Norwood A History Making Of America Series:

Norwood Patricia J. Fanning, 2002 Before Norwood Massachusetts became a town in 1872 hardy settlers from Dedham left security and comfort behind and began building homes along the Neponset River and Hawes Brook Living in an area still known as the South Parish these hard working citizens fought for their values in both the Revolutionary and Civil Wars The town encouraged industry and diversity expanding its primarily agricultural base until the community could boast a stable if ever changing economy Wealthy industrialists and working class immigrants united to build this New England town and to foster its growth into the Norwood of today a vital community that residents are proud to call home Norwood A History recounts stories of the visionaries produced here such as Captain Aaron Guild who left plough in furrow and oxen standing to join the April 19 1775 battle at Lexington The formation and success of the Civic Association and the hospital were due to the perseverance of the public spirited population guided by the charismatic and driven George Willett Readers will discover how athletics helped put Norwood on the map from the polo fields of W Cameron Forbes to the reign of Roll Land as one of the country s premiere roller skating arenas As tales of years gone by give way to progress Norwood A History also looks ahead to new enterprises which have followed in the footsteps of companies such as Winslow Brothers and Smith and the Norwood Press

Denominationalism Illustrated and Explained Russell E. Richey, 2013-03-18 Evidence of mainstream denominational decline virtually throws itself in our faces growing religious pluralism in North America the decline over the last half century in the salience prestige power and vitality of Protestant denominational leadership slippage in mainline membership and corresponding growth vigor visibility and political prowess of conservative evangelical and fundamentalist bodies patterns of congregational independence including loosening of or removal of denominational identity particularly in signage and the related marginal loyalty of members emergence of megachurches with resources and the capacity to meet needs heretofore supplied by denominations training literature expertise growth within mainline denominations of caucuses and their alignment into broad progressive or conservative camps often with connections to similar camps in other denominations widespread suspicion of indeed hostility towards the centers and symbols of denominational identity the regional and national headquarters migration of individuals and families through various religious identities sometimes out of classic Christianity altogether Denominationalism looks doomed and is so proclaimed It may be However viewing the sweep of Anglo American history this volume suggests how much denominations and denominationalism have changed how resilient they have proved how significant these structures of religious belonging have been in providing order and direction to American society and how such enduring purposes find ever new structural institutional expression Cattle on a Thousand Hills Connell J. Brown, 1996-01-01 Cattle on a Thousand Hills presents a history of cattle in Arkansas from the period of European exploration and settlement to the present day when some of the finest beef herds in the country are found in the state Dr Brown focuses on the ranchers and farmers ways of life explores the development of the various breeds and describes how technological advances and the evolution of cattle marketing affected beef production in Arkansas Dr Brown tells the story of the state's cattle industry in terms of the people who introduced new varieties of cattle to Arkansas raised them and led the associated supporting organizations Included are chronicles of the Arkansas Cattlemen's Association and other organizations that have had significance in Arkansas's growing and dynamic cattle business the Arkansas Cattlewomen's Association the Farm Bureau the Cooperative Extension Service the Department of Animal Science at the University of Arkansas and the Arkansas Veterinary Medical Association Connell J Brown's book is the definitive story of the people who built an industry currently worth half a billion dollars in annual sales BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
