Prominent Religions Past And Present:

Architecture of the World's Major Religions Thomas Barrie, 2020-08-25 In Architecture of the World's Major Religions: An Essay on Themes, Differences and Similarities, Thomas Barrie presents and explains religious architecture in ways that challenge predominant presumptions regarding its aesthetic, formal, spatial, and scenographic elements. Two positions frame its narrative: religious architecture is an amalgam of aesthetic, social, political, cultural, economic, and doctrinal elements, and these elements are materialized in often very different ways in the world's principal religions. Central to the work's theoretical approaches is the communicative and discursive agency of religious architecture and the multisensory and ritual spaces it provides to create and deliver content. Subsequently, mythical and scriptural foundations and symbols of ecclesiastical and political power are of equal interest to formal organizations of thresholds, paths, courts, and centers, and celestial and geometric alignments. Moreover, it is equally concerned with the aesthetic, visual, and material cultures and the transcendent realms they were designed to evoke as it is with the kinesthetic, the dynamic, and multisensory experience of place and the tangible experiences of the body's interactions with architecture.

Sexism in Major Religions Paul Gwynne, 2023-11-29 A groundbreaking cross-sectional study of the forms and extent of gender inequality in the Big Five religions of the world, Sexism in Major Religions: A Comparative Introduction provides clear and accessible analyses of the complex forms of androcentrism and patriarchy in five of the world's major religions: Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. With a unique comparative thematic methodology, this student-friendly textbook bridges the gap between Religious Studies and courses in Gender and Sexuality Studies, Feminist Studies, Religion and Society, and more. Following a brief introduction to each religious system covered, Sexism in Major Religions defines important terms and concepts in modern religious feminism, including sex and gender, androcentrism, and patriarchy, and revolutionary and reform feminisms. Each remaining chapter focuses on one of seven themes representing the main sources and manifestations of religious discrimination against women, such as the gender of the deity, the duties of the mother, and the status of the wife within marriage. Throughout the text, author Paul Gwynne discusses the formal, gender-biased teachings and practices, distinctive features, intersecting areas, and core arguments of conservative defenders and feminist critics of each religion. Provides students with deep comparative insight into the similarities and differences between major religions on issues of gender equality. Offers a fresh and original approach to exploring the forms of sexism across seven distinct themes. Presents a timely and accurate account of the landscape of sexism in five of the world's largest religions. Includes a dedicated chapter examining the status of intersex and transgender persons in religious systems. Designed to broaden students' understanding of religions through systematic and impartial discussion. Sexism in Major Religions: A Comparative Introduction is an ideal textbook for undergraduate courses in Religious Studies and Social Sciences programs, as well as an invaluable resource for general readers interested in understanding and reforming sexist features within religious traditions.

Abdul Waheed , Most of the population of the world is still of those who believe in religion Religion is the priceless heritage of man There are many religions in almost every country of the world The ancient history of that country is still present in the holy books of that religion Religion books are the only source of knowledge of ancient history but today in the modern age scientific age the new generation is turning away from religion The biggest reason for this is lack of proper knowledge about religion and not reading holy books In today's era identification of sects in every religion is due to new things concoctions in religion It is almost impossible to get information about religious sects because there is lack of books related to it and no one gives correct information I wanted to know about this in many religions but no one told about it and I met many alims scholars but could not get any clear information and I went to Parsi Zarathustra pastor but there also got disappointed And met Arya Samaj and many other people but everyone said that you should read your holy book Quran Sharif Then I thought why these people are not giving any information Many people provoked me not to get into its affair otherwise there could be a fight Then I took support of libraries but that too lacked Hindi language books so I took support of English Urdu B A M A books and some encyclopedias dictionaries helped a lot Tafseers explanation of Bible and Quran Sharif also helped a lot in this This book has been written since 28 09 2004 and is now completed on 30 08 2008 Today there is no difference between ancient history and religious history only language so pls read My book thanks Also available in paperback version
