Road To Health Care Reform:

The Road to Health Care Reform Jeffrey C. Merrill, 2013-11-11 As we forge ahead in charting a new health care course we must devise the most modern streamlined and economically sound system that can answer the needs of this nation's citizens Health Care Reform American Psychiatric Association, 2012-09-24 The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act which was passed in March 2010 includes provisions to expand the scope of mental health care available to most Americans What do psychiatrists need to know about the provisions of the health reform law to practice most effectively and best serve their patients Health Care Reform A Primer for Psychiatrists is a compilation of resources designed to educate psychiatrists and other mental health professionals about key elements of the reform law At its core are three articles from a special section on health reform that appeared in the November 2010 issue of Psychiatric Services Each article addresses a key question for the organization and financing of mental health and substance abuse care under health care reform How should states set up their health exchanges to ensure that the needs of people with mental illness are addressed Will coverage of mental health services be adequate under the law's provisions Can integration of mental and physical health care a particular focus of health reform improve the quality and efficiency of care for people with mental illness This book also provides a list of additional readings with links to the source documents These include backgrounder articles published in Psychiatric News analyses and commentaries from the American Journal of Psychiatry and Psychiatric Services and white papers and other useful documents compiled by staff of the APA Department of Government Relations The Road to Health Care Reform Jeffrey C. Merrill, 2014-09-01 Comprehensive Health Care Reform and Cost Containment United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Finance, 1992 Raghu-nomics 4: ROOPA II - Health Care Reform Made Easy: Social Cost 'Raghu' J. Giuffre, 2011-10-02 Up to 50%% of our taxes insurance premiums go to cover lifestyle activities Lifestyle is therefore the largest category of discretionary spending with the potential of reducing our costs by up to this same 50%% Lifestyle is also a far more accurate predictor of our future health care needs and social service requirements This allows lifestyle to provide the best measure of planning forecast over today's comparison shopping models ROOPA highlights the number of savings and other advantages gained from this dual track of lifestyle and its corresponding social costs models The social cost of obesity averages around 150 billion a year This comes to about 10 cents per item of junk food Every soda pop hamburger and candy bar will now have this 10 cent premium The more soda you drink the more you have already paid into your own health coverage for obesity It's the most affordable pay as you go insurance plan It cost a dime The Road to Reform Eli Ginzberg, 1994 State Health Care Reform United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Finance. Subcommittee on Health for Families and the Uninsured, 1993 Six Countries, Six Reform Models: The Healthcare Reform Experience Of Israel, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Singapore, Switzerland And Taiwan - Healthcare Reforms "Under The Radar Screen" Kieke G Okma, Iva Bolgiani, Tim Tenbenschel, Toni Ashton, Hans Maarse, Meng-kin Lim, Luca Crivelli, David

Chinitz, Tsung-mei Cheng, Rachel Meislin, 2009-12-23 This book presents the healthcare reform experiences of six small to mid sized but dynamic economies spanning the Asia Pacific the Middle East and Europe Usually not given serious consideration in major international comparisons because of their small size each in fact provides a fascinating case study that illuminates the understanding of the dynamics of healthcare reform Although dissimilar in historical and cultural backgrounds they share some important features all faced very similar pressures for change in the 1970s and 1980s all considered a very similar range of policy options and all did not only discuss but actually implemented fundamental changes in their healthcare funding organization contracting and governance structures with strikingly different outcomes All of the authors have lived and worked in one or more of the countries studied in this volume The analytic frameworks they use reflect their broad range of professional and disciplinary backgrounds in health economics and political science Beyond mere descriptions of reform processes and superficial analyses based on aggregate data from the usual OECD or WHO sources they seek to understand and explain the variations in country experiences by examining the politico socio economic factors driving health reform as seen through the respective country lenses In coming together in this unique international collaboration they make an important contribution to the growing field of international comparative health policy studies Contributors Tsung Mei Cheng Princeton University USA David Chinitz The Hebrew University of Jerusalem Israel Luca Crivelli and Iva Bolgiani University of Lugano Switzerland Meng Kin Lim National University of Singapore Singapore Kieke G H Okma and Hans Maarse Maastricht University The Netherlands Toni Ashton and Tim Tenbensen University of Auckland New Zealand President's Proposals on Health Care Reform and the Fiscal Year 1993 Health and Human Services Budget United States. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means, 1992 Healthy China: Deepening Health Reform in China The World Bank, World Health Organization, 2019-01-29 The report recommends that China maintain the goal and direction of its healthcare reform and continue the shift from its current hospital centric model that rewards volume and sales to one that is centered on primary care focused on improving the quality of basic health services and delivers high quality cost effective health services With 20 commissioned background studies more than 30 case studies visits to 21 provinces in China the report proposes practical concrete steps toward a value based integrated service model of healthcare financing and delivery including 1 Creating a new model of people centered quality integrated health care that strengthens primary care as the core of the health system This new care model is organized around the health needs of individuals and families and is integrated with higher level care and social services 2 Continuously improve health care quality establish an effective coordination mechanism and actively engage all stakeholders and professional bodies to oversee improvements in quality and performance 3 Empowering patients with knowledge and understanding of health services so that there is more trust in the system and patients are actively engaged in their healthcare decisions 4 Reforming public hospitals so that they focus on complicated cases and delegate routine care to primary care providers 5 Changing incentives for providers so they are rewarded for good patient health outcomes instead of the number of medical procedures used or drugs sold 6 Boosting the status of the health workforce especially primary care providers so they are better paid and supported to ensure a competent health workforce aligned with the new delivery system 7 Allowing qualified private health providers to deliver cost effective services and compete on a level playing field with the public sector with the right regulatory oversight and 8 Prioritizing public investments according to the burden of disease where people live and the kind of care people need on a daily basis

China's Urban Health Care Reform Chack-kie Wong, Vai Io Lo, Kwong-Leung Tang, 2006-01-01 One way to describe the importance of social policy is to say it's about what is and what might be This ethos is the driving force behind Chack Kie Wong Vai Io Lo and Kwong leung Tang's China's Urban Health Care Reform Based on a study of a mid level city in China these three scholars provide analysis and offer theory based recommendations on health care development Using a comparative policy framework supported by a legal expert's knowledge of regulatory specifications China's Urban Health Care Reform argues that a strategy with priority in economic growth as in the case of China does not bring forth cost efficiency and equity in health care for the whole nation Ultimately Wong Lo and Tang strive to offer direction for health care reform that will lead to better health care in China's cities As a result this is a work of great significance to anyone involved in public health social work public policy medicine or law
