Regional Integration In Africa Unfinished Agenda:

Regional Integration in Africa Peter Anyang' Nyong'o, 1990      Sovereignty as Responsibility Francis M. Deng, Sadikiel Kimaro, Terrence Lyons, 2010-12-01 The authors assert that sovereignty can no longer be seen as a protection against interference but as a charge of responsibility where the state is accountable to both domestic and external constituencies In internal conflicts in Africa sovereign states have often failed to take responsibility for their own citizens welfare and for the humanitarian consequences of conflict leaving the victims with no assistance This book shows how that responsibility can be exercised by states over their own population and by other states in assistance to their fellow sovereigns Sovereignty as Responsibility presents a framework that should guide both national governments and the international community in discharging their respective responsibilities Broad principles are developed by examining identity as a potential source of conflict governance as a matter of managing conflict and economics as a policy field for deterring conflict Considering conflict management political stability economic development and social welfare as functions of governance the authors develop strategies guidelines and roles for its responsible exercise Some African governments such as South Africa in the 1990s and Ghana since 1980 have demonstrated impressive gains against these standards while others such as Rwanda Somalia Liberia Nigeria and Sudan have failed Opportunities for making sovereignty more responsible and improving the management of conflicts are examined at the regional and international levels The lessons from the mixed successes of regional conflict management actions such as the West African intervention in Liberia the East African mediation in Sudan and international efforts to urge talks to end the conflict in Angola indicate friends and neighbors outside the state in conflict have important roles to play in increasing sovereign responsibility Approaching conflict management from the perspective of the responsibilities of sovereignt      Africa in World Politics Guy Martin, 2002 This book examines the key aspects of Africa s external relations and reviews the various political security and economic strategies through which independent African states have tried to enhance their power and status in the world The author analyses the ideology of Eurafrica as well as Europe s evolving relationship with Africa while also assessing the prospects for African regional integration in the context of Pan Africanism      Pan Africanism, Regional Integration and Development in Africa Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, 2020-03-10 This edited volume addresses the accomplishments prospects and challenges of regional integration processes on the African continent Since regional integration is a process that ebbs and flows according to a wide range of variables such as changing political and economic conditions implications and factors derived from the vagaries of migration and climate change it is crucial to be cognizant with how these variables impact regional integration initiatives The contributors discuss the debates on Pan Africanism and linking it with ongoing discourses and policies on regional integration in Africa Other aspects of the book contain some of the most important topic issues such as migration border management and the sustainable development goals This content offers readers fresh and innovative perspectives on various aspects of sustainable development and regional growth in Africa

Integration in Africa OECD, Asian Development Bank, 2002-04-25 Regional integration and co ordination are not a panacea but they could hold the key to African countries long awaited participation in the world economy This was one of the conclusions of the second International Forum on African Perspectives

Globalized Africa: Political, Social and Economic Impact A. Ninsin, 2012-12-27 Is globalization beneficial to Africa Does it open infinite opportunities for economic growth development and social transformation of the continent It is the assertion of contributions to this collection that for Africa globalisation is a counter revolutionary movement that is stalling the drive of the continent s societies to transform themselves into developed and prosperous entities just as slavery and colonialism Included are contributions from eminent scholars such as Samir Amin Horace Campbell Thandika Mkandawire and Cyril Obi

Flexible Regional Economic Integration in Africa Timothy Masiko, 2022-04-21 This book examines the relationship between flexible regional economic integration in the East African Community EAC through its application of variable geometry and the establishment of the African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA as a continent wide form of integration It uses a historical political legal and economic analysis of the processes that led to the adoption of flexible regional integration in Africa with particular regard to the EAC This takes place in the inescapable context of pan Africanism showing how regional integration efforts in Africa are based on pan Africanist ideals and how an evolution of these ideals has led to an evolution in the goals of integration With growing awareness of the weaknesses and impracticality of consensus based decision making on a global level it makes the case for the pursuit of flexibility in multilateral trade drawing lessons from the experience of the AfCFTA and blocs in other regions This book is a historical evaluation of regional economic integration efforts in Africa and it follows the path of attempts to integrate the economies on the continent from colonial times to the birth of the AfCFTA While it is a study in law it relies heavily on politics economics and history to weave together a more complete theory of economic integration based on the African experience Flexible Regional Economic Integration in Africa was awarded the 2020 SIEL Hart Prize in International Economic Law

Regional Integration, Identity & Citizenship in the Greater Horn of Africa Kidane Mengisteab, Redie Bereketeab, 2012 Examines how regional integration can resolve the crises of the Greater Horn of Africa exploring how it can be used as a mechanism for conflict resolution promoting the economy and tackling issues of identity and citizenship The Greater Horn of Africa GHA is engulfed by three interrelated crises various inter state wars civil wars and inter communal conflicts an economic crisis manifested in widespread debilitating poverty chronic food insecurity and famines and environmental degradation that is ravaging the region While it is apparent that the countries of the region are unlikely to be able to deal with the crises individually there is consensus that their chances of doing so improve markedly with collective regional action The contributors to this volume address the need for regional integration in the GHA They identify those factors that can foster integration such as the proper management of equitable citizenship rights as well as examining those that impede it including the region's largely ineffective integration scheme IGAD and explore how the former can be strengthened and the latter transformed explain how regional integration can mitigate the conflicts and examine how integration can help to energise the region's economy Kidane Mengisteab is Professor of African Studies and Political Science at Penn State University Redie Bereketeab is a researcher at the Nordic Africa Institute Sweden

Regionalism and Africa's Development S.K.B. Asante, 2016-07-27 A critical appraisal of regionalism as a key strategy in Africa's development explaining the failures thus far of attempts at regional integration on the continent This is the first text to highlight the main features of the new post 1990 regional initiatives such as the all embracing African Economic Community and World Bank IMF African Development Bank EC and French initiatives and the challenges to Africa from trading blocs elsewhere in the post Uruguay Round environment Africa's Unfinished Agenda Frene Noshir Ginwala, 2006

Region-Building in Africa Daniel H. Levine, Dawn Nagar, 2016-05-19 This landmark book is the first of its kind to assess the challenges of African region building and regional integration across all five African sub regions and more than five decades of experience considering both political and economic aspects Leading scholars and practitioners come together to analyze a range of entwined topics including the theoretical underpinnings that have informed Africa's regional integration trajectory the political economy of integration including the sources of different waves of integration in pan Africanism and the reaction to neo liberal economic pressures the complexities of integration in a context of weak states and the informal regionalization that often occurs in borderlands the increasing salience of Africa's relationships with rising extra regional economic powers including China and India and comparative lessons from non African regional blocs including the EU ASEAN and the Southern Common Market A core argument of this book running through all chapters is that region building must be recognized as a political project as much as if not more than an economic one successful region building in Africa will need to include the complex political tasks of strengthening state capacity including states capacity as developmental states that can actively engage in economic planning resolving long standing conflicts over resources and political dominance improving democratic governance and developing trans national political structures that are legitimate and inclusive

Prospects for Regional Integration in Africa Andreas Freytag, Abena D. Oduro, African integration has had a long history dating back to the end of colonization in the 1960s It has generated enormous interest in recent years not least because the continent has recently taken some bold steps to integrate further such as the Tripartite Free Trade Area or the creation of the African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA With this book we offer an innovative perspective on African integration By inviting mostly young African scholars from different disciplines in the social sciences and humanities we make African voices audible and start a discussion of the African integration efforts from an African perspective using novel criteria to judge different African integration attempts In addition to the younger generation's representatives we also invited scholars from Europe and Latin America to bring other continents perspectives to the fore Politics and Pan-Africanism Dawn

Nagar, 2019-12-12 Offering an examination of the diplomatic and economic regional power structures in Africa and their relationships with each other Dawn Nagar discusses the potential and future of pan Africanism The three primary regional economic communities RECs that are recognised by the African Union as the key building blocks of a united Africa are examined these are the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA the East African Community EAC and the Southern African Development Community SADC These RECS include Africa's major economies Egypt South Africa and Kenya but are also home to Africa's most conflict prone and volatile states the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC Burundi South Sudan Somalia and Lesotho Providing a detailed overview of the current relationship between these power blocs this book provides insight into the current state of diplomatic and economic relations within Africa and shows how far there is to go for a future of Pan Africanism West African Studies Regional Challenges of West African Migration African and European Perspectives OECD, Sahel and West Africa Club, 2009-03-23 This publication presents contributions by international experts on various aspects of West African migration The African Union and New Strategies for Development in Africa Said Adejumobi, Adebayo O. Olukoshi, 2008 The early twenty first century witnessed remarkable attempts by Africa's political leadership to promote regional integration as a means of fast tracking economic progress facilitating peace and security consolidating democratic gains and promoting the general welfare of the African people The transition of the Organization of Unity OAU to the African Union AU as well as the foisting of a new economic blueprint for the continent the New Partnership for Africa's Development NEPAD combined with the growing role of the regional economic communities RECs in harmonizing and creating subregional norms and standards in the political and economic arena suggests a new trend towards regionalism in Africa Indeed in the new regional integration architecture the RECs are considered to be the building blocks of the integration process led by the African Union This new impetus of a regional development strategy was largely prompted by the slow pace of economic progress on the continent the increasing marginalization of Africa in the global economy and the need to create regional resources and standards that would benefit the continent in all spheres of social life A painful realization became obvious that small micro states in Africa sticking to their political independence and sovereignty would hardly make much progress in an increasingly globalised world A macro states approach of regional integration has assumed Africa's new strategy to intervene in and integrate with a globalizing world The current regional trend in Africa has received very little scholarly attention especially in a systematic and comprehensive way This is due partly to the fact that the processes are currently unfolding and there is still uncertainty in the outcomes Poor documentation and the dearth of primary materials especially from the regional institutions also contribute to the lack of scholarly work in this area This study assembles the voices of some of the most seasoned African and Africanist scholars who have constantly in one way or another interacted with the integration process in Africa and kept abreast of the developments therein and seeks to capture those developments in a nuanced manner in the economic political and social spheres The essence of this book is to analyze those processes teasing out the issues problems challenges and major policy recommendations with tentative conclusions on Africa s regional development trajectory The book therefore fills major knowledge and policy gaps in Africa s regional development agenda This book is a landmark contribution in a systematic attempt to comprehend Africa s regional development strategy led by the African Union It examines the background nuances and dimensions of the process which include the basis and historiography of pan Africanism the transition of the OAU to the AU the issue of popular participation in development the NEPAD and APRM initiatives the evolving regional peace and security architecture and the efforts of regional institutions to facilitate democracy human rights rule of law and good governance on the continent The book underscores the fact that formidable obstacles and challenges abound in the trajectory politics and processes of this regional development paradigm especially as Africa navigates an uncertain future in a deeply divided and unequal yet globalised World The book constitutes a major reference material and compendium for a wide range of readers students and scholars of African affairs and African development policy makers both in Africa and the western countries regional and international institutions and organizations and all those interested in the past present and future of Africa s development process

Conflict and Peacebuilding in the African Great Lakes Region Kenneth

Omeje,Tricia Redeker Hepner,2013-06-19 Driven by genocide civil war political instabilities ethnic and pastoral hostilities the African Great Lakes Region primarily Uganda Rwanda Democratic Republic of the Congo and Burundi has been overwhelmingly defined by conflict Kenneth Omeje Tricia Redeker Hepner and an international group of scholars many from the Great Lakes region focus on the interlocking conflicts and efforts toward peace in this multidisciplinary volume These essays present a range of debates and perspectives on the history and politics of conflict highlighting the complex internal and external sources of both persistent tension and creative peacebuilding Taken together the essays illustrate that no single perspective or approach can adequately capture the dynamics of conflict or offer successful strategies for sustainable peace in the region

Regionalization and Security in Southern Africa N. Poku,2001-02-02 Once torn by ideological conflicts and the dominance of command economies Southern Africa is now moving towards economic liberalism and openness In general the ascendancy of market economics is acknowledged by its governments albeit with different degrees of enthusiasm Theoretically rich and empirically engaging this timely book offers a critical insight into the ensuing debate on regionalism and the process of regionalization in southern Africa

Popular Participation in the Integration of the East African Community Korwa Gombe Adar,Kasaija Phillip Apuuli,Agnes Lucy Lando,PLO-Lumumba,,Juliana Masabo,2020-03-09 The post independence integration endeavor of the East African Community has been punctuated with challenges culminating into the collapse of the 1967 1977 regional organization The renaissance of the integration agenda since the re establishment of the regional organization in 1999 has rekindled epistemological debate among scholars and practitioners on the East African Community raison d etre and integration process This volume is the first of its kind in this ongoing debate that puts into proper context the nexus between the East African citizens and the integration agenda Focusing on the Partner States case studies the authors of the chapters operationalize the concepts of popular participation eastafricanness eastafricanization democratization and integration Using political national constitutions and EAC treaty communication and awareness dimensions the authors of the chapters have analyzed the nexus between the EACcitizens and the integration process The study generally proceeds from the premise that the exclusion of the EAC citizens from exercising their sovereign rights through popular participation undermines the prospects for the institutionalization and consolidation of the EAC identity eastafricanness eastafricanization democratization and integration
