departure for new scholarship Experiencing the Postmetaphysical Self Fionola Meredith, 2004-12-14 This book charts and challenges the bruising impact of post Saussurean thought on the categories of experience and self presence It attempts a reappropriation of the category of lived experience in dialogue with poststructuralist thinking Following the insight that mediated subjectivity need not mean alienated selfhood Meredith forwards a postmetaphysical model of the experiential based on the interpenetration of poststructuralist thinking and hermeneutic phenomenology Since poststructuralist approaches in feminist theory have often placed women s lived experiences under erasure Meredith uses this hermeneutic deconstructive model to attempt a rehabilitation of the singular flesh and blood female existent Legal Barbarians Daniel

Bonilla Maldonado, 2021-09-09 In this novel and unorthodox historical analysis of modern comparative law Daniel Bonilla

Maldonado explores the connections between modern comparative law and the identity of the modern legal subject. Narratives created by modern comparative law shed light on the role played by law in the construction of modern individual and collective identities. This study first examines the relationship between identity, law, and narrative. Second, it explores the moments of emergence and transformation of this area of law instrumental comparative studies, comparative legislative studies, and comparative law as an autonomous discipline. Finally, it analyzes the theoretical perspectives that question the narrative created by modern comparative law. Third World Approaches to International Law, postcolonial studies of law, and critical comparative law. For lawyers and legal scholars, this study brings a nuanced understanding of the connections between the theory of modern comparative law and contemporary practical legal and political issues.

Constructing Narratives of Continuity and Change Hazel Reid, Linden West, 2014-08-27. In this volume, academics and researchers across disciplines including education, psychology, and health studies come together to discuss personal, political, and professional narratives of struggle, resilience, and hope. Contributors draw from a rich body of auto-biographical research to examine the role of narrative and how it can be constructed to compose a life story, considering the roles of significant others, inspirational, educational, and fictional characters, and those in myth and legend. The book discusses how personal narrative, often neglected in social and psychological enquiry, can be a valuable resource across a range of settings. Reference is made to the evolving role of narrative in education and health care, medicine, and psychotherapy. This includes how particular narratives are hardwired into culture in ways that stifle personal and social understanding. Rather than providing a how-to guide, the book illustrates the range and power of narrative, including poetry, to re-awaken senses of self and agency in extremis. Each chapter draws on specific research, describing the context, explaining the methodology, and illuminating important findings. Discussing implications for research and practice, this book will be key reading for postgraduate and doctoral students in auto-biographical and narrative studies, and across a range of disciplines including education, health, and social care, politics, counselling, and psychotherapy. It will be of interest to academics, teaching research methods, and those developing biographical and auto-biographical narrative research.

The 'Story-Takers' Paula M. Salvio, 2017-01-01. The Story Takers charts new territory in public pedagogy through an exploration of the multiple forms of communal protests against the mafia in Sicily. Writing at the rich juncture of cultural, feminist, and psychoanalytic theories, Paula M. Salvio draws on visual and textual representations, including shrines to those murdered by the mafia, photographs, and literary and cinematic narratives, to explore how trauma and mourning inspire solidarity and a quest for justice among educators, activists, artists, and journalists living and working in Italy. Salvio reveals how the anti-mafia movement is being brought out from behind the curtains, with educators leading the charge. She critically analyses six cases of communal acts of anti mafia solidarity and argues that transitional justice requires radical approaches to pedagogy that are best informed by journalists educators and activists working to remember not only victims of trauma but those who resist trauma and violence
