study of Twitchell Edge of the Sword is edifying entertaining and cutting edge scholarship Traditional Buildings Allen Noble,2009-09-18 Based on a lifelong professional and personal interest Traditional Buildings presents a unique survey of vernacular architecture across the globe The reader is taken on a fascinating tour of traditional building around the world which includes the loess cave homes of central China the stilt houses on the shores of Dahomey the housebarns of Europe and North America the wind towers of Iran the Bohio houses of the Arawak Indians of the Caribbean and much more Professor s Noble s extensive travels have allowed him to examine many of the building at close quarters and the richly illustrated text includes photographs from his personal collection With its comprehensive and detailed bibliography the work will be welcomed by experts and non specialists alike
