NATIONALISM AND PATRIOTISM

The philosophy of nationalism nowadays does not concern itself much with the aggressive and dangerous form of invidious nationalism that often occupies center stage in the news and in sociological research. Although this pernicious form can be of significant instrumental value mobilizing oppressed people and giving them a sense of dignity, its moral costs are usually taken by philosophers to outweigh its benefits.

Nationalism is generally used to describe two things

- The attitude of the members of a nation which includes the concepts of national identity, origin, ethnicity, and cultural ties.
- The action that the members of nation take when seeking to achieve or sustain full statehood with complete authority over domestic and international affairs.

Patriotism is love and devotion to one's country.

- Comes from the Greek patris, meaning "father land"
- Had different meanings over time, and its meaning is highly dependent upon context, geography and philosophy.
- Patriotism is used in certain vernaculars as a synonym for nationalism, nationalism is not necessarily considered an inherent part of patriotism.
- Patriotism strengthened by adherence to a native religion, particularly some communities may have their own holy places.
- Also implies a value preference for a specific civic or political community.

Development of Nationalism and Patriotism in the Philippines

Nationalism is characterized by the attachment of superiority to one's country, an aspiration for its continuity and prosperity, and maintaining a high regard and respect for the laws, principles and policies.

- Country is an artificial body of people that need protection and identity.
