Regionalization In A Globalizing World A Comparative Perspective On Forms Actors And Processes:

Regionalization in a Globalizing World Michael Schulz, Fredrik Soderbaum, Joakim Öjendal, 2001-05 The emerging role of regional systems of relations is an important feature of the new global politics While the European Union is the most advanced case most other parts of the world display at least the beginnings of regional systems Using a multidisciplinary approach the contributors examine these processes from a comparative perspective concentrating on the following questions what constitute a region how is the historical process of region formation unfolding what motives and factors underlie this drive to regionalisation what forms a regional awareness and institutionalisation are emerging and where what are the future prospects Globalising the Regional, Regionalising the Global: Volume 35, Review of International Studies Rick Fawn, 2009-04-30 A collection of leading international scholars examine the concept of regions from a range of perspectives and assess leading contemporary examples Regionalisation and Global Governance Andrew F. Cooper, Christopher W. Hughes, Philippe De Lombaerde, 2007-12-21 The relationship between global governance and regionalization is fraught with ambiguity Understanding regionalization in this context requires an understanding of its relationship and reactive condition with both the constellations of global governance and globalization This book presents an overview and explores the distinctive but intersecting trajectories of regionalization and global governance It surveys the theoretical debates the economic dimensions multinationals trade and investment and labour the security considerations armed conflict conflict prevention and peacekeeping and non traditional security in Asia the governing structures managing contemporary multilevel architecture and cultural policy leadership and the L 20 The expert and multi disciplinary editors and contributors survey the context as well as the general character of these projects together with their links as both parallel mediating mechanisms and distinctive choices for interjecting governance into globalization Examining these projects in tandem amplifies their importance and enables the contributors to tease out coincidental as well as alternative possibilities in policy direction This book will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations area studies international economics international political economy political science public administration and development studies The New Regionalism in Africa Fredrik Söderbaum, 2017-03-02 This edited volume transcends conventional state centric and formalistic notions of regionalism and theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the complexities and contradictions of regionalization processes in contemporary Africa The collection not only unpacks and theorizes the African state society complex with regard to new regionalism but also explicitly integrates the often neglected discourse of human security and human development In so doing the book moves the discussion of new regionalism forward at the same time as it adds important insights to security and development It is organized into three parts Part I theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of the region e g West East Central and Southern Africa The national perspectives in Part II focus on the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of particular countries or specific state society complexes such as Kenya

the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC the enclave of Cabinda Angola and Zambia Part III contains two concluding chapters that tie the main threads of the volume together theoretically and empirically and discuss the contribution of the analytical framework the new regionalism approach NRA to the larger study of regionalism Globalization, Regionalization and Cross-Border Regions M. Perkmann, N. Sum, 2002-07-12 Cross border regions are newly emerging social spaces stretching across national borders Globalization makes national borders more permeable and leads to a rearrangement of economic and political interactions This is particularly pronounced within supra regional blocs featuring specific internal border regimes The ensuing opportunities are increasingly seized to create border spanning discourses and institutions This is illustrated in the book by a range of experts analyzing cross border regions in Europe America East Asia and Africa Brazil, the United States, and the South American Subsystem Carlos Gustavo Poggio

Teixeira, 2012-07-30 The United States has often acted as an empire in Latin America Nevertheless there has been an obvious dissimilarity between U S actions in South America and U S actions in the rest of Latin America which is illustrated by the fact that the United States never sent troops to invade a South American country While geographic distance and strategic considerations may have played a role they provide at best incomplete explanations for the U S s relative absence south of Panama The fact that the United States has had a distinct pattern of interactions with South America is thus not captured by the typical concept of Latin America In Brazil the United States and the South American Subsystem Regional Politics and the Absent Empire Carlos Gustavo Poggio Teixeira recuperates the virtually neglected literature on regional subsystems In so doing Teixeira maintains that researchers of inter American relations would greatly benefit from a characterization reflecting actual regional realities more than entrenched preconceptions Such a characterization involves subdividing the Western Hemisphere in two regional subsystems North and South America This subdivision allows for uncovering regional dynamics that can help explain the U S s limited interference in South American affairs compared to the rest of Latin America This book argues that the role of Brazil as a status quo regional power in South America is the key to understanding this phenomenon Through a historical analysis focusing on specific cases spanning three centuries this research demonstrates that Brazil regardless of particular domestic settings has deliberately affected the calculations of costs and benefits of a more significant US involvement in South America While in the past Brazil has taken actions that resulted in increasing the benefits of the U S s limited involvement in South America in more recent times it has sought to increase the costs of a more significant U S presence Teixeira then considers some of the theoretical and political implications of the framework laid out by this research Brazil the United States and the South American Subsystem is a groundbreaking investigation of U S Latin American relations and the politics of imperialism The Theoretical and Practical Dimensions of Regionalism in East Asia Karolina Klecha-Tylec, 2016-11-29 This book provides a comprehensive overview of developments in East Asian regionalism combining qualitative evidence with empirical quantitative analysis It argues that two dominant processes have formed East

Asian regionalism 1 regionalization and 2 inter regionalism Klecha Tylec examines the differences between traditional and new regionalisms as they apply to East Asia the differences between East Asian and European regionalism the role of the United States in shaping regional links and the evolution of the three key structures of ASEAN ASEAN 3 and Asia Summits The book is unique for examining together the network zonal and geospatial dimensions of relations in East Asia as they apply at micro regional sub regional macro regional trans regional and inter regional levels The book offers a detailed analysis of intra regional links and the hybrid relationships between micro regions and nation states Regionalism,

Globalisation and International Order Jens-Uwe Wunderlich, 2016-03-23 New regionalism and globalization have been prominent themes in academic and political debates since the beginning of the 1990s Despite the considerable amount of scholarly attention that the new regionalism has received in recent years its full empirical and theoretical potential has yet to be fully investigated This illuminating study provides an overview of new avenues in theorizing regionalism and proposes a consolidated framework for analysis and comparison Offering a comparative historical perspective of European and Southeast Asian regionalism it presents new and imaginative insights into the theory and practice of regionalism and the links between regional developments globalization and international order Security and International Law Mary E

Footer, Julia Schmidt, Nigel D White, Lydia Davies-Bright, 2016-06-16 Of the many challenges that society faces today possibly none is more acute than the security of ordinary citizens when faced with a variety of natural or man made disasters arising from climate and geological catastrophes including the depletion of natural resources environmental degradation food shortages terrorism breaches of personal security and human security or even the global economic crisis States continue to be faced with a range of security issues arising from contested territorial spaces military and maritime security and security threats relating to energy infrastructure and the delivery of essential services The theme of the book encompasses issues of human political military socio economic environmental and energy security and raises two main questions To what extent can international law address the types of natural and man made security risks and challenges that threaten our livelihood or very existence in the twenty first century Where does international law fall short in meeting the problems that arise in different situations of insecurity and how should such shortcomings be addressed Ageing and Globalisation Martin

Hyde, Paul Higgs, 2016-07-06 Two of the most unprecedented transformations in the history of human social and economic life are currently underway One globalization is the subject of extensive media coverage and scholarly analysis Relatively ignored however is the other one the overall aging of the world s population This book offers the first in depth look at the two forces in tandem showing the many ways in which they interact and affect each other and helping us for the first time to grasp the implications of both This comprehensive introduction to globalization for gerontologists is part of the Ageing in a Global Context series published in association with the British Society of Gerontology The Dynamics of Black Sea

Subregionalism Panagiota Manoli, 2016-03-23 Conflict and cooperation are two dynamics that have shaped the political economy and international relations around the Black Sea since the early nineties Despite the negative structural environment and the persistence of a high security dilemma cooperative efforts among Black Sea actors primarily state elites but increasingly non state actors have been advancing even though slowly Representing a new development in the study of contemporary regionalism Panagiota Manoli examines the process of institutionalized subregional cooperation and casts new light on the factors influencing the reconfiguration of subregional structures in the region Focusing on the primary initiative in the region Black Sea Economic Cooperation BSEC Manoli traces how subregionalism has evolved since the early nineties and what has been driving and conditioning this process Questioning whether there is a definitive nature to subregionalism Manoli then discusses Black Sea subregionalism within the European integration process examining the impact of the European Union Contributing to the conceptualization of the subregional phenomenon this book should be read by scholars and policy makers alike unclear on how local elements interface with extra regional forces in the shaping of a subregion

Region-building Ludger Kühnhardt, 2010-07-01 After two centuries of nation building the world has entered an era of region building in search of political stability cultural cohesion and socio economic development Nations involved in the regional structures and integration schemes that are emerging in most regions of the world are deepening their ambitions with Europe's integration experience often used as an experimental template or theoretical model Volume I provides a political analytical framework for recognizing the central role of the European Union not only as a conceptual model but also a normative engine in the global proliferation of regional integration It also gives a comprehensive treatment of the focus motives and objectives of non European integration efforts Volume II offers a unique collection of documents that give the best available overview of the legal and political evolution of region building based on official documents and stated objectives of the relevant regional groupings across all continents Together these volumes are important contributions for understanding the evolution of global affairs in an age when power shifts provide new challenges and opportunities for transatlantic partners and the world community

World Politics Jeffrey Haynes, Peter Hough, Shahin Malik, Lloyd Pettiford, 2017-03-20 Praised for achieving significant breadth and depth of coverage of all the key themes of IR this introduction is also full of a range of features and techniques including a wide range of contemporary case studies and reflection boxes to help students become adept at the subject quickly and easily

Ending Africa's Energy Deficit and the Law Yinka Omorogbe, Ada Ordor, 2018-02-22 With the inclusion of access to energy in the sustainable development goals the role of energy to human existence was finally recognized Yet in Africa this achievement is far from realized Omorogbe and Ordor bring together experts in their fields to ask what is stalling progress examining problems from institutions catering to vested interests at the continent's expense to a need to develop vigorous financial and fiscal frameworks The ramifications and complications of energy law are labyrinthine this volume discusses how energy deficits can burden disabled people women and children in excess of their more fortunate counterparts as well as considering environmental issues including the delicate balance between the necessity of water for drinking and cleaning and the use of water in industrial processes A pivotal work of scholarship the book poses pressing questions for energy law and international human rights

Roads to Regionalism Tanja A. Börzel, Lukas Goltermann, Kai Striebinger, 2016-04-08 Over the past few decades states all around the globe have intensified institutionalized cooperation at the regional level To deepen our understanding of state led regionalism the authors use an analytical framework comprising four main strands First they describe and explain the genesis and growth of regional organizations Second they account for institutional design looking at important similarities and differences Third they examine the interaction between organizations and member states in an attempt to reveal factors that shape the level of commitment to and compliance with regional initiatives Finally they consider the impact of regional organizations on their member states They conclude by providing a foundation for future research on the dynamic development of regionalism

Regionalism and Regional Security in South Asia Zahid Shahab Ahmed, 2016-04-08 Zahid Shahab Ahmed evaluates the progress of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC This study goes beyond economic integration to present a detailed appraisal of cooperation under the overarching themes of economic cooperation environmental security human welfare and cooperation in security matters According to the author SAARC is making progress in addressing the myriad of issues on its agenda The transition from agreements to actions and frequent interactions among the member states has boosted confidence The progress of SAARC is more evident in the less controversial areas of human security such as poverty alleviation health and safety human resources development and higher education Notwithstanding enthusiastic commitments reflected in agreements and action plans there is a gulf between rhetoric and implementation most notably in sensitive areas relating to traditional security In the light of the findings of this study the author proposes that greater cooperation in common human security areas has a potential to pave the way for a cooperation on issues of a contentious nature particularly terrorism

Integration in the Southern African Development Community Region Korwa Gombe Adar,Kebapetse Lotshwao,Thekiso Molokwane,Dorothy Mpabanga,Norbert Musekiwa,2023-01-17 Integration in the Southern African Development Community Region Peoples Agency Popular Participation and Democratization edited by Korwa Gombe Adar Dorothy Mpabanga Kebapetse Lotshwao Thekiso Molokwane and Norbert Musekiwa engages in the debate associated with the people of Southern Africa people of the Region democratization and integration nexus envisaged in the 1980 treaty which established the Southern African Development Community SADC Using political and public administration perspectives the editors argue that for democratization and integration to be tangibly consolidated and institutionalized direct involvement of the people of Southern Africa the peoples agency is paramount and would lead to what is dubbed in this book as sadcnness and sadcnization More specifically democratization and integration are about people citizens the sovereigns and not merely the abstract actors called nation states Using the case studies of Angola Botswana Madagascar Mozambique South Africa and Zimbabwe the contributors have from political and public administration dimensions engaged in this epistemology assessing among other things the peoples of Southern Africa the Southern Africa Development Community integration nexus The East Asian Peace M. Weissmann,2012-06-12 Using a case study based approach Weissmann analyses the post Cold War East Asian security setting to demonstrate why there is a paradoxical inter state peace He points out processes that have been important for the creation of a continuing relative peace in East Asia as well as conflict prevention and peacebuilding mechanisms
