William Chislett, 2025-04-04 In the second edition of Spain What Everyone Needs to Know veteran journalist William Chislett updates his comprehensive overview of Spain's history, economy, and politics to contextualize the country's situation in the 2020s. In concise question and answer format, Chislett covers a range of topics including the legacy of the early Muslim presence, the influx of immigrants, and the separatist Catalan region, the transition to democracy after the death of General Franco, the creation of the welfare state, the impact of European Economic Community membership, the 2008-2014 banking and real estate crisis, and the changing political landscape in the last decade. New material analyzes the watershed 2015 general election and the rise of the far right and presents the key challenges that will shape Spain's future in the years to come.

Sculpture and Touch Peter Dent, 2017-07-05 Since the Renaissance at least, the medium of sculpture has been associated explicitly with the sense of touch. Sculptors, philosophers, and art historians have all linked the two, often in strikingly different ways. In spite of this long-running interest in touch and tactility, it is vision and visuality which have tended to dominate art historical research in recent decades. This book introduces a new impetus to the discussion of the relationship between touch and sculpture by setting up a dialogue between art historians and individuals with fresh insights who are working in disciplines beyond art history. The collection brings together a rich and diverse set of approaches with essays tackling subjects from prehistoric figurines to the work of contemporary artists, from pre-modern ideas about the physiology of touch to tactile interaction in the museum environment, and from the phenomenology of touch in recent philosophy to the experimental findings of scientific study. It is the first volume on this subject to take such a broad approach and as such seeks to set the agenda for future research and collaboration in this area.
