Campbell,2023-01-26 William S Campbell provides a comprehensive commentary on Paul s most challenging letter In conversation with reception history and previous scholarship he emphasizes the contextuality of Romans as a letter to Rome using social identity theory combined with historical literary and theological perspectives to arrive at a coherent reading of the entire letter Because Paul has never visited Rome and is not the founder of the Christ movement there Campbell argues that his guidance and teaching are formulated more cautiously than in his other letters Yet the long list of people who had previous links with him and his mission to the gentiles demonstrates that Paul is well informed about the situation in Rome and addresses issues that have arisen With Christ the Messianic Time is beginning but there was some lack of clarity in Rome about the implications of this for Jews and gentiles Rather than ethne in Christ replacing Israel as some in Rome possibly concluded Campbell stresses that Paul affirms the irrevocable calling of Israel and that simultaneously the identity of ethne in Christ is also called alongside the people Israel thus the integrity of the identity of both is affirmed as indispensable for God's purpose now revealed in Christ Campbell fully demonstrates how Paul in Romans achieves this by the social and theological intertwining of the message of the gospel

Harvesting Freedom Gabriel Allahdua, 2023-03-07 In this singular firsthand account a former migrant worker reveals a disturbing system of exploitation at the heart of Canada's farm labour system When Gabriel Allahdua applied to the Seasonal Agricultural Worker Program in Canada he thought he would be leaving his home in St Lucia to work in a country with a sterling human rights reputation and commitment to multiculturalism Instead breakneck quotas and a culture of fear dominated his four years in a mega greenhouse in Ontario This deeply personal memoir takes readers behind the scenes to see what life is really like for the people who produce Canada's food Now as a leading activist in the migrant justice movement in Canada Gabriel is fighting back against the Canadian government to demand rights and respect for temporary foreign labourers Harvesting Freedom shows Canada's place in the long history of slavery colonialism and inequality that has linked the Caribbean to the wider world for half a millennium but also the tireless determination of Caribbean people to fight for their freedom
