Market Developments in Mercosur Countries Affecting Leading U.S. Exporters ,1998 EU Regulatory Decision Making and the Role of the United States Oliver Ziegler, 2012-09-05 Oliver Ziegler raises the question of what role economic interests of the United States play in the regulatory decision making process of the European Union Critics often assume that U S dominance in the world economy fueled by a powerful business elite has significantly affected EU regulations at the expense of environmental and consumer protection standards The author falsifies this proposition He shows first that the EU often adopts regulations against the explicit opposition of the U S thereby ignoring the principles of transatlantic regulatory cooperation Second he demonstrates that business interests in the EU are usually not homogenous and often come second to environmental and consumer concerns In addition the author shows the increasing role of the European Parliament in EU regulatory decision making The Year in Trade ,1996 Representational Fairness in WTO Rule-making Mohamed Omar Gad, 2006 This book examines representational fairness in WTO rule making The context of examination is the pharmaceutical related provisions of the TRIPS Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights Agreement and the interests of developing countries and pharmaceutical multinational enterprises therein The book analyzes the negotiation and implementation periods of the specified TRIPS provisions and the legal disputes that arose covering the period from the mid 1980s until the adoption of the Doha Declaration on the TRIPS Agreement and Public Health in November 2001 An imbalance reflected in the negotiated text in favor of pharmaceutical MNEs interests during the negotiation process is characterized as top down rule making Reacting to this developing countries exerted pressure from the bottom up hindering the implementation of these TRIPS provisions This retorting action while instilling a degree of balance congests the TRIPS regime and the larger WTO system with additional dispute proceedings leading to strains in North South relations The volume concludes with selective suggestions focusing on the rule making process of the WTO and proposes measures to reduce the likelihood of a deficiency in representational fairness occurring in future negotiations
