Romantic Poetry Clarence Edward Andrews, Milton Oswin Percival, 1924 Romantic Catholics Carol E. Harrison, 2014-02-05 In this well written and imaginatively structured book Carol E Harrison brings to life a cohort of nineteenth century French men and women who argued that a reformed Catholicism could reconcile the divisions in French culture and society that were the legacy of revolution and empire They include most prominently Charles de Montalembert Pauline Craven Am lie and Fr d ric Ozanam L opoldine Hugo Maurice de Gu rin and Victorine Monniot The men and women whose stories appear in Romantic Catholics were bound together by filial love friendship and in some cases marriage Harrison draws on their diaries letters and published works to construct a portrait of a generation linked by a determination to live their faith in a modern world Rejecting both the atomizing force of revolutionary liberalism and the increasing intransigence of the church hierarchy the romantic Catholics advocated a middle way in which a revitalized Catholic faith and liberty formed the basis for modern society Harrison traces the history of nineteenth century France and in parallel the life course of these individuals as they grow up learn independence and take on the responsibilities and disappointments of adulthood Although the shared goals of the romantic Catholics were never realized in French politics and culture Harrison s work offers a significant corrective to the traditional understanding of the opposition between religion and the secular republican tradition in France
