Roman Catholicism Evangelical Protestants Analyze What Divides And Unites Us:

Roman Catholicism John Harper Armstrong, 1994 Roman Catholicism deserves a prominent place in the library of every evangelical pastor and layperson It provides a much needed exposition and defense of evangelical Protestant beliefs placed in bold relief beside the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church By no means does the book gloss over the very real doctrinal differences that exist between evangelical Protestants and Roman Catholics Nonetheless it also seeks to underscore those doctrines evangelicals and Roman Catholics mutually affirm This is a highly recommended book It is a timely piece particularly welcome as a fresh resource to dispel the confusion stirred by recent Evangelical Roman Catholic dialogues John Woodbridge Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Roman Catholicism, 2007 Roman Catholicism deserves a prominent place in the library of every evangelical pastor and layperson It provides a much needed exposition and defense of evangelical Protestant beliefs placed in bold relief beside the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church By no means does the book gloss over the very real doctrinal differences that exist between evangelical Protestants and Roman Catholics Nonetheless it also seeks to underscore those doctrines evangelicals and Roman Catholics mutually affirm Roman Catholicism Alister E. McGrath, John Armstrong, Harold O. J. Brown, 1994 In this collection of essays respected evangelicals such as Alister McGrath Ronald Nash and Michael Horton along with many other leading Protestants discuss the theological issues that separate Protestants and Catholics Catholics and Evangelicals Thomas P. Rausch, 2000 A report on the new dialogue growing up between Catholics and Protestant evangelicals with an honest summary of issues that still divide them Calvin and the Federal Vision Jeong Koo Jeon, 2009-06-12 John Calvin 1509-64 was the pinnacle of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation in Europe As we celebrate the five hundred year anniversary of his birth it is worthy to explore Calvin's covenant theology which may be one of the best windows to understand and evaluate his theology as a whole In recent years the Federal Vision has been surfaced in the American conservative Reformed and evangelical circles It has strong hermeneutical theological and practical attachment with Calvin Although Calvin was a covenant theologian he firmly maintained the evangelical distinction between law and gospel especially in his exposition of justification by faith alone sola fide and salvation by grace alone sola gratia with a balanced emphasis of believers' covenantal obedience Moreover we will find out that Calvin not only applied the distinction between law and gospel to soteriology but also in the depiction of redemptive history In Calvin the distinction between law and gospel was foundational for the depiction of biblical vision of eschatology in the Garden of Eden before the Fall and under the Old Covenant However the exponents of the Federal Vision deny any validity of the distinction between law and gospel in hermeneutics theology and practice while they identify themselves with those of Calvin In that sense we may identify the Federal Vision not with the Protestant Reformation and Calvin but as consistent monocovenantalism in which they deny the distinction between law and gospel and apply that monocovenantal principle consistently to their understandings of hermeneutics soteriology the doctrine of double predestination and sacramental theology Justification by Faith in Catholic-Protestant Dialogue Anthony N. S. Lane, 2006-08-15 In this assessment of the recent Catholic Protestant dialogue concerning the doctrine of justification Anthony Lane begins by discussing traditional Protestant doctrine with close reference to Calvin and traditional Catholic doctrine with close reference to the Council of Trent He goes on to examine eight key documents from Hans Kung's Justification 1957 to the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification 1999 Fifteen key theological issues are then explored These include the status of theological language used by Catholics and Evangelicals the definition of justification the grounds on which a person is accounted righteous the question of sin remaining in the Christian whether faith alone can save the relationship between law and gospel the question of merit and reward the assurance of salvation and finally a discussion on the Roman Magisterium and current Evangelical responses to recent changes in Catholic theology In conclusion Anthony Lane discusses the extent to which any agreement or convergence of thinking has been achieved and its future significance
