

Drum Of Freedom

Freedom, freedom they shout, freedom, freedom they say.____
Obsessed with freedom!
Freedom, freedom night and day.____

They have erected and they show large statues of freedom.____
Freedom, freedom they sing like hymns and ever beat the drum.____

Bombings, theft and dacoity disguised in the name of freedom.____
Killings, torture, rape all are fine,
just shout freedom, freedom.____

But are they themselves free?
handful rule them with a glee.____
People of money and media and walls of prejudice and lies I see.____

Few have taken them as hostage
and they've made world unfree.____
I pray for their freedom so that entire world becomes free.____

Root For The Ravens Poems For Drum And Freedom:

Root for the Ravens Charles Roach, Hugh Williams, 1977-01-01 Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2017-06-22

Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field. Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts, this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures. George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature's distinguishing characteristics, argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies, and critiques several of its key creators and texts. Scholarly and sophisticated, the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr  Alexis Dionne Brand, Austin Clarke, Claire Harris, and M. Nourbese Philip. In so doing, Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism, liberalism, and conservatism. These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity. Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa, African America, and the Caribbean. In addition to the essays, Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts, literature, and criticism from both English and French Canada. This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora.

The Routledge Handbook of Black Canadian Literature Andrea A. Davis, Leslie Sanders, 2024-12-09

The Routledge Handbook of Black Canadian Literature offers a comprehensive overview of the growing and increasingly significant field of Black Canadian literary studies. Including historical and contemporary analysis, this volume is an essential text that maps the field over the almost 200 years of its existence across a range of genres from slave narratives to prose fiction, poetry, theatre, and dub and spoken word. It presents Black Canadian literature as encompassing a diverse set of viewpoints, approaches, and practices touching every aspect of Canadian territory and life and as deeply influencing debates and understandings of Black peoples far beyond its borders. This Handbook employs an interdisciplinary framework that incorporates literary, historical, geographical, and cultural analysis. This book, comprising 32 chapters, is organized into five sections that chart the literature's development into a recognizable canon, trace Black literary geographies across Canada from east to west, delineate the literature's various genres and expressive forms, and honor the writers and thinkers who have influenced the growth of the field. This volume's range of subject and plurality of perspectives provide an excellent resource for teachers, researchers, and students from multiple disciplines, including Canadian studies and literature, Caribbean studies, global Black studies, hemispheric studies, diaspora studies, history, and cultural studies.
