International Groundwater Resources Law Julio A. Barberis, 1986-01-01 Designing National Pesticide Legislation Jessica Vapnek, Isabella Pagotto, Margaret Kwoka, 2007-01-01 International and national legal frameworks governing the trade and use of pesticides have undergone significant changes over the last twenty years The International Code of Conduct on the Distribution and Use of Pesticides the Rotterdam Convention the Stockholm Convention the Basel Convention and the Montreal Protocol are only some of the binding and non binding international instruments applicable to part or all of the life cycle of a pesticide Specific guidelines for implementation are often available from the secretariat of the applicable international instrument but comprehensive guidance is generally lacking Governments need a clear picture of their international obligations as well as guidance on the accepted international consensus on the proper management of pesticides Upgraded national legislation is needed to align national frameworks with international norms This text aims to provide governments wishing to design reform or update their national legislation with up to date advice on all aspects of pesticide management Although the recommendations for national legislative change are designed to be useful to all countries the text highlights the particular problems faced by developing countries and countries in transition offering practical solutions to common problems Also published in Spanish Development of an Analytical Tool to Assess National Biosecurity Legislation Daniele Manzella, Jessica Vapnek, 2007-01-01 Biosecurity aims to facilitate the implementation of international obligations related to international trade and the protection of human animal and plant life and health as well as the environment It looks at the coordination of sectoral regulatory authorities in order to manage biological risks for food and agriculture in an efficient and holistic manner Upgraded legislation is needed to align national laws to international standards and to enhance institutional coordination Countries require comprehensive and consistent national legal frameworks for Biosecurity in order to implement effective controls increase cost effectiveness and improve consistency across sectors Reviewing and assessing what legislation is in place is the first step toward implementing a Biosecurity approach It is not an easy exercise as the normative and functional components of Biosecurity are often found in a plethora of laws and regulations Based on the six pilot country studies this text develops an analytical methodology to review and assess national legal frameworks for Biosecurity Integrated Coastal Management Law Cormac Cullinan, 2006-01-01 Integrated coastal management ICM is widely accepted throughout the world as the best approach to dealing with coastal issues The 1990s saw a proliferation of legislative reform processes worldwide This aimed at supporting the implementation of ICM Despite many international environmental treaties declarations and other promises of action the quality of coastal environments continues to deteriorate while the demand for coastal resources has increased in most of the world This publication in its practical guidance will be especially valuable to anyone involved in the development drafting or implementation of a legal or institutional framework to promote ICM It is enhanced by illustrative examples from a range of countries that are at various stages of developing and implementing legislation to promote ICM Mountains and the
