Worp, 1979 Chronological Systems of Byzantine Egypt: Second Edition Roger Shaler Bagnall, K. A. Worp, 2004 Egypt is the richest source of primary documents for the society of late antiquity Its thousands of papyri provide insight into everyday life and topics ignored by ancient authors This handbook is an indispensable tool in navigating these documents Settling a Dispute Traianos Gagos, 1994 Family squabbles and fights over real estate were no less complex in sixth century Egypt than they are in the modern world In this unusual volume Peter van Minnen and Traianos Gagos investigate just such a struggle as described in a two part papyrus some five feet long Composed by the ancient equivalent of a notary public the papyrus describes the outcome after mediation of a family dispute about valuable real estate Traianos Gagos and Peter van Minnen offer an English translation and a clear Greek text of the two papyrus fragments as well as an important discussion of the nature of such mediation its role in contemporary society a consideration of the town of Aphrodito and its social and political elite as well as many other topics that spring from this kind of document The use of methodologies from modern jurisprudence and anthropology together with an accessible style of writing mean that Settling a Dispute will be of interest to persons in many fields including history Classics and Near Eastern studies All Greek is translated and an extensive commentary offers much helpful information on the text Traianos Gagos is Associate Archivist of the University of Michigan's papyri collection Peter van Minnen is Senior Research Associate in the papyri collection at Duke University New Documents Illustrating Early Christianity, 3 G. Bagnall, 2003-09-02 The ancient Mediterranean world brought to us by Herodotus Thucydides and Tacitus is one of politics war and the power elite of Greece and Rome There was another ancient world in which ordinary people made a living sold land ran their towns and sued one another This is the world that the papyri bring to life this book is about how they do so Reading Papyri Writing Ancient History demonstrates how historians can put together information from scattered and often badly damaged documents to build up a picture of the society economy and culture of the multicultural world of antiquity Through discussion of contemporary historical work on the documents Roger Bagnall scrutinises alternative ways of approaching these sources He shows how the ancient historian can use the methodologies of anthropology comparative history and statistics alongside more traditional tools to turn these texts into questions and answers Students and teachers of ancient history will find Reading Papyri Writing Ancient History an indispensable guide to using these ancient texts in their own work Astronomical Papyri from Oxyrhynchus Alexander Jones, 1999 Presents 200 hitherto unpub astronomical texts horoscopes written in Greek on papyrus which were excavated a century ago in the rubbish heaps of Oxyrhynchus a district capital of Roman Egypt Through these documents we obtain the first coherent picture of the range of astronomical activity chiefly in the service of astrology during the Roman Empire The astronomy of this period turns out to have been much more varied than we previously thought with Babylonian arithmetical methods of prediction coexisting with tables based on geometrical models of orbits Editions of the texts are accomp by facing translations explanatory philological commentaries The intro provides the first comprehensive treatment of astronomical papyri explaining their contents purpose the underlying astronomical theories strategies for analyzing dating them Tables graphs Constantine and Eusebius Timothy David Barnes, 1981 Here is the fullest available narrative history of the reigns of Diocletian and Constantine and a new assessment of the part Christianity played in the Roman world of the third and fourth centuries Papyri Bodleianae I R.P. the biblical the literary and documentary Greek and Latin papyri in strict shelf mark order The Journal of Egyptian Archaeology, 1984 Chronicles, Consuls, and Coins: Historiography and History in the Later Roman Empire

R.W. Burgess, 2023-05-31 The papers collected in this volume focus on the sources for reconstructing the history of the third to fifth centuries AD. The first section, Historiography, looks at a small group of chronicles and breviaria whose texts are fundamental for our reconstruction of the history of the third and fourth centuries: some well known, others much less so. Eusebius of Caesarea, Jerome, the lost Kaisergeschichte and Eutropius. In this section the goal in each case is a specific attempt to come to a better understanding of the structure, composition, date or author of these historical texts. The second section, History, presents a group of historical studies ranging in time from the death of Constantine in 337 to the vicennalia of Anastasius in 511. In these papers the keys to the conclusions offered arise from a better understanding of the literary sources, particularly chronicles and consularia; an understanding of the evolution of historical accounts over time or the employment of sources that are either new or unusual in these particular contexts: consular fasti, coins, papyri and itineraries.

An Introduction to Greek Epigraphy of the Hellenistic and Roman Periods from Alexander the Great Down to the Reign of Constantine (323 B.C.-A.D. 337) Bradley Hudson McLean, 2002. In short, this is a reference work of the best kind. For the beginner, it is indispensable. And for those who already know something about its subject matter, the book is in many ways useful, informative and interesting. We all owe a debt to the author for undertaking this significant project and for completing it so well. Michael Peachin, Classical World provides invaluable road maps for non epigraphers faced with passages of inscribed Greek. Graham Shipley, Bryn Mawr Classical Review. Greek inscriptions form a valuable resource for the study of all aspects of the Greco-Roman world. They are primary witnesses to society's laws and institutions, religious habits and language. This volume provides students with the tools to take advantage of the historical value of these treasures. It examines letter forms, ancient names and ancient calendars, knowledge of which is essential in reading inscriptions of all kinds. B. H. McLean discusses the classification of inscriptions into their various categories and analyzes particular types of inscriptions, including decrees, honorary inscriptions, dedications, funerary inscriptions and manumissions. Finally, McLean includes special topics that bear upon the interpretation of specific features of inscriptions, such as Greek and Roman administrative titles and functions.

Coptic Perspectives on Late Antiquity Leslie S.B. MacCoull, 2024-12-11. The transitions from Antiquity to the Middle Ages continue to demand explanation. In the case of Egypt, there is the added question of why the Coptic language died out following the Arab conquests. In these studies, Dr. MacCoull draws on the extensive papyrological evidence in both Coptic and Greek to explore the Egypt of the 6th-8th centuries: its culture, religion and society. One group of articles focuses on the figure of the lawyer-poet Dioscorus of Aphroditon; in others, she examines the adjustments made by Christian Egyptians as they became a minority under Muslim rule, as well as the methodologies of studying this society. Les différents passages de l'Antiquité au Moyen Âge nécessitent encore un certain nombre d'explications. Dans le cas de l'Égypte, s'ajoute la question de l' extinction de la langue copte la suite des conquêtes arabes Au cours de ces études le Dr MacCoull s'appuie sur l'abondante documentation papyrologique en langue grecque et copte afin d'explorer l'Égypte du 6^e au 8^e siècle sa culture sa religion et sa société Un groupe d'articles se concentre sur le personnage du poète juriste Dioscore d'Aphrodite d'ailleurs elle examine la façon dont les Chrétiens égyptiens se sont adaptés alors qu'ils devenaient une minorité sous l'empire des musulmans ainsi que la méthodologie relative l'étude de cette société

Hellenistic and Roman Egypt Roger S. Bagnall, 2024-12-11 This second collection by Roger Bagnall brings together a further two dozen of his studies this time covering Hellenistic Roman and Byzantine Egypt published over the last thirty years Many of the articles deal with issues of historical and papyrological method the restoration of papyrus texts the direction of archaeological work in Egypt economic models for Roman Egypt the usefulness of postcolonial theory and approaches to the defective literary tradition for the Library of Alexandria Others concentrate on particular bodies of evidence ranging from inscriptions to ascetic literature from registers to women's letters

Greek, Roman and Byzantine Studies, 1979 Egypt in Late Antiquity Roger S. Bagnall, 2021-05-11 This book brings together a vast amount of information pertaining to the society economy and culture of a province important to understanding the entire eastern part of the later Roman Empire Focusing on Egypt from the accession of Diocletian in 284 to the middle of the fifth century Roger Bagnall draws his evidence mainly from documentary and archaeological sources including the papyri that have been published over the last thirty years

The Christian Epigraphy of Egypt and Nubia Jacques van der Vliet, 2018-04-20 Collected Studies CS1070 The present book collects 31 articles that Jacques van der Vliet a leading scholar in the field of Coptic Studies Leiden University Radboud University Nijmegen has published since 1999 on Christian inscriptions from Egypt and Nubia These inscriptions are dated between the third fourth and the fourteenth centuries and are often written in Coptic and or Greek once in Latin and sometimes partly in Arabic Syriac or Old Nubian They include inscriptions on tomb stones walls of religious buildings tools vessels furniture amulets and even texts on luxury garments Whereas earlier scholars in the field of Coptic Studies often focused on either Coptic or Greek Van der Vliet argues that inscriptions in different languages that appear in the same space or on the same kind of objects should be examined together In addition he aims to combine the information from documentary texts archaeological remains and inscriptions in order to reconstruct the economic social and religious life of monastic or civil communities He practiced this methodology in his studies on the Fayum Wadi al Natrun Sohag Western Thebes and the region of Aswan and Northern Nubia which are all included in this book
