The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1928      The Publishers Weekly, 1928      Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1974      Communication Disabilities, 1st Ed. James Chambers, 2020-03-01

Provides an overview of the different types of communication disorders and their impact on personal social and economic well being recovery and rehabilitation techniques and tips for caregivers Includes facts about rights and benefits of people with communication disabilities and resources for additional help and information      The Bookman, 1904      Sign My Name to Freedom Betty Reid Soskin, 2019-12-27

In Betty Reid Soskin's 96 years of living she has been a witness to a grand sweep of American history When she was born in 1921 the lynching of African Americans was a national disgrace minstrel shows were the most popular American form of entertainment women were looked at suspiciously by many for exercising their right to vote and most African Americans in the Deep South could not vote at all From her great grandmother who had been enslaved until she was in her mid 20s Betty heard stories of slavery and the difficult times for Black Folk that immediately followed In her lifetime Betty has seen the nation begin to break down its race and gender biases watched it nearly split apart in the upheavals of the civil rights and Black Power eras and finally lived long enough to witness both the election of an African American president and the re emergence of a militant racist far right But far more than being merely a witness Betty Reid Soskin has been an active participant with so many other Americans in shaping the country as we know it now The child of Louisiana Creole parents who refused to bow down to Southern discrimination she was raised in the Black Bay Area community before the great westward migration of World War II After working in the civilian homefront effort in the war years she and her husband Mel Reid helped break down racial boundaries by moving into a white community east of the Oakland hills There she raised four children one openly gay one developmentally disabled while working to end the prejudices against the family that existed among many of her neighbors With Mel she opened up one of the first Bay Area record stores in Berkeley both owned by African Americans and dedicated to the distribution of African American music Her community organizing activities eventually led her to work as a state legislative aid helping to plan the innovative Rosie the Riveter National Park in Richmond California then to a second career at the Rosie Park as the oldest park ranger in the history of the National Park Service In between she used her talents as a singer and songwriter to interpret and chronicle the great social upheavals that marked the 1960s In 2003 Betty displayed a new talent writing when she created the popular blog CBreaux Speaks Now followed by thousands her blog is a collection of Betty's sometimes fierce sometimes gently persuasive but always brightly honest story that weaves both the wisdom of the ages and the fresh enthusiasm of an always youthful mind into her long journey through an American and African American life as well as America's long struggle to both understand and cleanse its soul Blending together selections from many of Betty's hundreds of blog entries with interviews letters and speeches collected throughout her long life Sign My Name to Freedom invites readers into an American life
