best possible parties Original Women in the Works of Lou Andreas-Salomé Muriel Cormican, 2009 Comprehensive view of Andreas Salom's fictional works focusing on her depictions of women and questions of narrative and identity The writer and intellectual Lou Andreas Salom 1861-1937 fascinates scholars of German literature because of her associations with Nietzsche Rilke and Freud and because she was active in the cultural and intellectual vanguard of late 19th and early 20th century Germany and Austria Recent editions of her fictional works have garnered wider attention from scholars of literature and theory particularly those interested in women's studies identity politics and narrative theory This study analyzes how Andreas Salom depicted women in her fictional works just as feminism was emerging revealing a complex engagement with questions of narrative and identity More than mere thematic explorations of women's changing roles in society her works investigate the concept of identity and its relationship to gender sexuality and narrative representation She is as concerned with a cultural crisis of femininity and masculinity as with the identity crises of her individual women characters This book offers the best account of Andreas Salom's literary works de-emphasizing biographical and psychoanalytical perspectives but taking into account the sociopolitical historical and cultural contexts in which they were written It also adds to contemporary theoretical discourses on gender feminism and identity Muriel Cormican is Professor of German at the University of West Georgia Carrollton Georgia

Secret Spaces, Forbidden Places Fran Lloyd, Catherine O'Brien, 2001-06-01 In this highly original approach to the study of the construction of culture this collection of previously unpublished essays explore the topography of the secret and the forbidden focusing on specific moments in recent cultural and political history By bringing together writers from different disciplines and different locations this volume provides a rich and diverse mapping of how the secret and forbidden operate across different subjects and different geographies extending far beyond physical locations It is present in domains ranging from language literature and cinema to social and political life This refreshing and thought provoking collection of essays will prove invaluable for researchers and students

Movable Londons Julia H. Fawcett, 2025-09-04 In September 1666 a fire sparked in a bakery on Pudding Lane grew until it had destroyed four fifths of central London The rebuilding efforts that followed not only launched the careers of some of London's most famous architects but also transformed Londoners relationship to their city by underscoring the ways that people could shape a city's spaces and the ways that a city's spaces could shape its people Movable Londons looks to the Restoration theater to understand how the dispossessed made London into a modern city after the Great Fire of 1666 and how the introduction of changeable scenery in theaters altered how Londoners conceptualized the city Fawcett makes a claim for the centrality of unplanned spaces and the role of the Restoration theater in articulating those spaces as the modern city emerged and argues that movable scenery revolutionized London's public theaters inviting audiences to observe how the performers many of them hailing from the same communities as their characters navigated the stage

Anxiety and Evil in the Writings of Patricia Highsmith Fiona Peters, 2011 Drawing extensively on the under explored Highsmith Archive Peters suggests that the usual generic distinctions crime fiction mystery suspense have been largely unhelpful in elucidating Patricia Highsmith's novels Peters adopts a psychoanalytic approach to show that specific disturbances within her text have resulted in Highsmith's writing remaining resistant to explication and to the more sophisticated interpretative strategies that would seek to position her within a specific genre

Women's Group Therapy Vera Sonja Maass, 2002-06-12 Through the use of group therapy sessions conducted within a cognitive behavioural framework the author explores the cultural social and parental influences on women's lives In depth case studies and transcripts from the sessions illustrate women's actual step by step process in examining issues as motherhood divorce self determination etc The focus is on the individual woman and her situation

Reconfiguring Relations in the Empty Nest Magdalena Żadkowska, Marta Skowrońska, Christophe Giraud, Filip Schmidt, 2024-02-20 This edited volume traverses the spectrum of experiences that take place after children leave the family home and parents find themselves in the empty nest stage of life Rather than focusing on measuring the intensity of empty nest syndrome or asking whether parents marital satisfaction increases or decreases in this phase the authors present rich qualitative data from across Poland and France to show that there is great variation in how families experience the empty nest developing both a study on intimacy and love and on family solidarity Throughout the book themes of mixed emotions nuanced attitudes contradictions and dissonance are explored while shedding light on supporting actors of the empty nest transition such as family pets and material objects

Elevating Humanity via Africana Womanism Clenora Hudson (Weems), 2024-12-17 Elevating Humanity via Africana Womanism is a short but powerful book advocating synergy via unity collectivity as a panacea for all societal ills It discusses the Africana Womanism theory an authentic family centered concept for all women of African descent as a grid upon which to erect the private and public personae of all positive Africana people Within the context of our cultural and historical matrix it opens with defining the paradigm while promoting the importance of prioritizing race class and gender the triple plight of Black women A workable strategy for ensuring equality for all it closes on a note of love and spirituality while embracing the special connection between Africana men and women the 2 sided human coin This introduction logically and convincingly speaks truth to power about who we Black women are beginning in Part One with naming and defining ourselves with the foreknowledge of the seminal role of our male counterparts It identifies the 18 descriptors of the true Africana woman and her male counterpart Part Two offers fruitful commentary via sharing some of the many contributions we have given to society which could enhance self esteem among our people many of whom have come to not love themselves and even their own due to inadequate historical documentation

The Confident Woman Marjorie Hansen Shaevitz, 2012-01-04 How Confident Are You Marjorie Hansen Shaevitz has won national awards for her work in women's health and has enjoyed the success some people only dream of a prosperous professional life a long happy marriage two Stanford educated children and a bestselling book The Superwoman Syndrome which coined a term for a generation of women Despite all of her accomplishments however she struggled with the issue of confidence After conducting extensive research she found that she was far from alone Many women experience the paradox of enjoying success in their business and personal lives while lacking confidence in themselves The Confident Woman focuses on the issues that women face in growing up as girls in this society Using a series of seven steps complete with techniques and questions Shaevitz presents an accessible and proven program that helps women regain their confidence It is written for women of all ages ending with an epilogue for mothers who want practical tips for raising confident daughters In clear concise prose filled with anecdotes and humor The Confident Woman focuses on what women say they want practical advice that they can use now

Francesca Woodman's Dark Gaze Claire Raymond,2016-05-20 Focusing on the later work of the American photographer Francesca Woodman 1958 1981 Claire Raymond takes up the question of the disintegrative condition of the art she produced in the last year of her life Departing from the techniques of her earlier compositions Woodman worked in the diazotype process for many of these late pieces most importantly the monumental Blueprint for a Temple Raymond shows that through her use of diazotype a medium that breaks down when exposed to light Woodman created art that is both supremely evocative aesthetically and inherently unstable physically Woodman Raymond contends was imaginatively responding to the end of the durable image a historical reality acknowledged in the way her work plays the ephemeral and evanescent against the monumental and enduring Raymond focuses on the theoretical and the curatorial issues surrounding Woodman s diazotypes a thematic and practical distress that haunts much of her later art especially the artist s book and photo series Some Disordered Interior Geometries and Portrait of a Reputation Rather than conceiving of Woodman herself as fragile an artist chronicling and seeming to yearn for her own disappearance Raymond juxtaposes Woodman s career spanning documentation of her own image against other post war witnesses of trauma an artist standing in the museum ruins where she emerges most distinctly as a figure of postmodernity

306090 ,2001 Sensation Novels and Domestic Minds Mathilde Vialard,2024-02-26 Drawing on the recent academic interest in approaching health and wellbeing from a humanities perspective Sensation Novels and Domestic Minds investigates how the Victorians dealt with questions of mental health by examining literary works in the genre of sensation fiction The novels of Mary Elizabeth Braddon and Wilkie Collins two prominent writers of the genre often portray characters suffering from mental illnesses commonly diagnosed at the time among which are monomania moral insanity melancholia and hypochondria By studying the fictional works of Braddon and Collins alongside medical texts from the nineteenth century it sets out to investigate how these novels fictionally represented real mental sufferings This book considers the different mental illnesses the characters of sensation novels develop inside and outside the home as they struggle to define their own identity against Victorian social expectations It demonstrates how these novels fictionalised the crisis of the leisured upper classes who spent most of their time at home and found themselves at odds with a society that increasingly separated the domestic and working environments while also considering the impact that a lack of a sense of domestic belonging could have on their mental health Sensation Novels and Domestic Minds further analyses the extent to which domesticity in its excess or lack could afflict the mental health of Victorian men and women through the fictional representation of suicidal thoughts and acts in the novels of Braddon and Collins The Magnificent Mrs. Mayhew Milly Johnson,2019-07-29 Milly Johnson the Queen of Feel Good Fiction and The Sunday Times bestselling author is back with a glorious heartfelt novel Rowan Coleman New York Times bestselling author about a woman trying to find her own place in the world who through love loss and the kindness of strangers discovers everything she needs in a village by the sea Behind every successful man is a woman Behind the fall of every successful man is usually another woman Sophie Mayhew seems to have the perfect life The glamorous wife of a rising political star who is one step away from the highest position in the government she matches her husband in looks pedigree and money But he has made some stupid mistakes on his way to the top and some of those mistakes are just now threatening to emerge Still this can all be swept under the rug so long as Sophie the Trophy plays her part in front of the cameras But the words that tumble out of Sophie s mouth one morning on the doorstep of their country house are not the words the spin doctors drilled into her head Bursting out of the restrictive mold that has been tightening around her since birth Sophie flees to a small village on the coast a safe haven from her childhood days where she intends to be alone But once there she finds a community that warms her soul and makes her feel as if she is breathing properly for the first time in her life Sophie knows she won t be left in peace for long though so she must decide where does her real future lie
