shortages rationing heart stopping news of soldiers missing or dead While praying for her brothers safe return and longing for her very own friend Eliza s greatest comfort was the warmth of her exuberant and loving family But Christmas Day 1919 brings a new challenge This short story was originally published in Dear Canada A Christmas to Remember a collection featuring many of Canada s top writers for children including Sarah Ellis Karleen Bradford Carol Matas and more New readers will adore this stand alone holiday tale while fans of the series will recognize the voice of Eliza whom they first met in the award winning Dear Canada book Brothers Far from Home Collect all 12 Dear Canada Christmas stories this season and enjoy a very happy holiday The 16th Michigan Infantry in the Civil War, Revised and Updated Kim

Crawford,2019-08-01 On the hot summer evening of July 2 1863 at the climax of the struggle for a Pennsylvania hill called Little Round Top four Confederate regiments charge up the western slope attacking the smallest and most exposed of their Union foe the 16th Michigan Infantry Terrible fighting has raged but what happens next will ultimately and unfairly stain the reputation of one of the Army of the Potomac s veteran combat outfits made up of men from Detroit Saginaw Ontonagon Hillsdale Lansing Adrian Plymouth and Albion In the dramatic interpretation of the struggle for Little Round Top that followed the Battle of Gettysburg the 16th Michigan Infantry would be remembered as the one that broke during perhaps the most important turning point of the war Their colonel a young lawyer from Ann Arbor would pay with his life redeeming his own reputation while a kind of code of silence about what happened at Little Round Top was adopted by the regiment s survivors From soldiers letters journals and memoirs this book relates their experiences in camp on the march and in battle including their controversial role at Gettysburg up to the surrender of Gen Robert E Lee at Appomattox Court House

Who Travels with the Doctor? Gillian I. Leitch,Sherry Ginn,2016-04-27 Throughout the long running BBC series Doctor Who the Doctor has rarely been alone his companions are essential Male or mostly female alien or mostly human young or old none as old as he the dozens of companions who have travelled with him over the past 50 years have served as sympathetic proxies for the audience Through their adventures the companions are perfected facing danger and thus discovering their strengths and weaknesses Yet they all pay a price losing their innocence and sometimes their lives This collection of new essays examines the role of the companion as an intermediate between viewers and the Doctor The contributors discuss who travels with the Doctor and why how they interact how the companions influence the narrative and how their journeys change them Dear Canada: Not a Nickel to Spare Perry Nodelman,2012-09-01 Coping with being poor during the Depression is hard enough but Sally also has to contend with anti Jewish sentiment when she ventures outside her familiar neighbourhood near Toronto s Kensington Market Her cousin Benny is always getting into scrapes or dragging Sally into his hare brained schemes But it s also Benny who tries to open Sally s eyes to the wider world telling her about Hitler s rise in Europe and urging her to stand up for herself when she comes across anti Semitism A historical note gives readers the background of the Depression which hit Canada harder than most other countries It also describes the way Jews were treated in Canada Today's readers might be surprised to know that there were people in Toronto who prided themselves on being part of The Swastika Club. A map, photographs and documents provide a visual context for the story. Dear Canada: Brothers Far From Home Jean Little, 2012-09-01 With more than 200,000 books in print, Dear Canada has fast become the historical fiction series for young girls. Jean Little's latest addition is the diary of a young girl observing her world change as war rages thousands of miles away. It has been two long years since Eliza's beloved older brother Hugo went away to war. Caught up in his enthusiasm, she couldn't understand her parent's less than enthusiastic reaction. Now that her other brother Jack has also enlisted, she yearns for the safe return of both brothers. If only she had a friend that she could talk to about her feelings. Dear Canada: A Christmas to Remember Karleen Bradford, Sarah Ellis, Julie Lawson, Carol Matas, Maxine Trottier, Perry Nodelman, Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch, Jean Little, 2012-09-01 A wonderful seasonal anthology for Dear Canada readers both old and new. A real treat for fans of this series and all lovers of historical fiction. Eleven stories that each revisit a favourite character from books in the Dear Canada series are included in this special collection. These are completely original tales that stand alone as heartwarming Christmas stories but also serve as a lovely next chapter to their original books. Each story is written by one of Canada's top award-winning writers for children, including Jean Little, Sarah Ellis, Maxine Trottier, Carol Matas and more. This collection is a lovely companion to A Season of Miracles and will be treasured year after year at holiday time. Hoping for Home Lillian Boraks-Nemetz, 2011 In these eleven original stories, characters bravely face the challenges of settling into a new life. In this wonderful new short story anthology, eleven of Canada's top children's authors contribute stories of immigration, displacement and change, exploring the frustration and uncertainty those changes can bring. Told in first person narratives, this collection features a diverse cast of boys and girls, each one living at a different point in Canada's vast landscape and history. With unforgettable protagonists such as Miriam, a Warsaw ghetto survivor now reunited with her family in Montreal; Wong Joe, a young Chinese immigrant who faces racism in a small Saskatchewan town; and Insy, an Ojibwe girl who makes her first trip to a white town in Northern Ontario, young readers will be moved by the opportunities and difficulties that these characters face as each one ponders what it means to be Canadian and struggles to fit in. Hoping for Home includes stories by Jean Little, Kit Pearson, Brian Dowle, Paul Yee, Irene N. Watts, Ruby Slipperjack, Afua Cooper, Rukhsana Khan, Marie Andr e Clermont, Lillian Boraks-Nemetz and Shelley Tanaka.
