Belgrad,Nitza Nachmias,1997-06-30 The theories and case studies examined in this volume constitute a thorough study of foreign intervention in civil conflicts for the purpose of rendering humanitarian aid The classical paradigm of the ethics of intervention forbids the violation of territorial sovereignty Public international law and the UN charter also mandate nonintervention within the territorial boundaries of a state Nevertheless in recent years as a result of brutal civil conflicts and their violent and inhumane consequences as in Rwanda Bosnia and Cambodia international aid interventions have become an accepted practice Still international humanitarian aid involves unsettled controversial issues dilemmas concerning donors recipients and international organizations These issues as well as the concepts of sovereignty human rights coercive interventions and peacekeeping are critically evaluated in this volume which will be of interest to scholars and policymakers in international relations human rights and military affairs ARIC Bibliography ,1997 Wisconsin Public Documents ,1994
