How to Maximize Your Child's Learning Ability Lauren Bradway, Barbara Albers Hill, 2012-05-25. Over twenty years ago, Dr. Lauren Bradway discovered that all children use one of three distinct ways to grasp and remember information. Some learn best through sound and language, others through visual stimulation, and others through touch. In this unique book, Dr. Bradway first shows you how to determine your child's inherent style. She then aids you in carefully selecting the toys, activities, and educational strategies that will help reinforce the talents your child was born with and encourage those skills that come less easily.

National Geographic Kids Almanac 2012 National Geographic Kids, 2011. Provides the latest information on a wide range of topics including animals, culture, geography, the environment, history, and science.

The Well-Trained Mind Susan Wise Bauer, Jessie Wise, 2009-05-04. Outstanding should be on every home educator's reference bookshelf. Homeschooling Today. This educational bestseller has dominated its field for the last decade, sparking a homeschooling movement that has only continued to grow. It will instruct you step by step on how to give your child an academically rigorous, comprehensive education from preschool through high school. Two veteran home educators outline the classical pattern of education, the trivium, which organizes learning around the maturing capacity of the child's mind. With this model, you will be able to instruct your child in all levels of reading, writing, history, geography, mathematics, science, foreign languages, rhetoric, logic, art, and music, regardless of your own aptitude in those subjects. Newly revised and updated, The Well-Trained Mind includes detailed book lists with complete ordering information, up-to-date listings of resources, publications, and Internet links, and useful contact information.
