Collection: The Last Disciple / The Last Sacrifice / The Last Temple Hank Hanegraaff, Sigmund Brouwer, 2017-08-08 This collection bundles together all 3 of the thrilling Roman historical novels by Hank Hanegraaff and Sigmund Brouwer into one e book for a great value 1 The Last Disciple First century Rome is a perilous city as Nero stalks the political circles and huddled groups of believers To be safe Christians must remain invisible Gallus Sergius Vitas is the only man within Nero's trusted circle willing to do what it takes to keep the empire together He struggles to lessen Nero's monstrosities against the people of Rome especially the Christians But as three Greek letters are scrawled as graffiti throughout the city Nero's anger grows As the early church begins to experience the turbulence Christ prophesied as the beginning of the last days an enemy seeks to find John's letter Revelation and destroy it Meanwhile the early Christians must decipher it and cling to the hope it provides as they face the greatest of all persecutions 2 The Last Sacrifice Helius Nero's most trusted adviser anticipates the death of his sworn enemy the legendary warrior Gallus Sergius Vitas scheduled to die a gruesome death in the arena However the badly beaten man who appears in the amphitheater is not who he seems Rescued by a stranger and given a mysterious scroll Vitas is told he must decipher this letter to find the answers he needs a letter that Helius is also determined to decipher and to keep hidden from Nero As Nero's reign of terror grows so does his circle of enemies 3 The Last Temple Set in the turbulent years just before one of the most horrendous events in Jewish history The Last Temple concludes the trilogy of The Last Disciple and The Last Sacrifice Vitas is reunited with his wife and retires to Alexandria determined to live a quiet domestic life But he can't avoid the debts that he owes to the men who saved him and he becomes a key figure in the plot to rid the empire of Nero It sweeps him into the year of four emperors when the Roman Empire is nearly destroyed and takes him back to Jerusalem as Titus lays siege to the great city Only then as the prophecy of Jesus begins to unfold does Vitas discover the true mission set before him and the astounding conspiracy behind it The Ancient Sea Hamish Williams, Ross Clare, 2022-11-17 In the ancient Mediterranean world the sea was an essential domain for trade cultural exchange communication exploration and colonisation In tandem with the lived reality of this maritime space a parallel experience of the sea emerged in narrative representations from ancient Greece and Rome of the sea as a cultural imaginary This imaginary seems often to oscillate between two extremes the utopian and the catastrophic such representations can be found in narratives from ancient history philosophy society and literature as well as in their post classical receptions Utopia can be found in some imaginary island paradise far away and across the distant sea the sea can hold an unknown mysterious divine wealth below its surface and the sea itself as a powerful watery body can hold a liberating potential The utopian quality of the sea and seafaring can become a powerful metaphor for articulating political notions of the ideal state or for expressing an individual's sense of hope and subjectivity Yet the catastrophic sea balances any perfective imaginings the sea threatens coastal inhabitants with floods tsunamis and earthquakes and sailors with storms and the accompanying monsters From symbolic perspectives the catastrophic sea represents violence instability the savage and even cosmological chaos The twelve papers in this volume explore the themes of utopia and catastrophe in the liminal environment of the sea through the lens of history philosophy literature and classical reception Contributors Manuel Alvarez, Marta Aguilar, Vilijus Bartninkas, Aaron L.
