Cope,2019-04-01 With issue twenty four of 1650 1850 this annual enters its second quarter century with a new publisher a new look a new editorial board and a new commitment to intellectual and artistic exploration As the diversely inventive essays in this first issue from the Bucknell University Press demonstrate the energy and open mindedness that made 1650 1850 a success continue to intensify This first Bucknell issue includes a special feature that explores the use of sacred space in what was once incautiously called the age of reason A suite of book reviews renews the 1650 1850 legacy of full length and unbridled evaluation of the best in contemporary Enlightenment scholarship These lively and informative reviews celebrate the many years that book review editor Baerbel Czennia has served 1650 1850 and also make for an able handoff to Samara Anne Cahill of Nanyang Technological University who will edit the book review section beginning with our next volume Most important of all this issue serves as an invitation to scholars to offer their most creative and thoughtful work for consideration for publication in 1650 1850 About the annual journal 1650 1850 1650 1850 publishes essays and reviews from and about a wide range of academic disciplines literature both in English and other languages philosophy art history history religion and science Interdisciplinary in scope and approach 1650 1850 emphasizes aesthetic manifestations and applications of ideas and encourages studies that move between the arts and the sciences between the hard and the humane disciplines The editors encourage proposals for special features that bring together five to seven essays on focused themes within its historical range from the Interregnum to the end of the first generation of Romantic writers While also being open to more specialized or particular studies that match up with the general themes and goals of the journal 1650 1850 is in the first instance a journal about the artful presentation of ideas that welcomes good writing from its contributors First published in 1994 1650 1850 is currently in its 24th volume ISSN 1065 3112 Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press Pillar of the Constitution Clyve Jones,2010-07-15 This collection of original essays deals with aspects of the history of the House of Lords in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries including the internal management of the Lords and its external influence The Secularization of Early Modern England Charles John Sommerville,1992 This study overcomes the ambiguity and daunting scale of the subject of secularization by using the insights of anthropology and sociology and by examining an earlier period than usually considered Concentrating not only on a decline of religious belief which is the last aspect of secularization this study shows that a transformation of England's cultural grammar had to precede that loosening of belief and that this was largely accomplished between 1500 and 1700 Only when definitions of space and time changed and language and technology were transformed as well as art and play could a secular world view be sustained As aspects of daily life became divorced from religious values and controls religious culture was supplanted by religious faith a reasoned rather than an unquestioned belief in the supernatural Sommerville shows that this process was more political and theological than economic or social
