Motivation A Biobehavioral Analysis Of Consummatory Activities:

Motivation Roderick Wong, 1976 Cognitive Perspectives on Emotion and Motivation V. Hamilton, Gordon H. Bower, Nico H. Frijda, 2012-12-06 This book presents the contributions of the members of an Advanced Research Workshop on Cognitive Science Perspectives on Emotion Motivation and Cognition The Workshop funded mainly by the NATO Scientific Affairs Division together with a contribution from the British Economic and Social Research Council was conducted at Il Ciocco Tuscany Italy 21-27 June 1987 The venue for our discussions was ideal a quiet holiday hotel 500m high in the Apennine mountain range approached by a mile of perilously steep winding narrow road The isolation was conducive to concentrated discussions on the topics of the Workshop The reason for the Workshop was a felt need for researchers from disparate but related approaches to cognition emotion and motivation to communicate their perspectives and arguments to one another To take just one example the framework of information processing and the metaphor of mind as a computer has wrought a major revolution in psychological theories of cognition That framework has radically altered the way psychologists conceptualize perception memory language thought and action Those advances have formed the intellectual substrate for the cognitive science perspective on mental life

Motivation Roderick Wong, 2000-07-03 This book presents an analysis of motivated behaviour from a biological perspective The Neurobiology of Behavior Gordon J. Mogenson, 2018-02-19 Originally published in 1977 the objective of this book was to examine the mechanisms by which the multiple factors or determinants homeostatic deficits hormonal influences circadian rhythms experiential and cognitive factors become translated by the central nervous system into thermoregulatory feeding sexual aggressive and other behaviours A conceptual framework has been used that reflects relevant contributions from biology regulatory physiology physiological psychology and other neuroscience disciplines The final chapter deals with difficulties in brain behaviour research in relation to experimental strategies and with crucial problems for future investigation

Motivation Robert Clarence Beck, 1983 This experimentally oriented book provides a critical examination of research and theory with a topical approach It covers a broad range of motivational concepts from both human and animal theory and research with an emphasis on the biological bases of motivation Chapter topics include the nature of motivation theory species specific behaviors eating and taste thirst temperature regulation addiction and reproduction drive and activation rewards as both reinforcers and incentives escape fear avoidance and punishment frustration anxiety stress and coping aggression and altruism personality and individual differences attitudes and cognitive consistency interpersonal attraction and applications of motivation theory For individuals interested in the motivation of humans and animals
