Roads and Rivals Mahnaz Z. Ispahani, 1989 In Roads and Rivals Mahnaz Ispahani explores the crucial but unacknowledged role that land routes have played in the strategic political and economic evolution of those borderlands She shows that routes are a pivot around which a regional biography can be written and provides ample evidence for the link between security and development policies of Third World states

Roads and Rivals Mahnaz Z. Ispahani, 1989 Roads and Rivals Mahnaz Ispahani, 2019-05-15 Over the past two centuries the borderlands of Central South and West Asia have been transformed from the remote peripheries into areas of intense regional and international interest In Roads and Rivals Mahnaz Ispahani explores the crucial but unacknowledged role that land routes have played in the strategic political and economic evolution of those borderlands

Penang and Its Region Neil Khor, Khoo Salma Nasution, Loh Wei Leng, Yeoh Seng Guan, 2009-01-01 From its beginnings in the late eighteenth century the vibrant colonial port of Penang attracted a diverse range of peoples enabled pioneering commercial enterprises and fomented inter ethnic collaboration and inter cultural borrowings The island came to be known as the Pearl of the Orient and for many travellers it was their first port of call in Southeast Asia In the early nineteenth century Singapore displaced Penang in international trade but the island remained a major focus of regional trade For this reason the story of Penang s relations with the Malay Peninsula and other parts of Southeast Asia reveal a great deal about conditions within the region

US-Pakistan Relationship A.Z. Hilali, 2017-07-05 Hilali provides an excellent study into the US Pakistan partnership under the Reagan administration The book explores the causes of Pakistan s involvement in the Afghanistan war and the United States support to prevent Soviet adventurism It shows that Pakistan was the principal channel through which assistance was provided to Afghan freedom fighters it also provided access to its military bases to use against the Soviet Union The study looks at the consequences of the war on Pakistan and explains how it became enmeshed within its domestic politics Furthermore it evaluates the role of Pakistan as a key partner in the global coalition against terrorism and discusses how General Pervez Musharraf brought about Pakistan's development towards a progressive moderate and democratic society Ideally suited to courses on foreign policy

Making Sense of Pakistan Farzana Shaikh, 2018-11-08 Argues that the decline of Pakistan is deeply entrenched with roots in its original national foundations

Ethno-political Conflict in Pakistan Rizwan Zeb, 2019-12-12 This book critically examines the causes of the increase in insurgent violence in Balochistan and explores the relations between the national government of Pakistan and the province of Balochistan Based on historical analysis the book argues that the national government of Pakistan and the leaders of Balochistan both use a standard narrative when dealing with each other According to the Baloch narrative Islamabad exploits Balochistan's natural resources without giving Balochistan its due share and has never accepted and granted Balochistan equal rights The centre's narrative emphasizes the tribal character of the Baloch society and suggests that the Baloch elite hinder Balochistan's integration with the federation This book demonstrates that both narratives are inherently flawed and presents a precipitous picture of the problem of insurgent violence It also shows that the Baloch leadership is divided along tribal lines and lacks a unified voice and proposes that the Baloch elite use the narrative of enduring injustice only as a source of politicization of Baloch ethnicity when an actual or perceived injustice is taking place An important addition to the literature on ethno political conflicts this unique analysis of the importance of narrative in the imagination of political movements will be of interest to scholars in the fields of South Asian studies ethnic conflicts separatist and political movements and Asian politics
