However, while the identity and motivation of those who donate comes under increasingly close scrutiny, little is known about the motivation and characteristics of the askers, despite almost every donation being solicited or prompted in some way. This is the first empirically grounded and theorised account of the identity, characteristics, and motivation of fundraisers in the UK. Based on original data collected during a 3 year study of over 1,200 fundraisers, the book argues that it is not possible to understand charitable giving without accounting for the role of fundraising. Leadership for World-Class Universities Philip G.
