Nationalism Revised With An Afterword:

Revisiting Nationalism NA NA, 2016-05-24 This book gathers together French language authors who in the last decade have played a part in the renewal of interest in the question of nationalism This volume organized along thematic lines and with a genuine transversal approach seeks to give audiences a glimpse of some of that research whether related to theoretical normative or analytical questions Explaining the History of American Foreign Relations Frank Costigliola, Michael J. Hogan, 2016-03-07 A longtime classic in its first and second editions Explaining the History of American Foreign Relations 3rd edition presents substantially revised and new essays on traditional themes such as national security corporatism borderlands history and international relations theory The book also highlights such innovative conceptual approaches and analytical methods as computational analysis symbolic borders modernization and technopolitics nationalism non state actors domestic politics exceptionalism legal history nation branding gender race political economy memory psychology emotions and the senses Each chapter is written by a highly respected scholar in the field many of whom have risen to prominence since the second edition's publication This collection is an indispensable volume for teachers and students in foreign relations history international relations history and political science The essays are written in accessible jargon free prose thus also making the book appropriate for general readers seeking an introduction to history and political science New Left Review, 2002 Martin R. Delany's Civil War and Reconstruction Tunde Adeleke, 2019-12-30 Militant Uncompromising Pragmatic Utilitarian Accommodating Conservative To engage Martin Robison Delany 1812-1885 is to wrestle with almost all the complexities and paradoxes of nineteenth century black leadership in one public intellectual After his previous book on Delany senior historian Tunde Adeleke has compiled here letters speeches contemporary nineteenth century newspaper articles and reports written by and about Delany These vital primary sources cover his Civil War and Reconstruction career in South Carolina and include key critical reactions to Delany's ideas and writings from his contemporaries There are over ninety documents the vast majority not previously published Delany remains the subject of conflicting and confusing interpretations Adeleke indicates that Delany actually manifested complex dispositions He presaged manifestations of the strands of both protest and compromise that would define the early twentieth century world of Booker T. Washington and W. E. B. Du Bois An African American abolitionist and journalist Delany advocated for black nationalism one of the first to do so After working alongside Frederick Douglass to publish the North Star in the 1840s Delany looked into establishing a settlement in West Africa Yet during the Civil War he served as the first African American field grade officer in the Union Army Then he labored for the Freedmen's Bureau in South Carolina Delany even ran unsuccessfully for lieutenant governor as a Republican and later defected to the Democrats These documents will prove an indispensable call and response to an unparalleled intellectual life Seminar, 1996 For God and Globe Michael G. Thompson, 2016-02-19 For God and Globe recovers the history of an important yet largely forgotten intellectual movement in interwar America Michael G Thompson explores the way radical left and ecumenical Protestant internationalists articulated new understandings of the ethics of international relations between the 1920s and the 1940s Missionary leaders such as Sherwood Eddy and journalists such as Kirby Page as well as realist theologians including Reinhold Niebuhr developed new kinds of religious enterprises devoted to producing knowledge on international relations for public consumption For God and Globe centers on the excavation of two such efforts the leading left wing Protestant interwar periodical The World Tomorrow and the landmark Oxford 1937 ecumenical world conference Thompson charts the simultaneous peak and decline of the movement in John Foster Dulles s ambitious efforts to link Christian internationalism to the cause of international organization after World War II Concerned with far more than foreign policy Christian internationalists developed critiques of racism imperialism and nationalism in world affairs They rejected exceptionalist frameworks and eschewed the dominant Christian nation imaginary as a lens through which to view U S foreign relations In the intellectual history of religion and American foreign relations Protestantism most commonly appears as an ideological ancillary to expansionism and nationalism For God and Globe challenges this account by recovering a movement that held Christian universalism to be a check against nationalism rather than a boon to it Australia Towards 2000 Brian Hocking,1990-06-18 This book sets out to explore contemporary life in Australia looking also at the future of the continent and covering topics ranging from its history culture religion values and ecological perspectives to its economy and politics The Battle for the American Mind Carl J. Richard,2006-08 The Battle for the American Mind brings together religion politics economics science and literature to present a compelling history of the American people In this brief and entertaining book noted historian Carl J Richard argues that there have been three worldviews that have dominated American thought theism humanism and skepticism Theists put their faith in God humanists in man and skeptics have faith in neither god nor man Each worldview has had an epoch of domination leading to the present Age of Confusion where theists humanists and skeptics battle one another for control of American hearts and minds By clearly explaining what Americans believed exploring why they did so and showing how that impacted the nation s development Carl J Richard presents a unique portrait of the United States past and present

Third World Studies Gary Y. Okihiro,2016-07-28 In 1968 the Third World Liberation Front at San Francisco State College demanded the creation of a Third World studies program to counter the existing curricula that ignored issues of power notably imperialism and oppression The administration responded by institutionalizing an ethnic studies program Third World studies was over before it began Detailing the field s genesis and premature death Gary Y Okihiro presents an intellectual history of ethnic studies and Third World studies and shows where they converged and departed by identifying some of their core ideas concepts methods and theories In so doing he establishes the contours of a unified field of study Third World studies that pursues a decolonial politics by examining the human condition broadly especially in regard to oppression and critically analyzing the locations and articulations of power as manifested in the social formation Okihiro s framing of Third World studies moves away from ethnic studies liberalism and its U S centrism to emphasize the need for complex thinking and political action in the drive for self determination Feeling Global Bruce Robbins,1999 Whether global culture is merely a pale and sinister reflection of capitalist globalization is among the questions addressed in this text on nationalism culturalism and the role of intellectuals in the age of globalization Economy, Emotion, and Ethics in Chinese Cinema David Leiwei Li,2016-02-05 The First and Second Comings of capitalism are conceptual shorthands used to capture the radical changes in global geopolitics from the Opium War to the end of the Cold War and beyond Centring the role of capitalism in the Chinese everyday the framework can be employed to comprehend contemporary Chinese culture in general and as in this study Chinese cinema in particular This book investigates major Chinese language films from mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong in order to unpack a hyper compressed capitalist modernity with distinctive Chinese characteristics As a dialogue between the film genre as a mediation of microscopic social life and the narrative of economic development as a macroscopic political abstraction it engages the two otherwise remotely related worlds illustrating how the State and the Subject are reconstituted cinematically in late capitalism A deeply cultural determinedly historical and deliberately interdisciplinary study it approaches culture anthropologically as a way of life emanating from the everyday and aesthetically as imaginative forms and creative expressions Economy Emotion and Ethics in Chinese Cinema will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese cinema cultural studies Asian studies and interdisciplinary studies of politics and culture

Bonds of Affection John Bodnar,2020-10-06 During the Civil War Walt Whitman described his admiration for the Union soldiers loyalty to the ideal of democracy His argument that this faith bonded Americans to their nation has received little critical attention yet today it raises increasingly relevant questions about American patriotism in the face of growing nationalist sentiment worldwide Here a group of scholars explores the manner in which Americans have discussed and practiced their patriotism over the past two hundred years Their essays investigate for example the extent to which the promise of democracy has explained citizen loyalty what other factors such as devotion to home and family have influenced patriotism and how patriotism has often served as a tool to maintain the power of a dominant group and to obscure internal social ills This volume examines the use of patriotic language and symbols in building unity in the early republic rebuilding the nation after the Civil War and sustaining loyalty in an increasingly diverse society Continuing through the World Wars to the Clinton presidency the essay topics range from multiculturalism to reactions toward masculine power In addition to the editor the contributors include Cynthia M Koch Cecilia Elizabeth O Leary Andrew Neather Stuart McConnell Gaines M Foster Kimberly Jensen David Glassberg and J Michael Moore Lawrence R Samuel Robert B Westbrook Wendy Kozol George Lipsitz Barbara Truesdell Robin Wagner Pacifici and William B Cohen Sociology Looks at the Arts Julia Rothenberg,2014-02-05 Sociology Looks at the Arts is intended as a concise yet nuanced introduction to the sociology of art This book will provide a foundation for teaching and discussing a range of questions and perspectives used by sociologists who study the relationship between the arts including music performing arts visual arts literature film and new media and society Black Marxism, Revised and Updated Third Edition Cedric J. Robinson, 2020-12-16 In this ambitious work first published in 1983 Cedric Robinson demonstrates that efforts to understand Black people's history of resistance solely through the prism of Marxist theory are incomplete and inaccurate Marxist analyses tend to presuppose European models of history and experience that downplay the significance of Black people and Black communities as agents of change and resistance Black radicalism Robinson argues must be linked to the traditions of Africa and the unique experiences of Blacks on Western continents and any analyses of African American history need to acknowledge this To illustrate his argument Robinson traces the emergence of Marxist ideology in Europe the resistance by Blacks in historically oppressive environments and the influence of both of these traditions on such important twentieth century Black radical thinkers as W E B Du Bois C L R James and Richard Wright This revised and updated third edition includes a new preface by Tiffany Willoughby Herard and a new foreword by Robin D G Kelley An Analysis of Benedict Anderson's Imagined Communities Jason Xidias, 2017-07-05 Benedict Anderson's 1983 masterpiece Imagined Communities is a ground breaking analysis of the origins and meanings of nations and nationalism A book that helped reshape the field of nationalism studies Imagined Communities also shows the critical thinking skills of interpretation and analysis working at their highest levels One crucial aspect of Anderson's work involves the apparently simple act of defining precisely what we mean when we say nation or nationalism an interpretative step that is vital to the analysis he proceeds to carry out For Anderson it is clear that nations are not natural as historians and anthropologists are well aware nations as we understand them are a relatively modern phenomenon dating back only as far as around 1500 But if this is the case how can we agree what a nation is Anderson's proposed definition is that they are imagined communities comprising groups of people who regard themselves as belonging to the same community even if they have never met and have nothing in common otherwise The analysis that follows from this insight is all about examining and breaking down the historical processes that helped foster these communities above all the birth of printing and the development of capitalism Brilliantly incisive Anderson's analysis shows how good interpretative skills can form the foundations for compelling and original insight Global Easts Jie-Hyun Lim, 2022-07-05 South Korean historian Jie Hyun Lim raised under an anticommunist dictatorship turned to Marxian thought to explain his country's development even as he came to struggle with its Eurocentrism As a transnational scholar working in postcommunist Poland Lim recognized striking similarities between Korean and Polish history and politics One realization stood out Both Korea and Poland at once the West for Asia yet Eastern Europe had been assigned the role of East This book explores entangled Easts to reconsider global history from the margins Examining the politics of history and memory Lim reveals the affinities linking Eastern Europe and East Asia He draws out commonalities in their experiences of modernity in their transitions from dictatorship to democracy and in the shaping of collective memory Ranging across Poland Germany Israel Japan and Korea Lim traces the global history of how notions of victimhood have become central to nationalism He criticizes mass dictatorships of right and left in the Global Easts considering Nazi jurist Carl Schmitt s notion of sovereign dictatorship and the concept of decisionist democracy Lim argues that nationalism is inherently transnational critiquing how the nationalist imagination of the Global East has influenced countries across borders Theoretically sophisticated and conceptually innovative this book sheds new light on the transnational complexity of historical memory and imagination the boundaries between democracy and mass dictatorship and the fluidity of East and West Toward a Politics of The (Im)Possible Anirban Das,2012-10 This book works at the intersection of two related yet different fields One is the heterogeneous feminist effort to question universal forms of knowing The second field follows from this conundrum how does one think of the body when s he speaks of embodiment Toward a Politics of the Im Possible engages the forefront of contemporary thought on the body while remaining mindful of the requirements of a feminist approach James Carey Eve Stryker Munson,Catherine A. Warren,1997 James Carey scholar media critic and teacher of journalists almost single handedly established the importance of defining a cultural perspective when analyzing communications Interspersing Carey s major essays with articles exploring his central themes and their importance this collection provides a critical introduction to the work of this significant figure In James Carey A Critical Reader sever scholars who have been influenced by him consider his work and how it has affected the development of media studies Carey has examined the roles the media and the academy have played in creating and maintaining a public sphere as well as the ways technology helps or hinders that project Carey s themes range from the strains on democracy and drawbacks of technology to the critique of journalism and the politics of academe Ireland's Great Hunger David A.

Valone,2009-12-21 The papers collected in this volume are a product of the second conference on Ireland s Great Hunger held at Quinnipiac University in 2005 That conference focused on the themes of representation and preservation brought together forty five scholars from around the world to discuss various aspects of the Famine and its aftermath Following the conference the complete An Gorta M r collection of Quinnipiac s famine commemorative art was placed on display for the first time in the University s Alumni Hall The An Gorta M r collection is on permanent display in the University s Arnold Bernhard Library and in other buildings across the University s Mount Carmel campus This volume focused on the theses of relief representation and remembrance contains essays from a broad range of disciplines including works of history literary criticism anthropology and art history Activism and the American Novel Channette Romero,2012 Since the 1980s many activists and writers have turned from identity politics toward ethnic religious traditions to rediscover and reinvigorate their historic role in resistance to colonialism and oppression In her examination of contemporary fiction by women of color including Toni Morrison Ana Castillo Toni Cade Bambara Louise Erdrich and Leslie Marmon Silko Channette Romero considers the way these novels newly engage with Vodun Santer a Candombl and American Indian traditions Critical of a widespread disengagement from civic participation and of the contemporary novel s disconnection from politics this fiction attempts to transform the novel and the practice of reading into a means of political engagement and an inspiration for social change
