Abstract—Hawthorne was a feminist forerunner, which is largely due to the influences exerted on him by women who were close to him. By examining his fictional portrayal of Hester in The Scarlet Letter, the author finds that Hawthorne made a subversive woman his spokesperson voice his feminist ideas and refute the concept of manhood and masculinity of his day.

Keywords—feminist ideas, Hester, manhood, The Scarlet Letter.

I. INTRODUCTION

Nathaniel Hawthorne (1804-1864), the great literary genius in American literature during the Age of Romanticism, earns his fame mostly through his fiction: The Scarlet Letter.

It is well known that Hawthorne was a feminist forerunner, who exposes his sympathy for women in The Scarlet Letter, the most powerfully feminist fiction in the 19th century America.

When Hawthorne was brewing his writing of The Scarlet Letter, the Feminist Movement was building up to an unprecedented height in America. Inspired by some radical feminist advocates, particularly by Margaret Fuller, an influential feminist theorist, Hawthorne luckily accessed the most profound feminist ideas. His mounting awareness of women's rights gave rise to his new sensitivity to women's right, and Hawthorne began to express great sympathy for women victimized by wrongs against their sex in his works.

II. SOME INFLUENTIAL WOMEN IN HAWTHORNE'S LIFE

Nina Baym once said that: "...the question of woman is the determining motive in Hawthorne's work", (1) which can be best interpreted by the significant roles played by women throughout his life and his career as well. Hawthorne had been writing successfully for extraordinarily talented women whose creative minds had helped him shape his own works. It would have been incredible if Hawthorne had not understood and penned the great variety of women around him who inspired and urged him to make their concerns a visible reality in his works.

Hawthorne's father died when he was four years old, and he had to spend his boyhood in his mother's extended family, growing up among various talented and supportive females. They were Hawthorne's first-handed source of good literary material, productive collaborators, faithful readers, rigorous editors, fair-minded critics and emotional and financial supporters.

Hawthorne's aunt Mary Manning, though uneducated, helped him become the first college graduate in the family and started him on his career as a professional writer.

His mother Elizabeth Hawthorne, though highly cultivated by reading, had to depend on her relatives financially after her husband died young, which manifested the cruel reality to Hawthorne: women had no legal right of inheritance, and thus had to live at the mercy of men.

Hawthorne started his lifelong pattern of writing for women when he was thirteen. In his early literary activities, Hawthorne teamed his sisters, who were both colleagues and collaborators in his efforts to become a successful writer.

Before getting married, Hawthorne spent most of his days writing and walking and chatting with his elder sister Elizabeth who played a leading role in his developments as a writer. Elizabeth, an educated writer by extensive reading, was not only an intelligent and sophisticated reader of
