The Political Economy of Regionalism F. Söderbaum, 2004-10-29 The Political Economy of Regionalism The Case of Southern Africa challenges prevailing wisdom showing how ruling political elites and big business join forces with certain external actors in order to promote market integration and economic globalization boost regimes and to satisfy group specific and even personal interests Only rarely do these forms of regionalism contribute to the poor and disadvantaged who instead opt out and survive through informal economic regionalisms or seek to create regionalisms rooted in civil society

The New Regionalism in Africa Fredrik Söderbaum, 2017-03-02 This edited volume transcends conventional state centric and formalistic notions of regionalism and theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the complexities and contradictions of regionalization processes in contemporary Africa The collection not only unpacks and theorizes the African state society complex with regard to new regionalism but also explicitly integrates the often neglected discourse of human security and human development In so doing the book moves the discussion of new regionalism forward at the same time as it adds important insights to security and development

It is organized into three parts Part I theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of the region e g West East Central and Southern Africa The national perspectives in Part II focus on the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of particular countries or specific state society complexes such as Kenya the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC the enclave of Cabinda Angola and Zambia Part III contains two concluding chapters that tie the main threads of the volume together theoretically and empirically and discuss the contribution of the analytical framework the new regionalism approach NRA to the larger study of regionalism

The New Politics of Regionalism Ulf Engel, Heidrun Zinecker, Frank Mattheis, Antje Dietze, Thomas Plötze, 2016-10-04 This edited volume approaches regionalism as one potential pattern in a changing global order Since the end of the Cold War different forms of territorialization have emerged and we are confronted with an increasing number and variety of actors that are establishing regional projects This volume offers an innovative contribution to the study of this new complexity by exploring constellations of regional actors spatial scales and imaginations beyond state centred perspectives as well as on multiple often overlapping levels The chapters analyse the emergence trajectories and outcomes of regionalisms from the perspective of the Global South specifically concentrating on regional projects in Latin America and Africa but also in the Asia Pacific They attempt to identify the specific conditions and junctures of different forms of region making in their external global and internal local national dimensions The volume also places special emphasis on interactions spatial entanglements and comparisons between regionalisms in different parts of the world By expanding beyond the perspective of North South transfers this book seeks to better understand the dynamics and diversity of interregional interactions This volume will appeal to scholars of global studies international political economy international relations human geography and development studies as well as area studies specialists who focus on Latin America and Africa

New Regionalism and the European Union Alex Warleigh-Lack, Nick Robinson, Ben Rosamond, 2011-06-01 The debates on regionalism have been polarized between European Union EU scholars and non EU scholars with the assumption being that regionalism within the EU and other regions of the world are quite distinct with little to be learnt from dialogue with each other This book challenges such assumptions and calls for a genuine debate between scholars of regionalism This book demonstrates that more can and needs to be learned about regional integration all over the world through comparison and reflection on specific regional trends Beginning with a theoretically driven introduction leading experts in the field are brought together to offer a series of case studies on regional integration within Latin America Africa Asia North America and Europe In Part III the authors investigate the links between the EU and selected other regional organisations and processes exploring the dynamics through which these interregional relations are developing and the implications they have for the study of contemporary regionalism regionalisation both inside and beyond the continent of Europe The conclusions set out a challenging research agenda for comparative studies in the field Addressing one of the under explored aspects of EU studies the EU's coexistence with other pan continental regional organisations in the European continent this book will be of interest to students and scholars of regionalism IPE European Studies and international politics

Contemporary South Africa and the Political Economy of Regional Development Methembe Mdlalose, Isaac

Khambule, Nene Ernest Khalema, 2025-02-21 South Africa's struggle in balancing its domestic needs while playing a dynamic developmental role in the African region and global context exposes a complex web of relations shaped by its geostrategic location on the continent and the world and the staggering legacies of colonialism and apartheid As such understanding the complexities of the global economy and of South Africa's place in it is of great importance This book builds upon an existing body of literature which has demonstrated that while the post apartheid South African state has recast its nation building goals with advances having been made notably in the area of a stellar post apartheid constitution policy directives and democratic political integration economic integration and policy implementation presents a projection of captured interests where big business concerns are entrenched in the post apartheid state's apparent neo liberal turn The main focus of the book is to contextualise issues relating to three main trends in global discourses on development which are significant for South Africa and indeed for the study of the political economy of regional development in the country from the prism of South Africa as a global capitalist state These trends include the impact of globalisation regionalisation and the marginalisation of South Africa and indeed the African continent in the global economy thus unpacking the possible role that South Africa might play in regional development This volume will be a valuable resource to academics researchers and students in the fields of regional studies economics and political theory as well as policymakers planners and local economic development practitioners

Rethinking Regionalism Fredrik Söderbaum, 2017-10-25 Since the late 1980s there has been a global upsurge of various forms of regionalist projects The widening and deepening of the European Union EU is the most prominent example but there has also been a revitalization or expansion of many other regionalist projects as well such as the African Union AU the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA and the Southern Common Market Mercosur More or less every government in the world is engaged in regionalism which also involves a rich variety of business and civil society actors resulting in a multitude of regional processes in most fields of contemporary politics In this new text Fredrik Söderbaum draws on decades of scholarship to provide a major reassessment of regionalism and to address questions about its origins logic and consequences By examining regionalism from historical spatial comparative and global perspectives Rethinking Regionalism transcends the deep intellectual and disciplinary rivalries that have limited our knowledge about the subject This broad ranging approach enables new and challenging answers to emerge as to why and how regionalism evolves and consolidates how it can be compared and what its ongoing significance is for a host of issues within global politics from security and trade to development and the environment Retaining a balanced and authoritative style throughout this text will be welcomed for its uniquely comprehensive examination of regionalism in the contemporary global age

Advancing East Asian Regionalism Melissa Curley, Nicholas

Thomas, 2012-10-12 Developments in East Asia have progressed rapidly in terms of regionalism since the 1997 crisis The end of the Asian miracle called into question not only the capacity of regional states to meet the needs of their attendant peoples

but also challenged the viability of regional organizations such as ASEAN to adapt and respond to the changing circumstances Advancing East Asian Regionalism looks at the ways in which ASEAN has expanded since the crisis and evaluates the potential of East Asia to come together in a regional formation one capable of representing the region as a whole akin to the European Community It draws upon the knowledge and perspectives of academics and policy makers actively engaged in the contradictory issues of regionalism Coupling case study material on regionalism institutions and sectoral cooperation with theoretical debates on regionalization this book is an invaluable resource that pushes our understanding of East Asian regionalism forward European Union and New Regionalism Mario Telò,2016-04-22

Stemming from an international and multidisciplinary network of leading specialists this best selling text is fully updated with new chapter additions With the first edition prepared at the end of the last century and the second edition adding inter regional relations this new edition focuses on competing models of regional cooperation within a multipolar world and the role of European Union This new edition offers A comparative analysis of regional cooperation and of both US centred and EU centred interregionalism A fresh exploration of key issues of regionalism versus globalization and the potential for world economic and political governance through regional cooperation notably in hard times A vigorous response to conventional wisdom on the controversial EU international identity An appendix on regional and interregional organizations A key resource for postgraduate or undergraduate study and research of international relations European integration studies comparative politics and international political economy Taking into account both the expanded European Union and regional cooperation in every continent this multidisciplinary volume comprises contributions from established scholars in the field A Gamble P Padoan G Joff G Therborn Th Meyer R Higgott B Hettne F Ponjaert F Soederbaum Ch Deblock K Eliassen A Arnottir S Keukeleire I Petrova S Santander and M Tel editor Regionalisation and Global Governance Andrew F. Cooper,Christopher W. Hughes,Philippe De Lombaerde,2007-12-21

The relationship between global governance and regionalization is fraught with ambiguity Understanding regionalization in this context requires an understanding of its relationship and reactive condition with both the constellations of global governance and globalization This book presents an overview and explores the distinctive but intersecting trajectories of regionalization and global governance It surveys the theoretical debates the economic dimensions multinationals trade and investment and labour the security considerations armed conflict conflict prevention and peacekeeping and non traditional security in Asia the governing structures managing contemporary multilevel architecture and cultural policy leadership and the L 20 The expert and multi disciplinary editors and contributors survey the context as well as the general character of these projects together with their links as both parallel mediating mechanisms and distinctive choices for interjecting governance into globalization Examining these projects in tandem amplifies their importance and enables the contributors to tease out coincidental as well as alternative possibilities in policy direction This book will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations area studies

The Geopolitics of Regional Power Sören Scholvin, 2016-03-09 In the last two decades various states from the Global South have emerged as important players in international relations Most popular among them is China Brazil India and South Africa have also taken essential roles in global and regional politics Compared to traditional great powers they can be labelled regional great powers or regional powers because their influence is with the exception of China concentrated on their neighbourhood The impact of regions meaning the impact of geography on the economics and politics of regional powers is surprisingly understudied This book analyses how geographical conditions influence the regional economics and politics of South Africa allowing the author to delineate its region of influence Linking the Formal and Informal

Economy Basudeb Guha-Khasnobis, Ravi Kanbur, Elinor Ostrom, 2006-09-21 A collection of studies on formality and informality in developing countries this volume contains contributions from anthropologists economists sociologists and political scientists It argues for moving beyond the formal informal dichotomy and offers information to develop guiding principles for intervention The European Union and Global Governance Dr Jens-Uwe Wunderlich, David J.

Bailey, 2010-12-14 The European Union and Global Governance A Handbook aims to analyse contemporary debates in European Studies in order to provide lessons for the development design and normative evaluation of global governance It brings together scholars of European studies and international relations where much of the literature on regional and global governance is located thereby providing interdisciplinary lessons from the study of European Union and its governance that can be used to re evaluate processes of global governance Each chapter examines methodological theoretical or empirical discussions within European studies in order to draw insights for current developments in global governance

Transnational Activities of Women-Focused Civil Society Actors in Southern Africa Cecilia Lwiindi Nedziwe, Oluwaseun Tella, 2023-06-30 This book focuses on southern Africa by engaging with norms from various perspectives and how they have proliferated within a neo liberalising context since the 1990s It particularly examines gender norms in relation to agency influence and their impact Despite growing transnational activities regional studies analyses have so far maintained a primarily linear logic not incorporative of the increasing interface between state and non state regionalism in a transnational context since the advent of liberalisation and democratisation Increasing non state activities and their connection to state processes involved in norm creation adaptation diffusion and implementation around broad questions of security including gender security amount to regional thickening The book s analytical approach is informed by alternatives to mainstream approaches emphasising processes rather than linearity inherent in regional international relations studies The research reveals that transnational activities and regionalisation of gender and women focused civil society actors are critical for advocacy and diverse representation within intergovernmental policymaking structures at the regional scale

North-South Regional Trade Agreements as Legal Regimes Clair Gammage, 2017-05-26 This book offers a critical reflection of the North South regional trade agreements RTAs known as the Economic Partnership Agreements negotiated between the EU and the African Caribbean and Pacific countries Conceiving of regions as legal regimes Clair Gammage highlights the challenges facing developing countries when negotiating RTAs with developed countries and interrogates the assumption that these agreements will and can promote sustainable development through trade Comparative Regional Integration Finn Laursen, 2016-12-05 This volume features up to date studies of regional integration efforts in all major parts of the world especially North America South America and East Asia Comparisons are drawn between these efforts and those made in the EU where integration has progressed much further The book asks what explains the variation in achievements What kind of agreements and institutions are needed to produce regional integration Is pooling and delegation of sovereignty necessary to overcome collective action problems How important is regional leadership This work is a major new contribution to the literature on regional integration and will appeal to theorists policymakers students and other readers concerned about world developments It will also be of value to courses covering international political economy international relations and regional integration at both undergraduate and graduate level
