Roman Provincial Administration George H. Stevenson, 1942 Roman Provincial Administration , 1976 The Roman System of Provincial Administration William Thomas Arnold, 2015-06-25 Excerpt from The Roman System of Provincial Administration To the Accession of Constantine the Great I have given a list of my chief authorities below But I should more especially acknowledge my obligations to Marquardt and Preuss The extent to which I have used Marquardt in the chapter on Taxation and Preuss in the chapter on the Later Empire has been very considerable In the other parts of the Essay I have relied to a larger extent on my own independent reading but I have felt throughout the disadvantage of an imperfect knowledge of the modern literature on the subject In England I know of no comprehensive book devoted to it but in France and Germany it has long aroused the energies of a host of enthusiastic workers In this field the French have names which command as great respect as the most learned among the Germans If in particular I have not been able to use the great work of M Waddington Les Fastes des Provinces Asiatiques it is not owing to want of will but to the limitations of time which the conditions under which this Essay must be written impose In printing this Essay I have not been able to make alterations of much moment I have however revised it throughout and hope that no errors of consequence have escaped me About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do

Arnold,1964 The Roman System of provincial administration to the accession of Constantine the Great William T. Arnold,1971 Some Phases of the Problem of Provincial Administration Under the Roman Republic (Classic Reprint) Frank Burr Marsh,2018-10-08 Excerpt from Some Phases of the Problem of Provincial Administration Under the Roman Republic With a government so constituted how did the problem of governing the provinces present itself and what solution was found The first provinces of the Roman people were Sardinia and Sicily taken for the purpose of keeping Carthage at a safe distance from Italy Having annexed them Rome was obliged to provide in some fashion for their government A brief experience sufficed to convince the Romans that the tranquillity and safety of these provinces required the presence in them Of a Roman governor armed with the imperium that is a Roman magistrate But all the magistrates were then fully occupied at Rome The Obvious course to follow under these circumstances was to increase the number of magistrates with imperium and send the new magistrates to the provinces As it was out of the question to increase the number of consuls the praetors were chosen and the number increased from two to four At the same time as it was customary for a magistrate holding an independent command to be accompanied by a quaestor the number of quaestors was increased to meet the new needs About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
