Reading American Novels and Multicultural Aesthetics L. Caton,2007-12-25 Using romantic theories Caton analyzes America s contemporary novel Organized through the two sections of Theory and Practice Reading American Novels and Multicultural Aesthetics begins with a study of aesthetic form only to have it reveal the content of politics and history This presentation immediately offers a unified platform for an interchange between multiple cultural and aesthetic positions Romantic theory provides for an integrated examination of diversity one that metaphorically fosters a solid inclusive and democratic legitimacy for intercultural communication This politically astute cosmopolitan appreciation will generate an intriguing cross over audience from ethnic studies to American studies and from literary studies to romantic studies this book
