National Lottery And Its Regulation Process Problems And Personalities:

The National Lottery and Its Regulation Andrew Douglas, 2001-12-01 The introduction of a National Lottery into the United Kingdom created a unique regulatory challenge The response to this challenge is embodied in arrangements informed not by international precedent but by privatisation policies pursued by successive Conservative governments between 1979 and 1994 when the Lottery was launched Dr Douglas assesses the success of the Lottery's regulation against the objectives set out in the enabling legislation the upholding of the Lottery's propriety the protection of the players and the maximising of the funds to be applied to the Good Causes Lessons learned during the initial Licence period will inform the new seven year Licence from October 2001 the operator chosen for the new term and in particular the role of the profit motive within the new arrangements

The Gambling Act 2005 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee, 2012-07-24 High street betting shops and casinos alike are currently allowed a maximum of four B2 FOBT gaming machines which allow stakes up to 100 and a 500 prize Casinos should instead be permitted to operate up to twenty B2 type gaming machines Limiting the number of B2 machines in betting shops has encouraged them to cluster in some high streets in order to satisfy customer demand Local Authorities should have the power to permit more than the four B2 machines per shop if they believe it will help with clustering The Committee also recommends that any local authority be able to make the decision as to whether or not they want a casino As a step towards this existing 1968 Act Casino licences should be made portable allowing operators to relocate to any local authority provided that they continue to be constrained by the need to obtain local authority approval a premises licence and planning permission The failure to set remote gambling taxation at a level at which online operators could remain within the UK has led to almost every online gambling operator moving offshore whilst most are still able to advertise and operate into the UK The Committee further recommends the Gambling Commission should introduce a new licence fee structure which reduces the current anomaly where small independent bookmakers pay much higher fees per shop than large chains Particularly given the absence of a significant UK regulated online sector or any Regional Casinos the Gambling Commission remains an overly expensive bureaucratic regulator

Personal Insolvency in the 21st Century Iain Ramsay, 2017-05-04 Since 1979 the world has witnessed a remarkable cycle of personal insolvency law reform Changes in capitalist economies financial crises and political interest groups all contributed to this cycle of reform This book examines the role of interest groups and distinct narratives in shaping reform in different countries while drawing attention to the role of timing path dependency and unintended consequences in the development of personal insolvency law The book presents case studies of personal insolvency law in the US France Sweden and England and Wales It then analyses how following the Great Recession of 2008 international financial institutions paid greater attention to the significance of household debt in contributing to financial instability and the role of individual insolvency law in providing a fresh start Personal insolvency law reform became part of EU responses to the eurozone crisis and the EU has proposed harmonisation of individual insolvency law to promote entrepreneurialism This book examines the extent to which these developments represent an emerging international commonsense about personal insolvency and its relationship to neo liberalism Finally this book discusses whether the international emergence of individual personal insolvency law represents a progressive step or a band aid for the costs of neo liberal policies where a significant number of people live close to the precipice of over indebtedness      International
