The World's Worst Prisons Karen Farrington, 2019-03-28 Incarceration has a long and inglorious history from dungeons in the bowels of castles to oppressive penal colonies in Australia Karen Farrington brings this history up to the 21st century exploring some of the world's worst prisons from Alcatraz to Pollsmoor and the unending battles that rage between convicts and warders Inside the prison walls gangs rule guards devise sadistic punishments and newcomers suffer abuse at the hands of experienced tormentors The World's Worst Prisons is packed with shocking accounts of prison breakouts drug smuggling and life on death row It also explores the politics of incarceration including the harsh labour camps of North Korea and controversies surrounding private management of prisons With prison populations rising each year questions surrounding incarceration are all the more pertinent Whether focusing on punishment containment or rehabilitation the prison system is imperfect and The World's Worst Prisons examines this dysfunction through some of the most dangerous

jails on earth The Criminals of Lima and Their Worlds Carlos Aguirre, 2005-01-27 The Criminals of Lima and Their Worlds is the first major historical study of the creation and development of the prison system in Peru Carlos Aguirre examines the evolution of prisons for male criminals in Lima from the conception in the early 1850s of the initial plans to build penitentiaries through the early twentieth century prison reforms undertaken as part of President Augusto Leguia's attempts to modernize and expand the Peruvian state Aguirre reconstructs the social cultural and doctrinal influences that determined how lawbreakers were treated how programs of prison reform fared and how inmates experienced incarceration He argues that the Peruvian prisons were primarily used not to combat crime or to rehabilitate allegedly deviant individuals but rather to help reproduce and maintain an essentially unjust social order In this sense he finds that the prison system embodied the contradictory and exclusionary nature of modernization in Peru Drawing on a large collection of prison and administrative records archived at Peru's Ministry of Justice Aguirre offers a detailed account of the daily lives of men incarcerated in Lima's jails In showing the extent to which the prisoners actively sought to influence prison life he reveals the dynamic between prisoners and guards as a process of negotiation accommodation and resistance He describes how police and the Peruvian state defined criminality and how their efforts to base a prison system on the latest scientific theories imported from Europe and the United States foundered on the shoals of financial constraints administrative incompetence corruption and widespread public indifference Locating his findings within the political and social mores of Lima society Aguirre reflects on the connections between punishment modernization and authoritarian traditions in Peru International and Transnational Crime and Justice Mangai Natarajan, 2019-06-13 Provides a key textbook on the nature of international and transnational crimes and the delivery of justice for crime control and prevention The Past, Present, and Future of American Criminal Justice Brendan Maguire, Polly F. failed to do anything except normalize the warehousing of nonviolent substance abusers in jails and prisons that serve more as criminal training centers than as redemptive spaces for citizens who might re enter society successfully Prison Industrial Complex For Beginners is a primer for how these issues emerged and how our awareness of the systems at work in mass incarceration might be the very first step in reforming an institution responsible for some of our most egregious contemporary civil rights violations
