Erickson* Lamia Doumato, 1984 Modern Movement Heritage Allen Cunningham, 2013-10-18 An introduction to the subject and the specific problems related to the conservation of modern structures Celebrating the first five years of DoCoMoMo's role and influence this collection covers policy planning and construction Made in British Columbia Maria Tippet, 2015-09-19 Is there such a thing as British Columbia culture and if so is there anything special about it This is the broad question Dr Maria Tippet answers in this work with an assured yes To prove her point she looks at the careers of eight ground breaking cultural producers in the fields of painting aboriginal art architecture writing theatre and music The eight creative figures profiled in Made in British Columbia are not just distinguished artists who made an enduring mark on Canadian culture during the twentieth century. They are unique artists whose work is intimately interwoven with British Columbia's identity. Emily Carr portrayed BC's coastal landscape in a manner as unique as her lifestyle. Bill Reid's carvings, jewellery and sculpture stand as a contemporary interpretation of his reclaimed Haida heritage. The name Francis Rattenbury is less known than The Empress Hotel in Victoria, one of many prominent BC buildings he designed, while Arthur Erickson's modern architectural contributions are recognized worldwide. Martin Allerdale Grainger's experience in the BC woods in the early days of hand logging inspired him to write one of the undisputed classics of BC fiction, Woodsmen of the West. Jean Coulthard struggled for respect as a female composer during the 1920s and 1930s in British Columbia but eventually proved her extraordinary musical talents internationally. George Woodcock left Britain in 1949 to forge his career as an influential author, editor, mentor and tireless promoter of literary scholarship in the province, while playwright George Ryga, the son of Ukrainian immigrants, exposed the anguish and reality of life for Native women in our cities with his 1967 play The Ecstasy of Rita Joe. Featuring images of the artists and their works, Made in British Columbia presents a history of the treasures found in our galleries, concert halls, theatres, museums, libraries and streetscapes and explores the legacy of a cultural tradition as unique as the place that nurtured it.

A History of Canadian Architecture Harold D. Kalman, Harold Kalman, 1994

Architects Today Kester Rattenbury, Robert Bevan, Kieran Long, 2006-08-10 This volume offers both an introduction to and an insight into key contemporary architects as well as giving a snapshot of the varied nature of architecture today. For each architect, there are details of their life and work and illustrations of their most representative and iconic buildings.

Cornelia Hahn Oberlander Susan Herrington, 2014-01-01 Cornelia Hahn Oberlander is one of the most important landscape architects of the twentieth century, yet despite her lasting influence, few outside the field know her name. Her work has been instrumental in the development of the late twentieth-century design ethic, and her early years working with architectural luminaries such as Louis Kahn and Dan Kiley prepared her to bring a truly modern and audaciously abstract sensibility to the landscape design tradition. In Cornelia Hahn Oberlander: Making the Modern Landscape, Susan Herrington draws upon archival research, site analyses and numerous interviews with Oberlander and her collaborators to offer the first biography of this adventurous and influential landscape architect. Born in 1921, Oberlander fled Nazi Germany at the age of eighteen, with her family going on to become one of the few women to graduate from Harvard University's Graduate School of Design in the late 1940s. For six decades, she has practiced socially responsible and ecologically sensitive planning for public landscapes, including the 1970s design of the Robson Square landscape and its adjoining Provincial Law Courts, one of Vancouver's most famous spaces. Herrington places Oberlander within a larger social and aesthetic context, chronicling both her personal and professional trajectory and her work in New York, Philadelphia, Vancouver, Seattle, Berlin, Toronto and Montreal. Oberlander is a progenitor of some of the most significant currents informing landscape architecture today.

particularly in the area of ecological focus In her thorough biography Herrington draws much deserved attention to one of the truly important figures in landscape architecture The Urban Geography Reader NICK FYFE, JUDITH
