Services For Urban Poor Section:

Basic Services for Urban Poor Archana Ghosh, S. Sami Ahmad, Shipra Maitra, 1995 Reaching The Urban Poor G. Shabbir Cheema, G Shabbir Cheema, 2019-08-16 As urban population continues to grow rapidly one of the most critical issues in the Third World has become providing shelter and other basic services such as clean water health clinics and sewage disposal to the urban poor This book of nine case studies of urban programs and projects in Indonesia Kenya Malaysia Nigeria Pakistan South Korea India and Sri Lanka focuses on impediments to slum upgrading The authors discuss each project's evolution the capabilities and resources of implementing agencies the problems of interagency relationships and coordination costs and funding the difficulties of developing effective linkages with poor communities and the accessibility of the new services to the urban poor Mental Health Issues and the Urban Poor Dorothy Alita Evans, William L. Claiborn, 2013-10-22 Mental Health Issues and the Urban Poor is a collection of papers presented at the Third Annual Symposium on Current Issues in Community Clinical Psychology Mental Health Issues and the Urban Poor held at the University of Maryland in March 1973 This book presents the relevance of mental health theory and technology to problems in coping faced by the urban poor Comprised of five parts the book first highlights the trends and issues concerning mental health and poverty It then discusses existing perspectives on values theory and research and illustrates models for mental health action aimed at alleviating the problems of the urban poor This text also provides examples of training and service programs in mental health professions This book is valuable to mental health professionals interested in fresh and realistic perspectives on mental health services provided to the poor Water Service Provision for the Peri-urban Poor in Post-conflict Angola Allan Cain, Martin Mulenga, 2009 This paper is an output of the Sida DANIDA and DFID funded project entitled Improving urban water and sanitation provision globally through information and action driven locally This project was carried out by IIED and five of its partners in Angola Argentina Ghana India and Pakistan The project aims to document innovative and inspiring examples of locally driven water and sanitation initiatives in deprived urban areas The project provides a basis for better understanding of how to identify and build upon local initiatives that are likely to improve water and sanitation services The project also looks at how local organisations in those countries have managed to scale up successful projects work collaboratively finance water and sanitation schemes and use information systems such as mapping to drive local action and monitor improvements Report on Indian Urban Infrastructure and Services Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2024-11-22 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels

Urban Poverty in the Global South Diana Mitlin, David Satterthwaite, 2013 This is compounded by the lack of voice and influence that low income groups have in these official spheres LIFE SCUFFLES OF SLUM DWELLERS A geographic

Study of Gurgaon Dr. Virender Singh, 2020-11-12 1 1 General Background The word slum has a slangy connotation in British society from where this word is thought to be originated In the eastern end of London this word means room and it evolved over time to mean back slum giving the sense of back alley street of poor people Etymological Dictionary The Slum is variously named often interchangeably used in different parts of the globe viz shanty town favela rookery gecekondu skid row barrio ghetto bidonville taudis bandas de miseria barrio marginal morro loteamento barraca musseque tugurio solares mudun safi karyan medina achouaia brarek ishash galoos tanake baladi trushebi chalis katras zopadpattis bustee estero looban dagatan umjondolo watta udukku and chereka bete UN Habitat 2003 Below are some of the definitions of slum given by some eminent social scientists working in the field of slums Merrium Websters American Dictionary defines slums as a densely populated usually urban area marked by crowding dirty run down housing poverty and social disorganization whereas the Oxford Dictionary defines slums to be a squalid and overcrowded urban street or district inhabited by very poor people and it also tells that the slums consists of type of houses or buildings unfit for human habitation As per the Cambridge online dictionary a slum is a very poor and crowded area especially of a city in which the living conditions are untidy or dirty Colin s dictionary states that a slum is an area of a city where living conditions are very bad and where the houses are in bad condition and it also lists some of its synonyms like hovel ghetto shanty etc

Reducing Urban Poverty in the Global South David Satterthwaite,Diana Mitlin,2013-08-15 Urban areas in the Global South now house most of the world's urban population and are projected to house almost all its increase between now and 2030 There is a growing recognition that the scale of urban poverty has been overlooked and that it is increasing both in numbers and in the proportion of the world's poor population that live and work in urban areas This is the first book to review the effectiveness of different approaches to reducing urban poverty in the Global South It describes and discusses the different ways in which national and local governments international agencies and civil society organizations are seeking to reduce urban poverty Different approaches are explored for instance market approaches welfare rights based approaches and technical professional support The book also considers the roles of clientelism and of social movements Case studies illustrate different approaches and explore their effectiveness Reducing Urban Poverty in the Global South also analyses the poverty reduction strategies developed by organized low income groups especially those living in informal settlements It explains how they and the federations or networks they have formed have demonstrated new approaches that have challenged adverse political relations and negotiated more effective support Local and national governments and international agencies can become far more effective at addressing urban poverty at scale by as is proposed in this book working with and supporting the urban poor and their organizations This book will be an invaluable resource for researchers and postgraduate students in urban development poverty reduction urban geography and for practitioners and organisations working in urban development programmes in the Global South Congressional Record United States. Congress,1998

Urban Poverty and Transport ,2005 This paper reports the results of a survey of 5 000 households in the Greater Mumbai Region conducted in the winter of 2004 The goal of the survey was to better understand the demand for transport services by the poor the factors affecting this demand and the inter linkages between transport decisions and other vital decisions such as where to live and work This paper the first of several research outputs describes the salient facts about travel patterns in Mumbai for both poor and non poor households A striking finding of the survey is the extent to which all households especially poor households rely on walking Overall 44 percent of commuters in Mumbai walk to work The proportion of the poor who walk to work is even higher 63 percent Walking is an even higher modal share for nonwork than for work trips Urban Poverty in Africa Mary Gachochi, 1999 This volume represents a selection of papers presented at the Africa Regional Workshop on Urban Poverty held in Nairobi Kenya in September 1998 The papers are the outputs of the regional programme supported by UNCHS Habitat and the Ford Foundation since 1992 The papers published in this volume analyse urban poverty trends in East and Southern Africa and review different strategies that countries and cities have pursued to address urban poverty
