

SUSANNA'S SEVEN HUSBANDS

detailed summary for Episode 1

Episode One, titled "The Major and the Man-Eater," sets the tone for the narrative by establishing the central character, Susanna, and her complex relationship with the unnamed narrator, who is her neighbor and the storyteller. The episode begins with a vivid description of a black widow spider, which serves as a metaphor for Susanna's character—dominant, dangerous, and living by "murder." The narrator recounts his first encounter with Susanna when he was twelve years old. He had climbed a guava tree in her orchard to steal fruit and was caught by her. Despite the transgression, she sent him a basket of guavas the next day, showing her kindness and forgiveness. This act of generosity is juxtaposed with the ruthless nature of the black widow spider, hinting at the duality of Susanna's personality. Susanna is portrayed as a woman of means, with a background in horse racing and a love for animals and children, but with a streak of cruelty reserved for certain types of humans. Her father, who raised her, was a grumpy man who discouraged visitors, leaving Susanna to grow up in the company of animals and servants. The episode also introduces Major Mehta, Susanna's first husband, who is described as a charming and handsome man, albeit somewhat vain. The narrator recounts how the Major and Susanna met and married, with the Major quickly becoming involved in Susanna's finances and displaying jealousy towards her and those around her. The climax of the episode is the Major's death during a hunting trip, where he is killed by a man-eating tiger. The narrator does not witness the event but hears the story from Shah Rukh, one of Susanna's servants. The death is described in graphic detail, with the tiger dragging the Major into the bushes amidst screams and snarls. The episode ends with the narrator reflecting on the events and the questions that arise about the Major's death, such as whether he fell of his own volition or if something had been added to his whisky. This sets the stage for the mysterious and often tragic events that follow in Susanna's life. Key Quote: "I am watching as she moves like the minute-hand of a watch, each step a matter of thought, while all her eight eyes are focused on her victim."
