Road To Australia Memoirs:

The Road from Coorain Jill Ker Conway, 2011-06-22 In a memoir that pierces and delights us Jill Ker Conway tells the story of her astonishing journey into adulthood a journey that would ultimately span immense distances and encompass worlds ideas and ways of life that seem a century apart She was seven before she ever saw another girl child At eight still too small to mount her horse unaided she was galloping miles alone across Coorain her parents thirty thousand windswept drought haunted acres in the Australian outback doing a man s job of helping herd the sheep because World War II had taken away the able bodied men She loved and makes us see and feel the vast unpeopled landscape beautiful and hostile whose uncertain weathers tormented the sheep ranchers with conflicting promises of riches and inescapable disaster She adored and makes us know her large visioned father and her strong radiant mother who had gone willingly with him into a pioneering life of loneliness and bone breaking toil who seemed miraculously to succeed in creating a warmly sheltering home in the harsh outback and who upon her husband s sudden death when Jill was ten began to slide bereft of the partnership of work and love that had so utterly fulfilled her into depression and dependency We see Jill staggered by the loss of her father catapulted to what seemed another planet the suburban Sydney of the 1950s and its crowded noisy cliquish school life Then the heady excitement of the University but with it a yet more demanding course of lessons Jill embracing new ideas new possibilities while at the same time trying to be mother to her mother and resenting it escaping into drink pulling herself back striking a balance We see her slowly gaining strength coming into her own emotionally and intellectually and beginning the joyous love affair that gave wings to her newfound self Worlds away from Coorain in America Jill Conway became a historian and the first woman president of Smith College Her story of Coorain and the road from Coorain startles by its passion and evocative power by its understanding of the ways in which a total deep rooted commitment to place or to a dream can at once liberate and imprison It is a story of childhood as both Eden and anguish and of growing up as a journey toward the difficult life of the free

The Road to Australia Vladimir Rafailovich Kabo, 1998 Drawing on a 30 year old passion for studying Australia s Indigenous people this memoir records the author s life and work in Australia against the background of Soviet politics and academia since the revolution

Memoir on the Euphrates Valley Route to India Sir William Patrick Andrew, 1857

HELLO, FROM SOMEWHERE: Stories of the Roads I Traveled (A Memoir) Metty Pellicer, 2015-01-01 Whenever the author has returned from traveling her friends wanted to hear detailed accounts of her experiences She started emailing these accounts Many have kept copies of their favorite pieces and soon everyone wanted the author to compile them into a book From Alaska to Zanzibar the author offers funny and detailed observations of the places people and cultures she has encountered On a visit to Pompeii she tells of frescoes of the various ways ancient Romans copulate In Africa she thrilled to the spectacle of a lion kill of an impala in the wild but was repelled by a cat with its kill of a rat in the alleys of Zanzibar On her 70th birthday she celebrated with a solo walk of the 800 km Camino Santiago de

Compostela from St Jean Pied de Port in the French Pyrenees to Galicia in Spain She got lost in the mountains on the first day but the trek was smooth all the way from there After her husband passed in 2004 she continued to travel and reflected on her life A lapsed Catholic she took a Buddhist retreat in Tassajara trying to inject a spiritual dimension in her life but she found the vegetarian meals and the mountains more alluring Along the way she made many friends young and old who enriched her life and who showed her that life is indeed beautiful Memoir Warren Thomas Brown,2023-12-08 This is a story of the casual criminality that is required to navigate the bureaucracy and business in general Sometimes this is necessary for the system to operate sometimes a mere convenience sometimes for financial gain or even just a helping hand for another human being The story covers the sloth incompetence and pure evil of the Civil Service and their interaction with private business It tells of what really happens in the inner workings of private businesses and their interaction with their overlords in intimate detail This is a story seldom if ever told because those that know don't write and those who write don't know It covers the wonderful world of dodgy finance and operating a large business without capital It is a story of human endurance and persistence and eventual victory of a sort The story begins with a description of life in rural Queensland about thirty years after the original white settlement covers the construction of major infrastructure when rural industries were expanding rapidly and the early years of the iconic mineral industry at Mount Isa The author knew well at least eight men who spent a considerable stretch in jail and can say that none of them were bad men and at least three were men of higher moral standards and love of their fellow man than the general population This is in contrast to some of the very senior public servants with whom he crossed swords who were pure evil and grossly incompetent to boot Memories of an Australian Ministry, 1868 to 1921 James Edward Carruthers,1922 Memoir and Letters of Sidney Gilchrist Thomas Sidney Gilchrist Thomas,1891 The Road Less Traveled: A Memoir Urs Kuhnlein,2024-06-25 Autobiography Swiss Molecular Biologist Animal Science DNA Fingerprinting Professor Urs Kuhnlein is an accomplished molecular biologist a celebrated mountaineer and nature lover and a devoted member of an extended family that stretches from Switzerland to Canada and the United States He graduated from the Eidgenössische Technische Hochschule Zürich ETH and the University of Geneva in Switzerland and excelled academically eventually becoming Emeritus Professor at McGill University in Montreal Canada In this volume he vividly recalls his summit experiences from the first on the Bietschhorn in the Canton of Wallis to Denali in Alaska His colleagues students friends family and like minded adventurers will recognize his keen interests in and rich insights into the diverse worlds captured in this memoir Urs now lives on Fidalgo Island in the San Juans of Washington State The Road from Coorain Jill K. Conway,1989 A Pedagogist's Memoir Grant Rodwell,2025-10-07 Opportunities to write our memoirs are many and varied To meet emerging demands the memoir genre continually is evolving and it is possible for the memoirist to shape the memoirs with varying themes time and settings to be brought to bear on school education at a senior level and for a range of teacher development programs Thus the developing importance of an accompanying exegesis For better or for worse childhoods shape adult relationships and attachment styles profoundly shaping who we are as teachers teaching styles and generally the things we consider important and not so important The shape of our childhood and adolescence has a profound impact on how relationships are formed in adulthood It can affect our ability to trust be vulnerable and create productive bonds both at school and college and professionally and also our general levels of motivation Through the aforementioned theme and subthemes my memoirs here reveal how childhood struggle has shaped my approach to teaching and my academic career from an unskilled labourer from the country working class in the timber industry deprived of a high school education and recruited into the workforce at 15 years of age to a senior academic in one of Australia's G8 universities holding five PhDs With strong historical backgrounding a special appeal of this book is its drive to place childhood and adolescent events contained in the memoirs in a wider historical context looking to transnational movements such as discussions on anachronisms and eugenics In so doing the exegesis a fresh and exciting innovation is in harmony with the memoirs The memoir is so refashioned as a pedagogical tool
