Relationship Breakdown And Housing:

Relationship Breakdown and Housing Lesley Moroney, Kathryn Harris, 1997 A Practical Guide Relationship Breakdown and Housing Executive Tenancies Housing Rights Service, 1998 Relationship Breakdown and Housing Rights Louise Carlin, 1999 The Housing Consequences of Relationship Breakdown Julie Bull, 1995 A Practical Approach to Housing Law Graham Robson, David Roberts, 2005 The authors provide a combination of the law and practice of housing law giving a detailed yet accessible analysis of the most important areas of housing law that practitioners currently encounter Housing associations - rehousing women leaving domestic violence Davis, Cathy, 2003-07-02 Housing associations are central to the government's strategy to improve social housing yet have no direct statutory responsibility for rehousing homeless people This study critically examines the role of housing associations in responding to the needs of women who have become homeless due to domestic violence Housing associations rehousing women leaving domestic violence will fill a gap in the literature for academic staff and students interested in housing studies social policy sociology women's studies political studies and organisation management studies provide valuable guidance to staff in housing associations and local authorities working in general needs housing supported housing and homeless services and provide policy makers with a useful introduction to key issues , Housing Transitions Through the Life Course Andrew Beer, Debbie Faulkner, 2011 Lifetime attitudes to housing have changed with new population dynamics driving the market and a greater emphasis on consumption This important contribution to the literature argues that how we think about households and their housing needs to be recast to acknowledge this changed environment and provide a more powerful conceptual framework Women and Housing Patricia Kennett, Kam Wah Chan, 2010-12-07 In the context of contemporary economic political social and cultural transformations this book brings together contributions from developed and emerging societies in Europe the USA and East Asia in order to highlight the nature extent and impact of these changes on the housing opportunities of women The collection seeks to contribute to comparative housing debates by highlighting the gendered nature of housing processes locating these processes within wider structured and institutionalized relations of power and to show how these socially constructed relationships are culturally contingent and manifest and transform over time and space The international contributors draw on a wide range of empirical evidence relating to labour market participation wealth distribution family formation and education to demonstrate the complexity and gendered nature of the interlocking arenas of production reproduction and consumption and the implications for the housing opportunities of women in different social contexts Worldwide examples are drawn from Australia China Great Britain Hong Kong Japan Spain Sweden Taiwan and the USA Making Sense of Prostitution J. Phoenix, 1999-03-08 This book provides a compelling analysis of the conditions in which women are sustained within prostitution in Britain at the end of the millennium Based on a major empirical study it is a unique glimpse into how some women who live lives completely torn apart by poverty violence and criminalization are able to understand their lives in prostitution and make sense of the choices they make including their involvement in prostitution in their struggles to survive Housing Consequences of Relationship Breakdown Julie Bull,1993-01-01 Relationship breakdown is increasing as evidenced in statistics of around 150 000 couples divorcing each year and this does not even take into account the breakup of cohabiting couples This survey looks at the impact of changing patterns of family life on social and housing policy with special emphasis on local authority housing Tenure violence the presence of children and marital status are inter related key factors influencing housing consequences All policy makers local authorities housing associations and agencies should consider the findings Women And Social Policy Christine Hallett,2018-10-08 Women and Social Policy is a major new textbook on women and social policy in Britain in the 1990 s Written by a team of leading academics the book provides an introduction to the key topics and issues in social policy as they directly affect women as both users and providers of welfare services All of the main social policy areas are covered employment poverty and social security housing education health the personal social services and community care The book also covers other issues such as race and domestic violence The book is published in association with the Social Policy Association Women and Social Policy Group

Children and Material Culture Joanna Sofaer Derevenski,2005-07-05 This is the first book to focus entirely on children and material culture The contributors ask what is the relationship between children and the material world how does the material culture of children vary across time and space how can we access the actions and identities of children in the material record The collection spans the Palaeolithic to the late twentieth century and uses data from across Europe Scandinavia the Americas and Asia The international contributors are from a wide range of disciplines including archaeology cultural and biological anthropology psychology and museum studies All skilfully integrate theory and data to illustrate fully the significance and potential of studying children Domestic Violence, Forced Marriage and 'honour'-Based Violence

Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Home Affairs Committee,2008 The Harassment and Abuse of Older People in the Private Rented Sector Nancy Carlton,2003-01-29 Help the Aged funded this major study because of concerns that older people living in private rented housing were vulnerable to abuse and harassment by landlords Drawing upon detailed research with older people professionals and landlords in six different localities the report provides the first major study of this important issue The report concludes with a series of recommendations to central and local government These include the need for changes in such areas as the overall regulation of the sector the rights of older tenants and in the housing benefit system The recommendations also cover the need for better training for professionals about abuse and harassment improved age related records and the need for improved funding for advice and advocacy services This study will be essential reading for a wide range of practitioners and academics whose interests and responsibilities span older people and their reliance upon the housing and welfare systems Ethnicity And Crime: A Reader Spalek, Basia,2008-07-01 Basia Spalek has compiled an excellent reader about a much researched and highly sensitive subject Crucially she contextualises ethnicity and crime within broadly defined social and intellectual contexts avoiding the limitation of all too frequently repeated research based solely on statistical measures and policy evaluations Simon Holdaway Professor of Criminology and Sociology Sheffield University Issues in relation to race and ethnicity have generated substantial and ever growing interest from and within a multitude of academic research and policy contexts This book brings together important material in race and ethnic studies and provides different ways of thinking about race and ethnicity in relation to crime and the criminal justice system Ethnicity and Crime A Reader consists of a collection of works that capture the main themes that arise from within this vast area of work It is divided into five sections Race and crime racial discrimination and criminal justice The racialisation of crime Social political and cultural contexts Race ethnicity and victimisation Self and discipline reflexivity Ethnic identities and crime Ethnic identities institutional reflexivity and crime Each section contains recurring and overlapping themes and includes many different ways of thinking about race and ethnicity in relation to crime It spans theoretical approaches that might be labelled as positivist critical race analyses left realist approaches feminist as well as post modern perspectives This is the first title in the new series Readings in Criminology and Criminal Justice and follows the series format of thematic sections together with an editor's introduction to the complete volume and an introduction to each section

Housing Shock Rory Hearne, 2020-06-03 The unprecedented housing and homelessness crisis in Ireland is having profound impacts on Generation Rent the wellbeing of children worsening wider inequality and threatening the economy Hearne contextualises the Irish housing crisis within the broader global housing situation by examining the origins of the crisis in terms of austerity marketisation and the new era of financialisation where global investors are making housing unaffordable and turning it into an asset for the wealthy He brings to the fore the perspectives of those most affected new housing activists and protesters whilst providing innovative global solutions for a new vision for affordable sustainable homes for all Affordability and the Supply of Housing Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: ODPM: Housing, Planning, Local Government and the Regions Committee, 2006-03-20 Affordability and the supply of Housing Session 2005 06 Vol 2 Oral and written Evidence

The well-being of children in the UK (4th edition) Jonathan Bradshaw, 2011-07-04 The well being of children is a vital and highly topical issue This important new book is the third in a series and updates the findings from a wide range of data to evaluate the outcomes of the Labour government's policies for children Edited by a highly regarded expert in the field it uses a framework to compare policy areas making it an excellent source book for researchers policy makers and students Causes of Action Pascoe Pleasence, Great Britain: Legal Services Commission, Nigel Balmer, Legal Services Research Centre, Alexy Buck, 2006-03-23 Civil law provides a framework within which people conduct their daily lives and civil court cases often relate to problems that affect people's basic life opportunities and well being This is the 2nd edition of this publication which sets out the key findings of surveys conducted in England and Wales in 2001 and 2004 the most extensive of its kind so far undertaken to examine people's experiences of civil law problems including exploring social economic and health consequences Issues discussed include the links between the civil justice system crime and social exclusion the relatively infrequent use of formal legal processes and the obstacles that can prevent problems being resolved
