Serving Children With Disabilities A Systematic Look At The Programs:

Serving Children with Disabilities Laudan Y. Aron, Pamela Loprest, C. Eugene Steuerle, 1996 A revised version of the report submitted to the National Commission on Childhood Disability which was established to review the assistance given to children with disabilities under the Supplemental Security Income SSI The commission was releasing its findings and recommendations as the book went to print Overviews the programs generally and the principles behind them then details specific programs such as SSI Medicaid special education block grants Head Start and mental health and family support programs Includes over 40 pages of data No index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Workshop on Disability in America Institute of Medicine, Board on Health Sciences Policy, Committee on Disability in America: A New Look, 2006-02-27 Beginning in late 2004 the IOM began a project to take a new look at disability in America It will review developments and progress since the publication of the 1991 and 1997 Institute reports For technical contracting reasons the new project was split into two phases During the limited first phase a committee appointed by IOM planned and convened a 1 day workshop to examine a subset of topics as background for the second phase of project As was agreed upon with the sponsor of the workshop the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention CDC the topics were methodological and policy issues related to the conceptualization definition measurement and monitoring of disability and health over time trends in the amount types and causes of disability disability across the age spectrum and in the context of normal aging and secondary health conditions The phase one workshop was held in Washington D C on August 1 2005 Its participants included researchers clinicians social service professionals policy experts and consumer representatives and advocates The meeting agenda and list of participants are included in Appendix A Workshop on Disability in America A New Look Summary and Background Papers summarizes the workshop presentations and discussions The background papers prepared for the workshop are included in Appendixes B through O Some papers were submitted and circulated in advance of the meeting whereas others were first presented at the meeting The analyses definitions and views presented in the papers are those of the paper authors and are not necessarily those of the IOM committee Likewise the discussion summary is limited to the views of the workshop participants Changing Welfare Rachel A. Gordon, Herbert J. Walberg, 2012-12-06 Changing Welfare is concerned with the sweeping changes that took place in public assistance programs at the end of the 20th century and the way in which the original and reformed versions of these programs relate to the well being of children and their families The authors critically review the original conceptualizations and the new directions of programs offering cash assistance food assistance health insurance and child protection services to low income and disabled children and their families thus changes in the welfare programs themselves And throughout their concern is with whether and how these programs alter the opportunities for the development of the children targeted by these programs thus changes in the welfare of children and their families The objective of each chapter of the book is to rigorously highlight key theoretical and research issues including the identification of major empirical findings and unanswered questions Wherever relevant the chapters connect theory and research to policy and practice pointing to recommendations and challenges for the future including alternative approaches for research policy and practice Addressing the needs of youth with disabilities in the juvenile justice system ,2003 Maternal and Child Health Jonathan Kotch,2005 Health Policy Management On Your Own without a Net D. Wayne Osgood,E. Michael Foster,Constance Flanagan,Gretchen R. Ruth,2008-09-15 In the decade after high school young people continue to rely on their families in many ways sometimes for financial support sometimes for help with childcare and sometimes for continued shelter But what about those young people who confront special difficulties during this period many of whom can count on little help from their families On Your Own Without a Net documents the special challenges facing seven vulnerable populations during the transition to adulthood former foster care youth youth formerly involved in the juvenile justice system youth in the criminal justice system runaway and homeless youth former special education students young people in the mental health system and youth with physical disabilities During adolescence government programs have been a major part of their lives yet eligibility for most programs typically ends between the ages of eighteen and twenty one This critical volume shows the unfortunate repercussions of this termination of support and points out the issues that must be addressed to improve these young people s chances of becoming successful adults Disability Classification in Education Lani Florian,Margaret J. McLaughlin,2008-04-03 Makes a strong contribution to the field illuminating many issues and significant concerns Mary Carlson Special Education TeacherPark Hill K 8 School Denver CO A unique timeless collection that raises interesting questions about disability classification internationally Wendy Dallman Special Education TeacherNew London High School WI Promote equal educational opportunity through improved classification practices The identification of children for special educational services has long been a topic of debate Are students classified accurately Do current classification systems produce adequate education services Have systems designed to ensure equity instead resulted in discrimination Disability Classification in Education offers a comprehensive analysis of current classification systems and categorical labels in the United States the United Kingdom and other countries Covering specific national policies from historical sociological and legal perspectives this collection of articles from a group of esteemed educational researchers identifies the disparities between different classification systems and suggests changes based on recent requirements challenges and trends Aligned with NCLB and the reauthorization of IDEA 2004 this edited volume examines The evolution of special education classification policies The relevance of existing disability classification systems Dilemmas educators face in using current classification procedures Alternatives for serving learners with special needs Approaches to developing a standardized or universal classification policy Intended to stimulate discussion and spark change this guide helps school or district administrators and university faculty improve the professional practice of those entrusted with the development and well being of children with disabilities Disability Decision Making ,2001 Policy and Research Report ,1993
