Nation Of Immigrants:

Not "A Nation of Immigrants" Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz, 2021-08-24 Debunks the pervasive and self congratulatory myth that our country is proudly founded by and for immigrants and urges readers to embrace a more complex and honest history of the United States Whether in political debates or discussions about immigration around the kitchen table many Americans regardless of party affiliation will say proudly that we are a nation of immigrants In this bold new book historian Roxanne Dunbar Ortiz asserts this ideology is harmful and dishonest because it serves to mask and diminish the US s history of settler colonialism genocide white supremacy slavery and structural inequality all of which we still grapple with today She explains that the idea that we are living in a land of opportunity founded and built by immigrants was a convenient response by the ruling class and its brain trust to the 1960s demands for decolonialization justice reparations and social equality Moreover Dunbar Ortiz charges that this feel good but inaccurate story promotes a benign narrative of progress obscuring that the country was founded in violence as a settler state and imperialist since its inception While some of us are immigrants or descendants of immigrants others are descendants of white settlers who arrived as colonizers to displace those who were here since time immemorial and still others are descendants of those who were kidnapped and forced here against their will This paradigm shifting new book from the highly acclaimed author of An Indigenous Peoples History of the United States charges that we need to stop believing and perpetuating this simplistic and a historical idea and embrace the real and often horrific history of the United States Should America Remain a Nation of Immigrants? United States. New Narratives on the Peopling of America T. Alexander Aleinikoff,Alexandra Délano Alonso,2024-01-30 Why an account of the peopling of the United States must include the stories of indigenous people enslaved persons and those living in territories and foreign nations taken and acquired by the United States In New Narratives on the Peopling of America editors T Alexander Aleinikoff and Alexandra D Iano Alonso present an extraordinary collection of original essays that reshape our understanding of the peopling of the United States. This thought provoking volume goes beyond conventional accounts of immigration by reexamining narratives about foreign born populations in the United States. It situates them as part of a larger story of forced displacement and dispossession that needs to include indigenous people, enslaved persons, deported and returned migrants, and those residing in territories and foreign nations acquired by the United States. The diverse range of contributors, which include academics, journalists, artists, legal scholars, and activists, confront complex topics such as migration, racial justice, tribal sovereignty, and the pursuit of equality. As nationalism, globalization, and economic challenges reshape the social and political landscape, this timely volume calls for a reevaluation and reconstruction of national narratives of belonging. Challenging nativist tropes and offering broader understandings of collective history, this pathbreaking book centers issues of race and dispossession in the story of the American people. New Narratives on the Peopling of America is an essential resource for students and a compelling read for general readers seeking a deeper understanding of the complex tapestry of American identity.
