Setting Up and Running a Therapy Business James Rye, 2018-03-29 This book answers the questions that therapists frequently ask about setting up and running a business. It allows readers to successfully make the journey from being trained in how to conduct professional therapy sessions to running a growing private practice. The material covers a range of issues including registration with HMRC, money issues, marketing, insurance, and whether to work from home or other premises. The book addresses a number of practical questions such as: Do I have to register with the information commission? What can I count as legitimate business expenses? What mistakes should I avoid when marketing my practice? How can I easily and cheaply accept card payments from my clients? What help can I get to manage my phone calls? How can I get a website? and What can I do to increase my personal safety? As counselling in the twenty-first century changes, an increasing number of therapists are using technology to write and store notes and to communicate with clients either to arrange appointments or to conduct them.

The New Entrepreneur's Guide to Setting Up and Running a Successful Business Paul Kendall, 2018-06-12 This is the book you will need if you are considering setting up your own business. It is aimed at the new business owner who has a lot of questions to ask. It has been written by a successful business owner and provides advice on what to do and what not to do. While it is not intended to be a global reference book, it does provide the reader with practical answers to the issues they will come across everyday and includes examples of successes and failures from both the US and UK perspectives.
