Making Valuing People Work Strategies For Change In Services For People With Learning Disabilities:

Making Valuing People Work Fyson, Rachel, Ward, Linda, 2004-06-16 This timely report examines the strategic changes that are occurring within learning disability services as a result of the 2001 Valuing People White Paper. It offers evidence based examples of good practice for all those involved in planning strategic changes to or implementing change within services for people with learning disabilities.

Secret Loves, Hidden Lives? David Abbott, Joyce Howarth, 2005 Secret loves hidden lives draws on first hand accounts to explore the lives of gay lesbian and bisexual people with learning difficulties. The views and experiences of staff in a range of learning disability services are also featured in the study. Based on a three year qualitative research project carried out across the UK the report describes people's experiences of coming out, relationships, discrimination and abuse. It also looks at responses from staff and services meeting other lesbian gay and bisexual people and dreams for the future. Staff also reflect on these issues and discuss the importance of policy training and creating services which promote cultures of equality. The report highlights examples of good practice and contains practical recommendations for staff and services.

Intellectual Disability and Social Inclusion Martin Richard Bollard, 2009-01-27 This book provides a unique insight into the challenges faced by people with learning disabilities trying to access mainstream health and social services and by the professionals who are trying to provide them. The combination of professional perspectives and viewpoints of people with learning disabilities themselves creates an authoritative explanation of why this group of people face the barriers they do. The contributors critique these barriers and also offer potential solutions to overcoming them. Personal reflections written by people with learning disabilities on their experiences of accessing health and social care services. Comprehensive coverage of policy in the four UK countries. Comprehensive analysis by subject experts of practice in a range of areas from acute health care through mental health to leisure and housing provision. Accessible summaries at the end of each chapter including text for people with learning disabilities.

The Handbook of Intellectual Disability and Clinical Psychology Practice Alan Carr, Christine Linehan, Gary O'Reilly, Patricia Noonan Walsh, John McEvoy, 2016-04-12 The Handbook of Intellectual Disability and Clinical Psychology Practice will equip clinical psychologists in training with the skills necessary to complete a clinical placement in the field of intellectual disability. Building on the success of the previous edition this handbook has been extensively revised. Throughout the text references and website addresses have been updated to reflect important developments since the publication of the first edition. Recent research findings on the epidemiology, aetiology, course, outcome, assessment and treatment of all psychological problems considered in the book have been incorporated into the text. Account has been taken of changes in the diagnosis and classification of intellectual disability and psychological problems reflected in the AAIDD 11 and the DSM 5. New chapters on the assessment of adaptive behaviour and support needs, person centred active support and the assessment of dementia in people with intellectual disability have been added. The book is divided into eight sections. Section 1 Covers general conceptual frameworks for practice diagnosis classification epidemiology and lifespan development Section 2 Focuses on assessment of intelligence adaptive behaviour support needs quality of life and the processes of interviewing and report writing Section 3 Covers intervention frameworks specifically active support applied behavioural analysis and cognitive behaviour therapy Section 4 Deals with supporting families of children with intellectual disability genetic syndromes and autism spectrum disorders Section 5 Covers issues associated with intellectual disability first evident or prevalent in middle childhood Section 6 Deals with adolescent concerns including life skills training relationships and sexuality Section 7 Focuses on residential vocational and family related challenges of adulthood and aging Section 8 Deals with professional issues and risk assessment Chapters cover theoretical and empirical issues on the one hand and practice issues on the other They close with summaries and suggestions for further reading for practitioners and families containing a member with an intellectual disability Where appropriate in many chapters practice exercises to aid skills development have been included The second edition of the Handbook of Intellectual Disability and Clinical Psychology Practice is one of a set of three volumes which cover the lion s share of the curriculum for clinical psychologists in training in the UK and Ireland The other two volumes are the Handbook of Child and Adolescent Clinical Psychology Third Edition by Alan Carr and the Handbook of Adult Clinical Psychology Practice Second Edition edited by Alan Carr Muireann McNulty

Disabled People, Work and Welfare Grover, Chris, Piggott, Linda, 2015-07 This is the first book to challenge the idea that paid work should be seen as an essential means to independence and self determination for the disabled Writing in the wake of attempts in many countries to increase the employment rates of disabled people the contributors show how such efforts have led to an overall erosion of financial support for the disabled and increasing stigmatization of those who are not able to work Drawing on sociology and philosophy and mounting a powerful case for the rights of the disabled the book will be essential for activists scholars and policy makers
