Romantic Desire In Postmodern Art And Philosophy:

Romantic Desire in (Post)modern Art and Philosophy Jos de Mul, 1999-07-01 In this erudite and wide ranging discussion of postmodernism and romanticism in twentieth century art and philosophy Jos de Mul sheds a fascinating light on the ambivalent character of our present culture which oscillates between modern enthusiasm and postmodern irony Along the way he engages the work of such thinkers as Nietzsche Freud Heidegger Habermas Lacan Barthes and Derrida visual artists Magritte and Stella poets George and Coleridge and composers Sch nberg Cage and Reich among others providing a sort of intellectual history of Romantic Modernist and Postmodernist tempers The Romanticism of Contemporary Theory Justin Clemens, 2017-03-02 Using Phillipe Lacoue Labarthe and Jean Luc Nancy s groundbreaking study of the persistence of German Idealist philosophy as his starting point Justin Clemens presents a valuable study of the links between Romanticism and contemporary theory The central contention of this book is that contemporary theory is still essentially Romantic despite all its declarations to the contrary and despite all its attempts to elude or exceed the limits bequeathed it by Romantic thought The argument focuses on the ruses of Romanticism s indefinable character under two main rubrics Contexts and Interventions The first three chapters investigate Contexts examining some of the broad trends in the historical and institutional development of Romantic criticism the second section Interventions comprises close readings of the work of Jacques Lacan Gilles Deleuze and F lix Guattari Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Ian Hunter and Alain Badiou In the first chapter Clemens identifies and traces the development of two interlocking recurrent themes in Romantic criticism the Romantic desire to escape Romanticism and the problem posed to aesthetico philosophical thought by the modern domiciliation of philosophy in the university He develops these themes in the second chapter by examining the link forged between aesthetics and the subject in the work of Immanuel Kant In the third chapter Clemens shows how the Romantic problems of the academic institution and aesthetics were effectively bound together by the philosophical diagnosis of nihilism Chapter Four focuses on two key moments in the work of Jacques Lacan his theory of the mirror stage and his formulas of sexuation and demonstrates how Lacan returns to the grounding claims of Kantian aesthetics in such a way as to render him complicit with the Romantic thought he often seems to contest In the following chapter taking Deleuze and Guattari s notion of multiplicity as a guiding thread Clemens links their account to their professed anti Platonism showing how they find themselves forced back onto emblematically Romantic arguments Chapter Six provides a close reading of Sedgwick s most influential text Epistemology of the Closet Clemens reading localizes her practice both in the newly consolidated academic field of Queer Theory and in a conceptual genealogy whose roots can be traced back to a particular anti Enlightenment strain of Romanticism Clemens next turns to the professedly anti Romantic arguments of Ian Hunter a major figure in the ongoing re writing of modern histories of education In the final chapter he examines the work of the contemporary French philosopher Alain Badiou Clemens argues that if Badiou s hostility to the diagnosis of nihilism his return to Plato and mathematics and his expulsion of poetry from philosophical method all place him at a genuine distance from dominant Romantic trends even this attempt admits ciphered Romantic elements This study will be of interest to literary theorists philosophers political theorists and cultural studies scholars Contemporary Visual Culture and the Sublime Temenuga Trifonova,2017-09-22 In the course of its long and tumultuous history the sublime has alternated between spatial and temporal definitions from its conceptualization in terms of the grandeur and infinity of Nature spatial to its postmodern redefinition as an event temporal from its conceptualization in terms of our failure to cognitively map the decentered global network of capital or the rhizomatic structure of the postmetropolis spatial to its neurophenomenological redefinition in terms of the new temporality of presence produced by network real time temporal This volume explores the place of the sublime in contemporary culture and the aesthetic cultural and political values coded in it It offers a map of the contemporary sublime in terms of the limits cinematic cognitive neurophysiological technological or environmental of representation Supplanting the Postmodern

David Rudrum,Nicholas Stavris,2015-09-24 For more than a decade now a steadily growing chorus of voices has announced that the postmodern literature art thought and culture of the late 20th century have come to an end At the same time as this the early years of the 21st century have seen a stream of critical formulations proclaiming a successor to postmodernism Intriguing and exciting new terms such as remodernism performatism hypermodernism automodernism renewalism altermodernism digimodernism and metamodernism have been coined proposed and debated as terms for what comes after the postmodern Supplanting the Postmodern is the first anthology to collect the key writings in these debates in one place The book is divided into two parts the first The Sense of an Ending presents a range of positions in the debate around the demise of the postmodern the second Coming to Terms with the New presents representative writings from the new isms mentioned above Each of the entries is prefaced by a brief introduction by the editors in which they outline its central ideas point out the similarities and or differences from other positions found in the anthology and suggest possible strengths and limitations to the insights presented in each piece Transcending Postmodernism Raoul Eshelman,2024-12-02

Transcending Postmodernism Performatism 2.0 is an ambitious attempt to expand and deepen the theory of performatism Its main thesis is that beginning in the mid 1990s the strategies and norms of postmodernism have been displaced by ones that force readers or viewers to experience effects of aesthetically mediated transcendence These effects include specific temporal strategies chunking stylizing separated subjectivity the genius and the fool being its two main poles and orienting ethics toward actions taken by centered agents bearing a sacral charge The book provides a critical overview of other theories of post postmodernism and suggests that among five text oriented theories there is basic agreement on its techniques and strategies Biblical Hermeneutics in the Metamodern Mood Seán M. W. McGuire,2024-07-23 Why do contemporary Christians seem to routinely talk past one another amid contentious theological debates In this illuminating study Sean M W McGuire argues that interpreters lack of self critical reflection on the process of interpretation and compounding cultural factors are problematizing interpretive practice Thus to work through difficult topics Christians need to develop the ability to reflect on the complexity informing how they interpret Scripture and how they see others interpreting Scripture so that they can coherently and constructively discuss their interpretations with others Grounding the study in the discipline of practical theology McGuire utilizes the cultural theory of metamodernism and the hermeneutics of Hans Georg Gadamer 1900 2002 together with a proposed revision of the Wesleyan Quadrilateral to develop a paradigm for observing and describing differences in biblical interpretive practice Using current debates regarding sexuality as an illustrative example the project reveals the complexity underlying contemporary interpretive practice showing that amid this complexity the prioritization or lack thereof of theological reflection sources prompts certain interpretive conclusions Perceiving the multivalent nature of interpretation readers will be equipped to think carefully and critically about how they come to their biblical interpretive conclusions and how those conclusions inform transformed living in Christ

The Photographic Paradigm Annette W. Balkema, Henk Slager, 2023-04-17 This issue investigates the meaning of photographic image for contemporary art In Malraux dream photography offers the ultimate guarantee for a coherent presentation of art However as Douglas Crimp has stated the appearance and enhancement of photography as a form of art among other art forms disrupted the center of the art world What does this mean for art and philosophy in our time Various artists and theorists will delve into that question Christian Boltanski Benjamin H D Buchloh Jean Francois Chevrier Douglas Crimp Jos de Mul Mirjam de Zeeuw Rineke Dijkstra Michael Gibbs Rodney Graham Gerald van der Kaap Karen Knorr Zoe Leonard Ken Lum Hermann Pitz Liza May Post John Roberts Allan Sekula Andres Serrano Jan Simons Beat Streuli John M Swinnen Ren e van de Vall Hilde van Gelder Hripsim Visser Jeff Wall Ian Wallace and Herta Wolf

Signs, Solidarities, and Sociology Blasco José Sobrinho, 2001 Signs Solidarities Sociology addresses the formation and fragmentation of identity in today s postmodern world Informed by the conceptual convergence in the theories of Durkheim Peirce Mead and Lacan this book surveys the range of twentieth century sociology to deconstruct those favored nostrums of subjective meaning personal power and autonomous selfhood that comprise its semantics of agency Revealed beneath this semantic screen is the triad of pragmatic codes premodern affiliation modern calibration and postmodern globalization that govern the social construction of the self While the ill comprehended confluence of these three signification codes in the present world situation can indeed fragment personal identity their formal structural linkages as shown in this book may inform a truly postmodern globally applicable science of culture

History from the Zero. Post metamodernism. + CONSTRUCTIVE POSTMODERN / METAMODERN TRANSFORMATIONS Introduction 2017-2018 Viktoriia Managarova, 2019-06-27 The essay raises a new vision of the final End in postmodern state emerging through the crisis of dominants in current tendencies of metamodernism by T Vermeulen R van den Akker Despite this making one well directed step back metamodernism found the valid key oscillating with the shades of goodness for holistic happiness to open the gates of The Brilliant Age This journey turned out to be long overcoming 2018 years to discover the new world island of post metamodernism without evil      Cyberspace Odyssey Jos de Mul,2010-04-16 The emergence of the hominids more than five million years ago marked the start of the human odyssey through space and time This book deals with the last stage of this fascinating journey the exploration of cyberspace and cybertime Through the rapid global implementation of information and communication technologies a new realm for human experience and imagination has been disclosed Reversely these postgeographical and posthistorical technologies have started to colonize our bodies and minds Taking Homer s Odyssey and Kubrick s 2001 A Space Odyssey as his starting point the author investigates the informatization of the worldview focusing on its implications for our culture arts religion and science and ultimately our form of life Moving across a wide range of disciplines varying from philosophical anthropology and palaeontology to information theory and from astrophysics to literary film and new media studies the author discusses our cyberspace odyssey from a reflective position beyond euphoria and nostalgia His analysis is as profound as nuanced and deals with issues that will be high on the agenda for many decades to come In 2003 a Dutch Edition of Cyberspace Odyssey received the Socrates Prize for the best philosophy book published in Dutch      Handbook of Computer Game Studies Joost Raessens,Jeffrey Goldstein,2011-08-19 A broad treatment of computer and video games from a wide range of perspectives including cognitive science and artificial intelligence psychology history film and theater cultural studies and philosophy New media students teachers and professionals have long needed a comprehensive scholarly treatment of digital games that deals with the history design reception and aesthetics of games along with their social and cultural context The Handbook of Computer Game Studies fills this need with a definitive look at the subject from a broad range of perspectives Contributors come from cognitive science and artificial intelligence developmental social and clinical psychology history film theater and literary studies cultural studies and philosophy as well as game design and development The text includes both scholarly articles and journalism from such well known voices as Douglas Rushkoff Sherry Turkle Henry Jenkins Katie Salen Eric Zimmerman and others Part I considers the prehistory of computer games including slot machines and pinball machines the development of computer games themselves and the future of mobile gaming The chapters in part II describe game development from the designer s point of view including the design of play elements an analysis of screenwriting and game based learning Part III reviews empirical research on the psychological effects of computer games and includes a discussion of the use of computer games in clinical and educational settings Part IV considers the aesthetics of games in comparison to film and literature and part V discusses the effect of computer games on cultural identity including gender and ethnicity Finally part VI looks at the relation of computer games to social behavior considering among other matters the inadequacy of laboratory experiments linking games and aggression and the different modes of participation in computer game culture      Representations of Internarrative Identity L. Way,2014-11-25 Based upon Ajit Maan s groundbreaking theory of Internarrative Identity this collection focuses upon redefining self slave narrative the black Caribbean diaspora and cyberspace to explore the interconnection between identity and life experience as expressed through personal narrative

Critical Keywords in Literary and Cultural Theory Julian Wolfreys, 2017-03-14 This book is an invaluable reference guide for students of literary and cultural studies which introduces over forty of the complex terms motifs and concepts in literary and cultural theory today Critical Keywords in Literary and Cultural Theory Gives students a brief introduction to each concept together with short quotations from the work of key thinkers and critics to stimulate discussion and guide genuine comprehension Supplies helpful glosses and annotations for each term concept or keyword which is discussed Offers reflective practical questions at the end of each entry to direct the student to consider a particular aspect of the quotations and the concept they address Provides explanatory notes and bibliographies to aid further research This essential volume is ideal as both a dip in reference book and a guide to literary theory for practical classroom use

Metamodernism Robin van den Akker, Alison Gibbons,, Timotheus Vermeulen, 2017-11-29 Metamodernism Historicity Affect Depth brings together many of the most influential voices in the scholarly and critical debate about post postmodernism and twenty first century aesthetics arts and culture By relating cutting edge analyses of contemporary literature the visual arts and film and television to recent social technological and economic developments the volume provides both a map and an itinerary of today s metamodern cultural landscape As its organising principle the book takes Fredric Jameson s canonical arguments about the waning of historicity affect and depth in the postmodern culture of western capitalist societies in the twentieth century and re evaluates and reconceptualises these notions in a twenty first century context In doing so it shows that the contemporary moment should be regarded as a transitional period from the postmodern and into the metamodern cultural moment

The Narrative Turn in Fiction and Theory H. Meretoja, 2014-10-06 The Narrative Turn in Fiction and Theory explores the philosophical and historical underpinnings of the postwar crisis and return of storytelling and shows their relevance for the ongoing debate on the significance of narrative for human existence

Creating Human Development Theories R. Murray Thomas, 2014-05-12 How and why do humans develop as they do This book clearly explains the key components of human development theories and describes how to compose novel theories regarding this age old puzzle As college students progress through bachelor s degree programs and then advance to their master s degree theses and doctoral dissertations they are bombarded with studies of countless theories often adopting some author s theory for interpreting information about human development even when the theory does not precisely meet their needs One way to solve the problem a way especially tuned to the current classroom push for creative critical thinking is for the student to create his or her own theory Unfortunately even students as high as the doctoral level often don t understand how to create a well ordered workable theory of their own a crucial gap in their critical thinking skillsets This book is the solution to that specific problem In these pages in clear and detailed steps is a complete explanation for developing a theory The book addresses key topics such as attention to need population basic assumptions key terms causes and stages interpreting evidence and applications Author R Murray Thomas a well known and highly respected elder in the social sciences also details five illustrative theories covering their history and providing insights about how they were developed This work will be valuable to students of psychology human development child development and theory as well as those in other disciplines seeking an understanding of theory building

Nudging Choices Through Media James Katz, Katie Schiepers, Juliet Floyd, 2023-06-30 This book addresses the growing use of computerized systems to influence people's decisions without their awareness a significant but underappreciated sea change in the way the world works To assess these systems this volume's contributors explore the philosophical and ethical dimensions of algorithms that guide people's behavior by nudging them toward choices preferred by systems architects Particularly in an era of heightened awareness of bias and discrimination these systems raise profound concerns about the morality of such activities This volume brings together a diverse array of thinkers to critically examine these nudging systems Not only are high level perspectives presented but so too are of those who use them on a day to day basis While algorithmic nudging can produce benefits for users there are also many less obvious costs to using such systems costs that require examination and deliberation This book is a major step towards delineating these concerns and suggesting ways to provide a sounder basis for future policies for algorithms It should be of interest to system designers public policymakers scholars and those who wonder more deeply about the nudges they receive from various websites and on their phones

Destiny Domesticated Jos de Mul, 2014-02-01 Analyzes contemporary technological society through the lens of Greek tragedy Destiny Domesticated investigates three ways Western civilization has tried to tame fate the heroic affirmation of fate in the tragic culture of the Greeks the humble acceptance of divine providence in Christianity and the abolition of fate in modern technological society Against this background Jos de Mul argues that the uncontrollability of technology introduces its own tragic dimension to our culture Considering a range of literary texts and contemporary events and drawing on twenty five centuries of tragedy interpretation from philosophers such as Aristotle Hegel Nietzsche and Heidegger literary critics George Steiner and Terry Eagleton and others de Mul articulates a contemporary perspective on the tragic shedding new light on philosophical topics such as free will determinism and the contingency of life
