Robert Siodmak Deborah Lazaroff Alpi, 1998 Trained in the German Expressionist tradition Robert Siodmak brought a uniquely European flavor to Hollywood Such Siodmak features as Phantom Lady Cry of the City and The File on Thelma Jordan contributed to the establishment of film noir as a movie genre This study opens with a detailed biography of the director focusing on the development and evolution of his thematic and visual style Critical analyses of each of his noir films are next presented as well as plot synopses and comments on the movie s place in the Siodmak canon An exhaustive filmography of all of Siodmak s works including those uncompleted is then given with full cast and credits running time release date alternate titles and studio The File on Robert Siodmak in Hollywood, 1941-1951 Joseph Greco, 1999 Robert Siodmak who is considered the master of film noir thrillers and crime melodramas has long been seen as a mere assignment director never an artist in complete control of his work J Greco s study of Siodmak s Hollywood career dispels this view and presents a unique perspective on the studio system and the director who used cunning to get his own way within it He incorporates both archival evidence and stylistic analysis to show a distinct correlation between the production histories of Siodmak s studio films and the director s central artistic purpose Shedding new light on the career of this important film maker this book is worthwhile reading for the film scholar the lover of film noir and the fan of Siodmak s work

Beyond Hollywood's Grasp Harry Waldman, 1994 Recounts the period in which American directors stars and technicians ventured beyond America s shores to first make films abroad But out of sight they were quickly forgotten or worse ignored back home though as a group they produced more than 200 films in 30 years This is the story of those films illustrated with 60 rarely seen stills and the filmmakers who created them Guide to the Archival Materials of the German-speaking Emigration to the United States after 1933. Lemmon and Walter Matthau amassed a personal fortune by way of blockbuster films and shrewd investments in art including Picassos Klees and Mir's and won Oscars yet Wilder ever conscious of his thick accent always felt the sting of being an outsider On Sunset Boulevard traces the course of a turbulent but fabulous life both behind the scenes and on the scene from Viennese cafes and Berlin dance halls in the twenties to the Hollywood soundstages of the forties and the on location shoots of the fifties and sixties Crammed with Wilder's own caustic wit On Sunset Boulevard reels out the story of one of cinema's most brilliant and prolific talents Fifty Hollywood Directors Suzanne Leonard,Yvonne Tasker,2014-11-20 Fifty Hollywood Directors introduces the most important iconic and influential filmmakers who worked in Hollywood between the end of the silent period and the birth of the blockbuster By exploring the historical cultural and technological contexts in which each director was working this book traces the formative period in commercial cinema when directors went from pioneers to industry heavyweights Each entry discusses a director's practices and body of work and features a brief biography and suggestions for further reading Entries include Frank Capra Cecil B DeMille John Ford Alfred Hitchcock Fritz Lang Orson Welles DW Griffith King Vidor This is an indispensable guide for anyone interested in film history Hollywood and the development of the role of the director Driven to Darkness Vincent Brook,2009-09-18 From its earliest days the American film industry has attracted European artists With the rise of Hitler filmmakers of conscience in Germany and other countries particularly those of Jewish origin found it difficult to survive and fled for their work and their lives to the United States Some had trouble adapting to Hollywood but many were celebrated for their cinematic contributions especially to the dark shadows of film noir Driven to Darkness explores the influence of Jewish émigré directors and the development of this genre While filmmakers such as Fritz Lang Billy Wilder Otto Preminger and Edward G Ulmer have been acknowledged as crucial to the noir canon the impact of their Jewishness on their work has remained largely unexamined until now Through lively and original analyses of key films Vincent Brook penetrates the darkness shedding new light on this popular film form and the artists who helped create it Film Noir Homer B. Pettey,2014-11-11 Explores the development of film noir as a cultural and artistic phenomenon This book traces the development of what we know as film noir from the proto noir elements of Feuillade's silent French crime series and German Expressionism to the genre's mid twentieth century popularization and influence on contemporary global media By employing experimental lighting effects oblique camera angles distorted compositions and shifting points of view film noir's style both creates and comments upon a morally adumbrated world where the alienating effects of the uncanny the fetishistic and the surreal dominate What drew original audiences to film noir is an immediate recognition of this modern social and psychological reality Much of the appeal of film noir concerns its commentary on social anxieties its cynical view of political and capitalist corruption and its all too brutal depictions of American modernity This book examines the changing often volatile shifts in representations of masculinity and femininity as well as the genre's complex relationship with Afro American culture observable through noir's musical and

sonic experiments
Key features
Traces the history of film noir from its aesthetic antecedents through its mid century popularization to its influence on contemporary global media
Discusses the influence of literary and artistic sources on the development of film noir
Includes extensive bibliographies filmographies and recommended noir film viewing
Concludes with a reflective chapter by Alain Silver and James Ursini on their own influential studies and collections on film noir criticism

Mean Streets and Raging Bulls Richard Martin, 2000-01-01
Classic film noir was Hollywood's dark cinema of crime and corruption a genre underpinned by a tone of existential cynicism which stripped bare the myth of the American Dream and offered a bleak nightmarish vision of a fragmented society that rhymed with many of the social realities of forties and fifties America
Mean Streets and Raging Bulls explores how since its apparent demise in the late fifties the noir genre has been revitalized during the post studio era
The book is divided into two sections
In the first the evolution of film noir is contextualized in relation to both American cinema's industrial transformation and the post Depression history of the United States
In the second the evolution of neo noir and its relation to classic film noir is illustrated by detailed reference to representative texts including Chinatown Roman Polanski 1974 Night Moves Arthur Penn 1975 Taxi Driver Martin Scorsese 1976 Blood Simple Joel and Ethan Coen 1984 After Hours Martin Scorsese 1985 Sea of Love Harold Becker 1989 Reservoir Dogs Quentin Tarantino 1992 and Romeo is Bleeding Peter Medak 1994
