Roads To Glory:

The Short Story and the First World War Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2013-07-31 The poetry of the First World War has come to dominate our understanding of its literature while genres such as the short story which are just as vital to the literary heritage of the era have largely been neglected In this study Ann Marie Einhaus challenges deeply embedded cultural conceptions about the literature of the First World War using a corpus of several hundred short stories that until now have not undergone any systematic critical analysis From early wartime stories to late twentieth century narratives and spanning a wide spectrum of literary styles and movements Einhaus's work reveals a range of responses to the war through fiction from pacifism to militarism Going beyond the household names of Owen Sassoon and Graves Einhaus offers scholars and students unprecedented access to new frontiers in twentieth century literary studies Richard Aldington Vivien

Whelpton, 2014-12-31 This is a literary biography of Richard Aldington founding member of the Imagist Movement poet of the First World War author of Death of a Hero and a biography of D H Lawrence Aldington's is an extraordinary human story dealing with contemporary issues such as confrontation of sexual mores of the day and the impact of his soldier experience on his life and work There hasn't been a recent biography of Aldington the only one of the war poets not to have one With the interest in the First World War increasing as we near the centenary the time is right for this book This biography explores the relationships of Aldington with other prominent literary figures Ezra Pound Herbert Read T S Eliot D H Lawrence and his unsuccessful marriage with H D This first instalment of a hopefully two volume biography covers Aldington's life and work up to 1929 It investigates the years 1911-1915 in which Aldington helped found Modernism and formed relationships with other Modernists the years 1916-19 when his life fell apart after his soldier experience the years 1920-28 when he tried to re-establish his literary career laid the foundations of modern literary criticism and his writing of Death of a Hero at the end of the decade a blistering attack on all that had made the war possible Official Blurb The story of Richard Aldington outstanding Imagist poet and author of the bestselling war novel Death of a Hero 1929 takes place against the backdrop of some of the most turbulent and creative years of the twentieth century Vivien Whelpton provides a remarkably detailed and sensitive portrayal of the writer from early adolescence His life as a stalwart of the pre-war London literary scene as a soldier and in the difficult aftermath of the First World War is deftly rendered through a careful and detailed analysis of the novels poems and letters of the writer himself and his close circle of acquaintance The complexities of London's Bohemia with its scandalous relationships social grandstanding and incredible creative output are masterfully untangled and the spotlight placed firmly on the talented group of poets christened by Ezra Pound as Imagistes The author demonstrates profound psychological insight into Aldington's character and childhood in her nuanced analysis of his post-war survivor's guilt and consideration of the three most influential women in his life his wife the gifted American poet H D Dorothy Yorke the woman he left her for and Brigit Patmore his brilliant and fascinating older mistress Richard Aldington Poet Soldier and Lover vividly reveals Aldington's warm and passionate nature and the vitality which characterised his life and works concluding with his triumphant personal and literary resurrection with the publication of Death of a Hero Index to Short Stories, 1936

Radicals on the Road Bernard Schweizer, 2001 Schweizer an independent scholar explores the travel writing of George Orwell Evelyn Waugh Graham Greene and Rebecca West The observations made by these westerners of the lands they visited Catalonia Africa Mexico and Yugoslavia provide a range of views perhaps typical for the period Schweizer's reading concentrates on each author's politics and their psychological apprehension of the world around them The psychological theme is explored in the book's second half where Schweizer notes the inherently dualistic construction of national and international politics to be found in the writings as well as the authors anxiety of foreign places and their sense of the uncanny c Book News Inc Short Story Index, 1953 Quinquennial supplements 1950 1954 1979 1983 compiled by Estelle A Fidell and others published 1956 1984 Military Thought, 1998 Contesting the Origins of the First World War Troy Paddock, 2019-07-31 Contesting the Origins of the First World War challenges the Anglophone emphasis on Germany as bearing the primary responsibility in causing the conflict and instead builds upon new perspectives to reconsider the roles of the other Great Powers Using the work of Terrance Zuber Sean McMeekin and Stefan Schmidt as building blocks this book reassesses the origins of the First World War and offers an explanation as to why this reassessment did not come about earlier Troy R E Paddock argues that historians need to redraw the historiographical map that has charted the origins of the war His analysis creates a more balanced view of German actions by also noting the actions and inaction of other nations Recent works about the roles of the five Great Powers involved in the events leading up to the war are considered and Paddock concludes that Germany does not bear the primary responsibility This book provides a unique historiographical analysis of key texts published on the origins of the First World War and its narrative encourages students to engage with and challenge historical perspectives From Doniphan to Verdun Evan Alexander Edwards, 1920 The 140th Infantry served in the 35th Division of the Second Army which served in France during World War I Roads to Glory Richard Aldington, 1931 Index to Short Stories Ina Ten Eyck Firkins, 1936
