Reinventing Modern Dublin:

Reinventing Modern Dublin Yvonne Whelan, 2003 Yvonne Whelan takes the reader from the contested iconography of Dublin as it evolved in the years before Independence through to the contemporary plans for the millennium spire on O Connell Street showing how a shift has taken place from an intensely political symbolic landscape to one that is increasingly apolitical in tune with the changing nature of Irish politics culture and society at the turn of the 21st century In her comprehensive discussion of how the streetscape has changed Whelan explores the capacity of the cultural landscape to underpin and reinforce particular narratives of identity and reveals the ways in which issues of street naming building designing and memorializing became firmly grounded in space and bound up with the politics of representation Incorporating many pictures maps and plans Reinventing Modern Dublin is a work of historical cultural and urban geography a valuable addition to the growing body of knowledge about Dublin s historical geography and Irish urbanism Reading the Royal Monument in Eighteenth-Century Europe Charlotte Chastel-Rousseau, 2017-07-05 Reading the Royal Monument in Eighteenth Century Europe is the first in depth study of the major role played by royal monuments in the public space of expanding cities across eighteenth century Europe Using the royal public statues as the basis for its examination of modern European cities the book considers the development of urban landscapes from the creation of capital cities to the last embers of the Ancien R me and at how the royal politics of the arts affected the cityscapes of the time The focus of the book thereby intersects across a spectrum of disciplines including the social and architectural history of cities the politics of urban planning the history of monumental sculpture and the material culture of the eighteenth century Place Naming,

Monumental Space in the Post-Imperial Novel Rita

Sakr, 2011-12-01 There has been a proliferation in recent scholarship of studies of monuments and their histories and of theoretical positions that shed light on aspects of their meanings. However, just as monuments mark their territory by attempting to ensure the existence of boundaries, so these discourses set a boundary between their authority as platforms on which the interpretation of monumental space occurs and in this respect the different authority of the novel. This study crosses this boundary by means of dynamic interdisciplinary movements between selected novels by James Joyce, Yukio Mishima, Rashid al Daif and Orhan Pamuk on the one hand and various theoretical perspectives, history and cultural geography on the other. Through the specific choice of literary texts that represent monumental space in a typical post-imperial geopolitical context, Monumental Space and the Post-Imperial Novel brings into question many postcolonial paradigms. Sakr establishes a two-way interpretive methodology between theory, history and cultural geography and the novel that serves as the groundwork for innovative interdisciplinary readings of monumental space. Forgetful Remembrance

Guy Beiner, 2018-11-10 Forgetful Remembrance examines the paradoxes of what actually happens when communities persistently endeavour to forget inconvenient events. The question of how a society attempts to obscure problematic historical episodes is addressed through a detailed case study grounded in the north-eastern counties of the Irish province of Ulster where loyalist and unionist Protestants and in particular Presbyterians repeatedly tried to repress over two centuries discomfiting recollections of participation alongside Catholics in a republican rebellion in 1798. By exploring a rich variety of sources, Beiner makes it possible to closely follow the dynamics of social forgetting. His particular focus on vernacular historiography rarely noted in official histories reveals the tensions between professed oblivion in public and more subtle rituals of remembrance that facilitated muted traditions of forgetful remembrance which were masked by a local culture of reticence and silencing. Throughout Forgetful Remembrance, comparative references demonstrate the wider relevance of the study of social forgetting in Northern Ireland to numerous other cases where troublesome memories have been concealed behind a veil of supposed oblivion. The Transformation of the World

Jürgen Osterhammel, 2015-09-15 A panoramic global history of the nineteenth century. A monumental history of the nineteenth century. The Transformation of the World offers a panoramic and multifaceted portrait of a world in transition. Jürgen Osterhammel, an eminent scholar who has been called the Braudel of the nineteenth century, moves beyond conventional Eurocentric and chronological accounts of the era, presenting instead a truly global history of breathtaking scope and towering erudition. He examines the powerful and complex forces that drove global change during the long nineteenth century, taking readers from New York to New Delhi, from the Latin American revolutions to the Taiping Rebellion, from the perils and promise of Europe's transatlantic labor markets to the hardships endured by nomadic tribal peoples across the planet. Osterhammel describes a world increasingly networked by the telegraph, the steamship and the railways. He explores the changing relationship between human beings and nature, looks at the importance of cities explains the role slavery and its abolition played in the emergence of new nations challenges the widely held belief that the nineteenth century witnessed the triumph of the nation state and much more This is the highly anticipated English edition of the spectacularly successful and critically acclaimed German book which is also being translated into Chinese Polish Russian and French Indispensable for any historian The Transformation of the World sheds important new light on this momentous epoch showing how the nineteenth century paved the way for the global catastrophes of the twentieth century yet how it also gave rise to pacifism liberalism the trade union and a host of other crucial developments

Beckett and Ireland Seán Kennedy, 2010-02-18 A volume of essays to provide compelling evidence of the continuing relevance of Ireland to Beckett's writing

Ireland and India M. Silvestri, 2009-10-22 Through a consideration of historical memory commemoration and the imagined communities of nationalism Ireland and India examines three aspects of Ireland's imperial history relationships between Irish and Indian nationalists the construction of Irishmen as imperial heroes and the commemoration of an Irish regiment's mutiny in India

Ireland's Heritages Mark McCarthy, 2017-09-29 This book is the first sustained attempt to incorporate critical scholarship and thought at the cutting edge of contemporary geography history and archaeology into the burgeoning field of Irish heritage studies It seeks to illustrate the validity of multiple depictions of the Irish past showing how scrutiny of heritage practices and meanings is so essential for illuminating our understanding of the present Examining Ireland's heritages from a critical perspective that celebrates notions of heterogeneity and uniqueness the distinguished contributors to this book scrutinise the multiplicity of complex relations between heritage history memory commemoration economy and cultural identity within various historical geographical and archaeological contexts Using several examples and case studies this book raises issues not only from a uniquely Irish perspective but also investigates the memorialisation and marketing of the Irish past in overseas locations such as the USA and Australia

W. B. Yeats and the Language of Sculpture Jack Quin, 2022-06-30 This book comprehensively examines the relationship between literature and sculpture in the work of W B Yeats drawing on extensive archival research to offer revelatory new readings of the poet The book traces Yeats's literary and critical engagement with Celtic Revival statuary public monuments in Dublin the coin designs of the Irish Free State abstract sculpture by the Vorticists and modernists and a variety of carvings decorative sculptures and objets d'art By charting Yeats's early art school education in Dublin his attempts to raise funds for public monuments in the city and to secure commissions for his favourite sculptors the book documents a lifelong interest in the plastic arts New and original readings of Yeats's poetry drama and prose criticism emerge from this concertedly inter arts and interdisciplinary study

Hocking,2015-02-01 While sectarian violence has greatly diminished on the streets of Belfast and Derry proxy battles over the right to define Northern Ireland s identity through its new symbolic landscapes continue Offering a detailed ethnographic account of Northern Ireland s post conflict visual transformation this book examines the official effort to produce new civic images against a backdrop of ongoing political and social struggle Interviews with politicians policymakers community leaders cultural workers and residents shed light on the deeply contested nature of seemingly harmonized urban landscapes in societies undergoing radical structural change Here the public art process serves as a vital means to understanding the wider politics of a transforming public sphere in an age of globalization and transnational connectivity Pluralising Pasts

G. J. Ashworth,Brian Graham,J. E. Tunbridge,2007-10-20 From museums and the preservation of old buildings to broader questions of community and identity heritage is now a political issue This book explores what heritage means now heritage is big business and how it is used to encourage people to identify with particular places and traditions now it is entangled with capitalism Examining a range of questions including the way contemporary societies use heritage in the creation and management of collective identities and how heritage is involved with the complexities of multicultural societies As resources are poured into heritage and questions of identity enter into public discourse this book shows how the heritage industry is used politically and commercially to shape the ways people represent themselves and are represented in diverse and hybrid societies The Meanings of the Built Environment Federico Bellentani,2021-01-18 This volume analyses the interpretation of the built environment by connecting analytical frames developed in the fields of semiotics and geography It focuses on specific components of the built environment monuments and memorials as it is easily recognisable that they are erected to promote specific meanings in the public space The volume concentrates on monuments and memorials in post Soviet countries in Eastern Europe with a focus on Estonia Elites in post Soviet countries have often used monuments to shape meanings reflecting the needs of post Soviet culture and society However individuals can interpret monuments in ways that are different from those envisioned by their designers In Estonia the relocation and removal of Soviet monuments and the erection of new ones has often created political divisions and resulted in civil disorder This book examines the potential gap between the designers expectations and the users interpretations of monuments and memorials The main argument is that connecting semiotics and geography can provide an innovative framework to understand how monuments convey meanings and how these are variously interpreted at societal levels      Heroic Revivals from Carlyle to Yeats Geraldine

Higgins,2012-08-16 This book reassesses the cultural and political dimensions of the Irish Revival s heroic ideal and explores its implications for the construction of Irish modernity By foregrounding the heroic ideal it shows how the cultural landscape carved out by these writers is far from homogenous      Public in Public History Joanna Wojdon,Dorota

Wiśniewska,2021-07-29 Public in Public History presents international research on the role of the public in public history the ways people perceive respond to and influence history related institutions events services and products that deal with the past The book addresses theoretical reflections on the public or multiple publics and their role in public history and empirical analyses of the publics active responses to and impact on existing forms of public history Special attention is also paid to digital public history which facilitates the double role of the public as both recipient and creator of public history With a multinational author team the book is based on various national but also international experiences and academic traditions each chapter goes beyond national cases to look transnationally The narratives built around their cases deal with issues such as arranging a museum exhibition managing a history related website analyzing readers comments or involving non professional public as oral history researchers With sections focusing on research commemorations museums and the digital world this is the perfect collection for anyone interested in what the public means in public history
