Haynes,1997 The Somervell and Mier Expeditions of 1842 culminating in the famous black bean episode in which Texas prisoners drew white or black beans to determine who would be executed by their Mexican captors still capture the public imagination in Texas But were the Texans really martyrs in a glorious cause or undisciplined soldiers defying their own government How did the Mier Expedition affect the border disputes between the Texas Republic and Mexico What role did Texas President Sam Houston play These are the questions that Sam Haynes addresses in this very readable book which includes many dramatic excerpts from the diaries and letters of expedition participants The Athenaeum ,1874 Imagined Battles Peter Paret,1997 For thousands of years art has interpreted the experience of war_its methods human costs and moral ambiguities_and has offered historians a wealth of testimony that is only beginning to be systematically explored In this wide ranging study Peter Paret discusses forty seven paintings and prints as complex documents of war in Europe since the Renaissance and as examples of the artist s use of war as a metaphor for the human condition The images include works by such major artists as Uccello G ricault and Dix as well as academic history paintings and popular prints By setting each in its historical environment and analyzing it from the perspective of the wars of its time illuminates the place of war in Western consciousness and expands our understanding of works that are too often approached with little concern for the reality they depict or symbolically transform Perhaps the most significant of the themes he traces over five centuries is the gradual change from the prince or general to the common soldier and civilian victim as central figures in the interpretation of war in art

Exporting the American Model

Marie-Laure Djelic,2001 Marie Laure Djelic explores the convergent and divergent trends in the evolution of business systems and organisation in Western Europe in the postwar period looking in particular at the influence of the American corporate model She focuses on France West Germany and Italy after 1945 and the influences of the Marshall Plan Her core argument is that the model had varying degrees of success in each of those three countries whilst in some areas it encountered significant resistance and adaptation
