The Maturing Marketplace Euehun Lee, Anil Mathur, George Moschis, Jennifer Strautman, 2000-04-30

The buying habits of baby boomers really do differ from those of their parents The authors show how marketers can use each group's consumption patterns to reach both markets most effectively Another insight buying habits of these groups differ according to the product or service offered By analyzing each cohort's buying habits in various purchasing situations the book dramatizes the need for customized marketing strategies Based on two national surveys conducted by the Center for Mature Studies Georgia State University the book will be essential for marketing professionals and their academic colleagues Moschis and his coauthors concentrate on food products apparel footwear drugs and cosmetics housing technology products and telecommunications services health care travel and leisure and financial and insurance services They cover preferences for selected products and services patronage habits methods of purchasing motives for preferences for specific brands and services and for payment methods and reasons for buying direct Each chapter addresses a specific product or service category and includes analyses of survey respondents by demographic and lifestyle characteristics and media use habits The book concludes with a discussion of the implications of their research and the ways in which it will lead marketers to design more effective strategies not only today but in the future

Values, Lifestyles, and Psychographics Lynn R. Kahle, Larry Chisagouris, 2014-03-05 This book showcases papers presented at the annual Advertising and Consumer Psychology Conference The contributors active scholars with both practitioner and academic backgrounds share an interest in the general area of psychographics values and lifestyle in advertising The interdisciplinary and international mix of authors bring a diverse perspective to this volume which is divided into four nonorthogonal sections The first section deals with theoretical and conceptual issues in advertising research while the second section presents chapters devoted to improving methodology The final two sections illustrate how value lifestyle and psychographic research have been used to understand differences among people The first of these final two sections emphasizes differences among people at different times commonly called trend research and the second emphasizes differences among people across national boundaries Collectively these chapters illustrate how practical state of the art research in values lifestyles and psychographics can be Thoughtful consideration of values lifestyles and psychographics as they are manifested in quality research can improve advertising and marketing practice and can help the business community deliver products and services that are more in line with consumers needs

Design for Assisted Living Victor Regnier, 2003-02-28 Destined to become the defining work on the subject this timely reference addresses the single fastest growing segment of the senior living industry assisted living for those who are unable to live independently but who do not need intensive nursing home care meals housekeeping or twenty four hour access to medical assistance Victor Regnier's visually rich guide includes dozens of design solutions from successful assisted living facilities along with fifteen case studies from the U S and Europe The book also covers recent developments in the industry including major changes in financing growth of dementia and interest in aging in place All in all this is the most comprehensive guide to assisted living design that you ll find in any single volume Human Development in Adulthood

Lewis R. Aiken,2005-12-21 Human Development in Adulthood is a comprehensive multidisciplinary overview of adult development in a number of areas both personal and societal from mental and physical health to economic and social conditions Variables including race gender economic status and political and religious affiliation are considered in the discussion of such human issues as love and marital relations economic concerns including employment and living conditions violence in its various forms including crime and war aging and death The numerous illustrations chapter summaries and glossary will prove especially useful to students Aging Independently Klaus Warner Schaie,2003 This volume is based on the conference Aging in the Community Living Arrangements and Mobility organised by the German Centre for Research on Aging at the University of Heidelberg in cooperation with Pennsylvania State University It explores the similarities and differences of living arrangements and outdoor mobility in both cultures and the impact on older persons roles in community life and sustainable community development Considers the future of aging theoretically from an environmental gerontology perspective and practically in terms of available technology the central tenet of this volume is that future indoor and outdoor environments will become much more intertwined than is the case today Merging the concerns of living arrangements and mobility this volume leads us to a new understanding of distance and nearness even in the presence for example of severe chronic illness Hospitality Design for the Graying Generation Alfred H. Baucom,1996-08-03 A comprehensive and practical approach to designing for the growing senior market As people live longer stay healthier and enjoy more disposable income their use of hospitality services is increasing dramatically Hospitality Design for the Graying Generation helps you cater to this expanding market by providing critical information on designing facilities which are sensitive to the needs of the over 65 population With the important principles explained in this book designing for the senior consumer can be creative cost effective and benefit all consumers without sacrificing style This indispensable guide includes A Universal Design approach that can be applied to both commercial and residential projects going beyond compliance with ADA guidelines A wide range of hospitality design including restaurants hotel guest rooms lobbies and lounges Design principles beautifully illustrated with concise detailed drawings Extensive coverage of the specific physical needs and psychology of seniors including physical strength hearing sight color preferences and other areas A quick reference checklist of senior friendly design features When the interior design needs of the over 65 market are met all potential users gain regardless of age or ability This accessible book is an invaluable resource for designers operators and other professionals throughout the hospitality industry With millions of baby boomers rapidly approaching retirement age the over 65 age group is the fastest growing segment of the population As they become healthier live longer and have more disposable income their use of hospitality services such as hotels and restaurants will increase dramatically Whether you are a designer or a hospitality professional Hospitality Design for the Graying Generation helps you plan for this growing market by providing you with critical information for designing facilities that accommodate the needs of all generations Clearly written and generously illustrated Hospitality Design for the Graying Generation shows you how to address the specific physical and psychological needs of seniors with detailed chapters on mobility hearing vision color preferences and other important areas Going beyond ADA guidelines Alfred Baucom's Universal Design approach enables you to integrate senior friendly design principles into a wide range of specific environments from lobbies common areas and public restrooms to restaurants lounges and hotel guest rooms In meeting the needs of the over 65 market Hospitality Design for the Graying Generation ensures that all potential users regardless of age or ability will be well accommodated JMR, Journal of Marketing Research, 1992 Assisted Living for the Aged and Frail Victor Regnier, Jennifer Hamilton, Suzie Yatabe, 1995 How will patterns of human interaction with the earth's eco system impact on biodiversity loss over the long term not in the next ten or even fifty years but on the vast temporal scale be dealt with by earth scientists This volume brings together data from population biology community ecology comparative biology and paleontology to answer this question The Art of the Possible G. Richard Ambrosius, 1991 Retirement Housing Markets Susan B. Brecht, James F. Sherman, 1991 Marketing Information Hiram C. Barksdale, Jack L. Goldstucker, 1995 Builder, 1992 Social Forces and Aging Robert C. Atchley, 2000 Atchley's interdisciplinary approach has produced a text which provides the concepts information insight and examples students need to achieve a basic understanding of aging as a social process Covering the physical problems inner experiences and instrumental needs of the aging Atchley examines aging on both an individual and societal level Atchley covers major areas of theory research social policy and practice in a clear and organized manner to make social gerontology accessible to students from all backgrounds This text is the classic book for the course that continually keeps pace with the dramatic changes in the field including new theories research programs and issues The book is organized so that individual aging and adaptation to aging in everyday life is examined first Atchley then moves on to explore the needs and resource demands that aging as a phenomenon presents to society He then delves into society's response to aging Travelers Protection and Agent's Record, 1990 Hospitable Design for Healthcare and Senior Communities Albert Bush-Brown, Dianne Davis, 1992 In error CIP cites Bush Brown as the author rather than the editor this is a collective work with essays from numerous contributors emphasizing the therapeutic aspects of space light landscape music art and poetry Recent designs displayed in some 250 illustrations 22 in color show ways to achieve both privacy and community within settings that stimulate physical intellectual social and aesthetic activity Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Ageing: Key debates Susan A.
